NOTE B SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Use of Estimates. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Plan administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition. Investments are stated at fair value except the stable value fund (Note E). Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Plan's Investment Committee determines the Plan's valuation policies utilizing information provided by the investment advisors, custodians and insurance company. See Note D for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation and depreciation includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Earnings are net of expenses.

Recognition of Uncertainty in Income Taxes. The company applies generally accepted accounting principles for recognition of uncertainty in income taxes and prescribing a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for the recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. In the course of its assessment, the company has determined that it is subject to examination of its income tax filings in the United States and state jurisdictions for the prior three tax years. In the event that the company is assessed penalties and or interest, penalties and interest will be charged to administrative expenses.

NOTE D FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements, establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under ASC 820 are described as follows:

Level 1	Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the plan has the ability to access.
Level 2	Inputs to the valuation methodology include: • quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; • quoted prices for identical or similar asset or liabilities in inactive markets; • inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; • inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.
Level 3	Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in valuation methodologies for 2014 and 2013.

Mutual Funds: Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-end mutual funds that registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value (NAV) and to transact at that price. The funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded.

Stable Return Fund (common collective trust): Valued at the sum of the market value of all of the fund's investments at year end.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

NOTE E WELLS FARGO STABLE RETURN FUND

Wells Fargo Stable Return Fund N (the Fund) is a stable value fund of which Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. serves as the trustee. The Fund invests all of its assets in Well Fargo Stable Return Fund G, a common collective trust fund sponsored by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. which invests in investment contracts and security-backed contracts. Participants may ordinarily direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value. Contract value represents contributions made to the fund, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals.

There are several risks specific to investment contracts. One of the primary risks involved is credit risk of the contract issuer. Credit risk for security-backed contracts includes risks arising from the potential inability of the issuer to meet the terms of the contract wrapper and the potential default of the underlying fixed-income securities. Secondly, liquidity is limited because of the unique characteristics of investment contracts and the absence of an actively traded secondary market. Interest rate risk is also present because rates may be fixed with these products.

There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuer or otherwise. The crediting interest rate is based on a formula agreed upon with the issuer, but may not be less than zero percent.

Average yields:
Based on actual earnings	1.40%	1.36%
Based on interest rate credited to participants	1.64%	1.52%

NOTE F PLAN TERMINATION

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

NOTE G INCOME TAX STATUS

The Internal Revenue Service has determined and informed the company by a letter dated March 31, 2008, that the Plan and related trust are designed in compliance with applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Therefore, no tax has been recorded in these financial statements. Although the Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter, the Plan administrator and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan is designed and is currently operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC.

NOTE H PARTY-IN-INTEREST

The Plan administrator and other investment committee members are all employees of the Plan Sponsor and are also participants in the Plan. There are no transactions between the parties other than contributions to the Plan.

NOTE I RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Plan provides for investment options in various mutual funds and a Wells Fargo stable return fund. Investment securities of these types are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market, and credit. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near-term, and that such changes could materially affect participants; account balances and the amounts reported in the financial statements.

NOTE J SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

In accordance with ASC 855, management has evaluated all subsequent events through August21, 2015, the date these financial statements were available to be issued. There were no material subsequent events that required recognition or additional disclosure in these financial statements.
