Independent Auditors' Report

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the HMG Services, LLC Employee Benefit Trust (the Plan), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits-modified cash basis as of August 31, 2014 and 2013, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits-modified cash basis for the year ended August 31, 2014, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 2; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits-modified cash basis of the Plan as of August 31, 2014 and 2013, and the changes in net assets available for benefits-modified cash basis for the year ended August 31, 2014, in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 2.

Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 of the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial statements are prepared on the modified cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

HMG SERVICES, LLC EMPLOYEE BENEFIT TRUST

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

AUGUST 31, 2014

1. Description of Plan

The following description of the HMG Services, LLC Employee Benefit Trust ("the Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreement for a more complete description of the plans provisions.

(a) General. The Plan is self-insured and is sponsored by HMG Services, LLC for the benefit of its employees. The Plan was established and became effective January 1, 2005; however, there was no activity until March 2005. A third party administrator processes all claims for benefits.

(b) Coverage. A full-time employee who has a scheduled work week of 30 hours or more is eligible for coverage after completing 90 days of service to the company. Employees who are covered under the Plan may choose to cover eligible members of their family.

(c) Benefits. For all eligible employees and their dependents, the Plan covers medical and prescription drug expenses as described in the Plan Document. Benefit payments are subject to deductibles and percentage co-payments provided by the Plan.

(d) Contributions. The Plan Sponsor requires employee contributions in order to help fund benefits. The amount of employee contributions is determined annually and the amounts are withheld from payroll checks. Employer contributions are made throughout the year as needed to pay claims.

(e) Administrative expenses. The Employer pays the majority of the administrative expenses of the Plan.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of accounting. The Plan uses the modified cash basis of accounting as prescribed by the Department of Labor. This is a comprehensive basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America in which revenue is recognized when received rather than when earned and expenses are recognized when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred.

(b) Investments. All Plan assets are maintained in a noninterest-bearing checking account. The Plan sponsor transfers employer and employee contributions to the Plan to pay claims. The Plan currently does not have any funds invested.

(c) Use of estimates. The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires the Plan Administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates. The only significant estimate reported on these financial statements is management's estimate of benefit obligations.

3. Income Tax Status

As of the financial statement date, the Plan has not applied for a favorable determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service to confirm its tax-exempt status. However, in the opinion of the Plan's management, the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, and qualifies the Plan and related trust funds for tax-exempt status. The plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The plan administrator believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2010.

4. Plan Termination Provision

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Plan Sponsor has the right to terminate the Plan at any time, subject to the provision of ERISA. Because employee contributions are generally less than claims and employer contributions are made only as needed, the Plan has a minimal cash balance. Thus, a formal procedure for the distribution of funds at termination is not necessary. Any unpaid claims at termination are the responsibility of the Plan Sponsor.

5. Benefit Obligations

As of the end of the Plan year, there were certain claims that had been incurred but not reported. Management has estimated claims incurred but not reported for the periods ended August 31, 2014 and 2013 to be $88,101 and $27,343, respectively. Claims incurred but not reported is the only material component of benefit obligations.

6. Concentrations

The Plan maintains a bank account at a financial institution that is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000. At August 31, 2014, the Plan's balance was in excess of this amount by $36,711.

7. Subsequent Events

Management evaluates events occurring subsequent to the date of the financial statements in determining the accounting for and disclosure of transactions and events that affect the financial statements. Subsequent events have been evaluated through March 10, 2015, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
