Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2014 and 2013

Plan Description

The following description of the LifeCare Alliance (the Organization) 403(b) Retirement Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering all permissible employees of the Organization, as defined in accordance with the universal availability standards. Employees are eligible to enroll on their date of hire. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Contributions

Each year, participants may contribute any percentage of compensation provided that their salary deferral contributions do not exceed federal limits. Participants who have attained age 50 before the end of the Plan year or have in excess of fifteen years of service with the Organization are eligible to make catch-up contributions. Effective June 1, 2013, the Plan document was amended to provide for the Organization to contribute to the Plan. Pursuant to the amended Plan document, the Organization may make a discretionary matching contribution equal to a uniform percentage or dollar amount of the participant's elective deferrals. Additionally, the amended plan document also allows for the Organization to make a discretionary non-elective contribution allocated to each participant as a uniform percentage of compensation. The Organization made a matching contribution equal to 50% of the first 4% of eligible compensation that a participant contributed to the Plan during 2014 and 2013. The Organization contributed non-elective contributions equal to 1% of each eligible participant's eligible compensation during 2014 and 2013. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined benefit or defined contribution plans.

Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of (i) employer contributions and (ii) Plan earnings. Participant accounts are charged with an allocation of administrative expenses that are paid by the Plan. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined in the Plan agreement. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Participants may change their investment options at any time.

Payment of Benefits

On termination of service due to death, disability or retirement, a participant may elect to receive an amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account in either a lump-sum amount or in annual installments. For termination of service due to other reasons, a participant may receive the value of the vested interest in his or her account as a lump-sum distribution.

Forfeited Accounts

At December 31, 2014, forfeited non-vested accounts totaled $17. There were no forfeited non-vested accounts at December 31, 2013. The accounts are used to pay administrative expenses of the Plan. If any forfeited funds are remaining, those funds can be used to reduce employer contributions. Forfeitures of $1,145 were used to pay administrative expenses in 2014. No forfeitures were used during 2013.

Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Plan are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Investment contracts held by a defined contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the Plan. The contract value of the investment contract approximates fair value at December 31, 2014; thus no adjustment is required. The 2013 statement of net assets available for benefits presents the fair value of the investment contract as well as the adjustment of the fully benefit-responsive investment contract from fair value to contract value. The statements of changes in net assets available for benefits are prepared on a contract value basis.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation (depreciation) includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held during the year.

Payment of Benefits

Benefit payments are recorded when paid.

Administrative Expenses

Cost of Plan administration is paid by forfeitures of the non-vested portion of terminated participants' accounts. Administrative expenses that exceed available forfeitures are paid by the Organization unless Plan management directs the Plan to pay administrative expenses.

Investment Contract with VALIC

The Plan holds a fixed investment option with VALIC. The fixed investment option invests primarily in investment contracts such as traditional guaranteed investment contracts (GICs) and enters into “wrapper” contracts (also known as synthetic GICs). In a traditional GIC, the issuer takes a deposit from the various fixed investment options and purchases investments that are held in the issuer’s general account. The issuer is contractually obligated to repay the principal and a specified rate of interest guaranteed to the various fixed investment options. In a synthetic GIC structure, the underlying investments are owned by the various fixed investment options and held in trust for Plan participants. The various fixed investment options enter into “wrapper” contracts issued by a third party. The account is credited with earnings on the underlying investments and charged for participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. The wrap issuer agrees to pay the various fixed investment options an amount sufficient to cover unit holder redemptions and certain other payments (such as trust expenses), provided all the terms of the wrap contract have been met. Wrappers are normally purchased from issuers rated in the top three long-term rating categories (A- or the equivalent and above).

Because the fixed option investments are fully benefit-responsive, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits attributable to the fixed option investments. Contract value, as reported by VALIC, represents contributions made under the contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. Participants may ordinarily direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value.

There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuer or otherwise. The crediting interest rate is based on a formula agreed upon with the issuer. Such interest rates are reviewed on a monthly basis for resetting.

