Report on the Financial Statements

We were engaged to audit the accompanying financial statements of The RMS Savings Plan (the "Plan"), which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits in liquidation as of December 16, 2014 and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits in liquidation for the period from January 1, 2014 to December 16, 2014, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on conducting the audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the Plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note 3, which was certified by Fidelity Management Trust Company, the custodian of the Plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the financial statements. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the custodian holds the Plan's investment assets and executes investment transactions. The plan administrator has obtained a certification from the custodian as of December 16, 2014 and for the period from January 1, 2014 to December 16, 2014, that the information provided to the plan administrator by the custodian is complete and accurate.

Disclaimer of Opinion

Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on these financial statements.

Emphasis of Matter – Plan Termination

As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, during December 2014 the Receivable Management Services Corporation (the "Company") approved the merger of the Plan into the iQor Retirement Savings Plan effective December 16, 2014. As a result, the Plan changed its basis of accounting for periods after December 31, 2013 from the accrual basis to the liquidation basis. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Their report, dated October 14, 2014, indicated that (a) because of the significance of the information that they did not audit, they were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion and, accordingly, they did not express an opinion on the financial statements, and (b) the form and content of the information included in the financial statements other than that derived from the certified investment information were presented in compliance with the Department of Labor’s Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

RMS Savings Plan
Notes to Financial Statements
December 16, 2014 and December 31, 2013

1. Description of the Plan

The following description of The RMS Savings Plan (the “Plan”) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan Document for a more complete description of the Plan’s provisions.

General

The Plan was established on May 1, 2001 and was amended and restated effective July 28, 2011. The Plan is a defined contribution plan which covered substantially all employees of Receivable Management Services Corporation (“RMS”, the “Company” or “Plan Sponsor”). The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”).

In December 2014, the Company approved the merger of the Plan into the iQor Retirement Savings Plan effective December 16, 2014. As a result, all investments and notes receivable from participants were transferred from the Plan into the iQor Retirement Savings Plan on that date.

Eligibility

Employees became eligible to participate in the Plan immediately following their date of hire. Temporary employees, vice presidents and above, junior agents, trainees and trainee agents were not eligible to participate in the Plan. Employees were eligible to receive the non-elective employer contribution if they were employed on the last day of the plan year. Effective January 1, 2012 all employees of RMS became eligible to participate in the iQor Retirement Savings Plan (“iQor Plan”) and were no longer eligible to contribute to the RMS Savings Plan.

Contributions

The Plan provided each participant with an opportunity to make pre-tax and/ or Roth contributions to the Plan, not to exceed 75% of eligible compensation, and subject to the limitations of the Internal Revenue Code (“IRC”). The Company could also make a discretionary matching contribution and/ or a discretionary non-elective employer contribution to the Plan in accordance with the provisions contained in the plan document. Effective January 1, 2012, contributions were no longer allowed to be made to the Plan.

Participant Accounts

Each participant’s account was credited with their contributions, employer contributions and the earnings thereon. Contributions to the Plan were invested by the custodian as directed by the participants. Each participant could elect from one or more of the investment vehicles offered pursuant to the provisions of the Plan.

Vesting

Participants were immediately and fully vested in their own contributions, plus actual earnings thereon. Participants vested 100% after completing three years of service for the Company’s discretionary matching contributions and discretionary non-elective employer contributions.

Forfeitures

The Plan provided for terminated employees who resume employment within five years to have any forfeited amounts reinstated (“reinstatement period”), if the employee repays the full amount of the distribution attributable to vested employer contributions prior to the end of the reinstatement period. Plan participants’ forfeitures may be used to pay plan expenses or reduce the employers’ contribution for the plan year and, if applicable, any remaining amount shall be applied toward succeeding plan years until fully utilized. Forfeitures from employees for the period from January 1, 2014 to December 16, 2014 were approximately $3,200. Plan forfeitures of approximately $7,800 were applied in conjunction with the payment of plan expenses for the period from January 1, 2014 to December 16, 2014. The available balance of forfeitures as of December 31, 2013 was $8,500. Approximately $3,900 of forfeitures was transferred to the iQor Plan on December 16, 2014.

