Re: Schedule A (Form 5500) Insurance Information

Group Policy Number: 811324

Dear Valued Customer:

We are sending you the enclosed information to assist you in completing Schedule A, IRC Form 5500. This enclosed Schedule A information includes all the premiums we received and all commissions paid to your broker.

The commission information includes:

- Base commission, which is policy specific and included as part of your premium rate.
- Bonus commission and producer conference, which is a company operating expense, and therefore, not part of your premium rate. Bonus commission and the producer conference is based on the overall amount of business your broker has, and then proportioned to your account in accordance with your overall annual premium.

During the course of the year, Sun Life sales and other personnel may engage in various activities with the insurance producers connected with your ERISA plan, such as "lunch and learn" meetings, restaurant meals, attending sporting events, and/or playing golf. Generally, these activities are intended to establish or strengthen the business relationship between the Sun Life sales personnel and the insurance producers and are not provided as a compensatory payment attributable to the plan's insurance contract or to the non-insurance services being provided to the plan. Accordingly, we are not reporting such expenses unless we have determined both that a particular expense is in fact a compensatory payment and exceeds the insubstantial value reporting threshold described in the Form 5500 instructions.

Please let us know if you do not file these forms and you do not wish to receive this information in the future. If you have any questions concerning this letter or enclosed Schedule A information, please call us at 1-800-440-1311.

Sincerely,
Group Compensation Services