Certain events limit the ability of the Plan to transact at contract value with the issuer. Such events include the following: (1) amendments to the Plan documents (including complete or partial plan termination or merger with another plan), (2) changes to Plan’s prohibition on competing investment options or deletion of equity wash provisions, (3) bankruptcy of the plan sponsor or other plan sponsor events (for example, divestitures or spin-offs of a subsidiary) that cause a significant withdrawal from the Plan or (4) the failure of the trust to qualify for exemption from federal income taxes or any required prohibited transaction exemption under Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. The plan administrator does not believe that the occurrence of any such value event, which would limit the Plan’s ability to transact at contract value with participants, is probable.

The fixed investment options do not permit the Organization to terminate the agreement prior to the scheduled maturity date.

Fair Value Measurements

GAAP established a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to measure the fair value of the assets or liabilities being measured. Fair value is defined as the exchange value that would be received on the measurement date to sell an asset or to value the amount paid to transfer a liability in the principal or most advantageous market available to the entity in an orderly transaction between market participants. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1 inputs are unadjusted quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Plan has the ability to access at the measurement date. Level 1 inputs provide the most reliable measure of fair value as of the measurement date.
- Level 2 inputs are based on significant observable inputs, including unadjusted quoted market prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, unadjusted quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability.
- Level 3 inputs are significant unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The level of the fair value hierarchy within which a fair value measurement in its entirety falls is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2014 and 2013.

Fixed Investment

Account: Valued at contract value of the guaranteed investment contract, calculated by discounting the related cash flows based on current yields of similar instruments with comparable durations.

Mutual Funds: Valued at the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year-end.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Party-in-Interest Transactions

Certain plan investments are shares of mutual funds and a fixed investment account managed by VALIC. VALIC is one of the custodians, as defined by the Plan agreement, and therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions.

LIFECARE ALLIANCE 403(b) RETIREMENT PLAN

Notes to Financial Statements

Party-in-Interest Transactions (continued)

During 2014, the Plan paid approximately $1,300 in recordkeeping fees to the Plan's recordkeeper. The Plan also paid approximately $8,300 in investment advisory fees to the Plan's investment advisor in 2014. These fees have been recorded as part of benefits paid to participants on the 2014 statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

Tax Status

The Plan has been designed to qualify under Section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code (the Code). The terms of the Plan have been prepared to conform with the sample language provided by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) in Revenue Procedure 2007-71. The plan administrator intends to apply for a determination letter on the Plan once the IRS opens such a program. The Plan is required to operate in conformity with the Code to maintain the tax-exempt status for plan participants under Section 403(b).

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2014, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the accompanying 2014 statement of net assets available for benefits.

Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Organization, at its sole discretion, may terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. In the event of Plan termination, participants will become 100% vested in their accounts and contracts held on behalf of participants will be disbursed to such participants or be transferred to a successor plan, as directed by the participant.

Plan Amendment

Effective January 1, 2014, the Plan was amended to exclude bonuses from compensation for purposes of the employer matching and non-elective contributions.

LIFECARE ALLIANCE 403(b) RETIREMENT PLAN

Notes to Financial Statements

Effective June 1, 2013, the Organization amended the Plan Document and a new custodian and administrator was appointed. Plan assets were transferred to the new custodian into funds comparable to those offered by the previous custodian. Additionally, the amended Plan Document permits the Organization to make a matching contribution and a non-elective contribution to the Plan. Previously, only participant contributions were made to the Plan.

Concurrent with these changes, a separate plan maintained by the Organization, the LifeCare Alliance Contribution Retirement Plan, was terminated. Employees who had an account balance in the LifeCare Alliance Contribution Retirement Plan were permitted to rollover their account balance to this Plan. Approximately $768,000 in rollover contributions were made to the Plan during 2013 related to amounts previously held in the terminated plan.

Subsequent Events - Date of Management's Evaluation

The Plan has evaluated subsequent events through the date of the Independent Auditor's Report, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.