RMS Savings Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

December 16, 2014 and December 31, 2013

Benefits

A participants' vested interest in the Plan's assets was distributable generally upon termination, disability, retirement or death. Participants could withdraw from their individual accounts pursuant to specific guidelines as set forth in the plan document.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Participants could borrow from their accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum of the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balance. The maximum term of a loan was five years; or ten years, if the loan was for the purchase of a principal residence. The loans were secured by the balance in the participant's account and bore interest at a rate of prime plus one percent (1%). Notes receivable from participants were repaid through payroll deductions and monitored by the plan administrator. Notes receivable from participants were measured at their unpaid principal balance, plus any accrued interest. Approximately $486,000 in loans was transferred to the iQor Plan on December 16, 2014.

Administrative Expenses

All transaction fees for loan and distribution requests and maintenance fees were paid from participants' accounts. Substantially all administrative expenses were paid by the Plan through forfeitures, if available; otherwise they were to be paid by the Company.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

During December 2014, the Company approved a merger into the iQor Plan effective December 16, 2014. As a result, the Plan changed its basis of accounting for periods after December 31, 2013 from the accrual basis to the liquidation basis. The change from the accrual basis to the liquidation basis did not have a material effect on the financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America required the Plan administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affected certain reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and if applicable, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Accordingly, actual results could have differed from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments were stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 4 for discussions of fair value measurements. Purchase and sales of securities were recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income was recorded on an accrual basis. Dividends were recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation included the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold, as well as held during the year.

Investment contracts held by a defined contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined-contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the Plan. The statements of net assets available for benefits present the fair value of the investment contracts as well as the adjustment of the fully benefit-responsive investment contracts from fair value to contract value. The statement of changes in net assets available for benefits is prepared on a contract value basis.

4. Fair Value Measurements

The Plan's investments were stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Valuation techniques used to measure fair value are defined as follows:

- Level 1 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the plan has the ability to access.
- Level 2 - Inputs to the valuation methodology include: (a) quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; (b) quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets; (c) inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; and (d) inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.
- Level 3 - Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 16, 2014 and December 31, 2013

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in methodologies used from December 31, 2013 to December 16, 2014.

- Mutual funds: valued at quoted prices reported in an active market at the year end.
- Common collective trust fund: the fair value of the common collective trust is determined by the trustee of the common collective trust based on the underlying assets, which represents the net asset value, a practical expedient to fair value, of units held by the Plan. The common collective trust does not have any unfunded commitments relating to its investments, or any significant restrictions or redemptions. Participant-directed redemptions can be made on any business day and do not have a redemption notice period.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believed its valuation methods were appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial statements could have resulted in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Investments at fair value as of December 31, 2013 are as follows:

5. Tax Status

On March 31, 2008, the Internal Revenue Service stated that the prototype plan adopted by the Plan, as then designed, qualifies under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"). The Plan has not received a determination letter specific to the Plan itself; however, the plan administrator believed that the Plan was designed and was being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. Therefore, no provision for income taxes was included in the Plan's financial statements.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 16, 2014 and December 31, 2013

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the organization has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the Internal Revenue Service. The plan's management analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and concluded that as of both December 16, 2014 and December 31, 2013, there were no uncertain positions taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan was subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The plan's management believed it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2011.

6. Related Party Transactions

Certain Plan investments were managed by Fidelity and, therefore, these transactions qualified as party-in-interest transactions. Fees paid to Fidelity by the Plan for management services amounted to $19,066 for the period from January 1, 2014 to December 16, 2014.

7. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan's investments were concentrated in mutual funds and a common collective trust that invest in marketable securities. Such securities were subject to various risks such as interest rate, market and credit risks, which determine the value of the funds. Due to the level of risk associated with certain securities and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of these securities, it was at least reasonably possible that changes in market conditions in the near term could materially affect participants' account balances and the value of investments reported in the financial statements.
