Note 1 - Description of the Plan:

The following description of the Century Fasteners Corp. (the "Company") Employees' Retirement Savings Plan (the "Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General - The Plan is a defined contribution plan subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). All employees are eligible to participate the first day of the Plan year or the first day of the seventh month of the Plan year following the completion of one year of service and the attainment of twenty-one years of age.

Contributions - Each year, participants may contribute up to the maximum percentage allowable not to exceed the limits of Code Section 401(k). For 2014, the maximum deferral amount is $17,500. Participants who have attained age 50 before the end of the Plan year are eligible to make catch-up contributions. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined benefit or contribution plans. Participants direct the investment of their contributions into various investment options offered by the Plan. Each year, the Company has the option of making matching contributions based on discretionary amounts. In addition, the Company may elect to make a profit sharing contribution up to a maximum of 5.7% of a participant's compensation. The Company made a matching contribution on participants contributions of 25% up to 6%, which totaled $68,614, for the year ending July 31, 2014. The Company contributed $241,386 of a profit sharing contribution for the year ended July 31, 2014.

Vesting - Participants are vested immediately in their contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Vesting in the Company's contribution portion of their accounts is based on years of continuous service. A participant becomes vested at a rate of 20% per year after the second year, becoming fully vested after six years of service.

Participant Accounts - Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of (a) the Company's contributions, if any, (b) Plan earnings/(losses), and (c) charged with an allocation of administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participant earnings/(losses) or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Payment of Benefits - On termination of service due to death, disability or retirement, a participant, or his or her designated beneficiary, may elect to receive an amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account in a lump-sum amount. For termination of service due to other reasons, a participant may receive the value of the vested interest in his or her account as a lump-sum distribution. Prior to the normal retirement age, withdrawals from the Plan are allowed if a financial hardship is proven.

Forfeitures - Forfeitures are created when participants terminate employment before becoming entitled to their full benefits under the Plan. Forfeitures will be used to pay administrative expenses under the Plan. Any remaining amounts will be used to reduce any employer contributions to the Plan. Forfeiture account balances as of July 31, 2014 and 2013 were $23,961 and $17,365, respectively. Also, during the plan year ended July 31, 2014, no forfeitures were utilized.

Note 2 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Basis of Accounting - The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of Estimates - The preparation of financial statements, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, requires the Plan Administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of additions to and deductions from net assets available for benefits during the reporting period. Actual results, as determined at a later date, could differ from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition - Investments are reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 4 for a discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Notes Receivable from Participants - Notes receivable from participants are measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Related fees are recorded as administrative expenses and are expensed when they are incurred. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded as of July 31, 2014 or 2013. If a participant ceases to make loan repayments and the plan administrator deems the participant loan to be in default, the participant loan balance is reduced and a benefit payment is recorded.

Excess Contributions Payable - Amounts payable to participants for contributions in excess of amounts allowed by the IRS are recorded as a liability with a corresponding reduction to contributions. The excess contributions payable were $1,771 as of July 31, 2013 and there were no excess contributions payable at July 31, 2014.

Administrative Expenses - Certain expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid directly by the Company and are excluded from these financial statements. Recordkeeping and fees related to the administration of notes receivable from participants are charged directly to the participant's account and are included in administrative expenses. Professional fees of the Plan are paid by the Company. Investment related expenses are included in net appreciation of fair value of investments.

Benefit Payments - Benefits are recorded when paid.

Hardship Withdrawals - The Plan provides for hardship withdrawals from participants' vested balances, not to exceed an amount required to meet an immediate need created by hardship, and then only to the extent that such immediate need cannot be satisfied by other sources reasonably available to the participant. Permissible circumstances for hardship withdrawals include medical expense, purchase of a home, tuition payments, amounts necessary to prevent eviction from the participants' personal residence and such other circumstances as the Plan Administrator may determine in accordance with Internal Revenue Service rules and regulations. An employees' contributions to the Plan will be suspended for six months following a hardship withdrawal.

Risks and Uncertainties - Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the value of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the financial statements.

The Plan may have investments in securities with contractual cash flows, such as asset backed securities, collateralized mortgage obligations and commercial mortgage backed securities, including securities backed by sub-prime mortgage loans. The value, liquidity and related income of these securities are sensitive to changes in economic conditions, including real estate value, delinquencies or defaults, or both, and may be adversely affected by shifts in the market's perception of the issuers and changes in interest rates.

Reclassifications - Certain reclassifications have been made to a prior year footnote to conform to the current year presentation. Such reclassifications were limited to Note 4 - Fair Value Measurements and involved the reclassification of small growth funds to large funds in the table of investments at fair value as of July 31, 2013 and had no impact in the net increase in net assets available for benefits.

Subsequent Events - The Plan Administrator has evaluated subsequent events through May 14, 2015, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. The effect of those events and transactions that provide additional pertinent information about conditions that existed at the Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits date have been recognized in the accompanying financial statements.

Note 3 - Information Certified by the Trustee:

The Plan Administrator has elected the method of annual reporting compliance permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosures under ERISA. Accordingly, the Trustee has certified that the following information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule is complete and accurate:

a) Investments, as shown in the Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits as of July 31, 2014 and 2013.
b) Investment income, as shown in the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits for the year ended July 31, 2014.
c) Schedule H, Part IV, Line 4i - Schedules of Assets (Held at End of Year) as of July 31, 2014.
d) Schedule H, Part IV, Line 4j – Schedule of Reportable Transactions, for the year ended July 31, 2014.

The Plan's independent auditors did not perform auditing procedures with respect to this information, except for comparing such information to the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules.

Note 4 - Fair Value Measurements:

Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurements, provides the framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described as follows:

Level 1 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 - Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at July 31, 2014 and 2013.

- Money market funds: Valued at the closing price in the active market in which the fund is traded.

- Mutual funds: Valued at the closing price in the active market in which the fund is traded.

The preceding methods may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan Administrator believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following tables sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as of July 31, 2014 and 2013:

Transfers Between Levels

The availability of observable market data is monitored to assess the appropriate classification of financial instruments within the fair value hierarchy. Changes in economic conditions or model-based valuation techniques may require transfer of financial instruments from one fair value level to another. In such instances, the transfer is reported at the beginning of the reporting period. For the year ended July 31, 2014, there were no significant transfers in or out of levels 1, 2, or 3.

Note 6 - Plan Termination:

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so the Company has the right to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. In the event of Plan termination, participants' contributions remain fully vested and Company contributions become fully vested. Under no circumstances may the Company take ownership of any of the Plan's assets as a result of such termination.

Note 7 - Notes Receivable from Participants:

Participants may obtain loans from the Plan at a minimum of $1,000 and maximum of one-half of a participant's vested account balance, or $50,000 whichever is less. Loans are only permitted from the participant's salary deferral, employer matching and rollover account balances. Loans bear interest as reflected by local banks and are collateralized by the participant's account balance. Loans are generally payable through payroll deductions within five years.

Note 8 - Tax Status:

On August 30, 2001, the Internal Revenue Service stated that the prototype adopted by the Plan, as then designed, qualifies under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Plan has not received a determination letter specific to the Plan itself; however, the Plan administrator believes that the Plan was designed and was being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The Plan Administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of July 31, 2014, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Plan Administrator believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2011.

Note 9 - Investments:

Investments that represent 5% or more of the Plan's net assets are as follows:

Note 10 - Party-In-Interest:

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. manages the Plan's investments which include various mutual funds and money market funds. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. is the Trustee as defined by the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions. Administrative expenses paid to Wells Fargo by the Plan totaled $49,550 in 2014.
