EXELIS IS RETIREMENT SAVINGS PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2014

AND FOR THE PERIOD FROM FEBRUARY 4, 2014 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2014

1. DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN

Effective February 4, 2014, Exelis Inc. (the "Company") segregated the Exelis Systems Corporation Retirement and Savings Plan (the "Prior Plan") into two plans, the Prior Plan and the Exelis IS Retirement Savings Plan (the "Plan"). The Company conceived the Plan to accept the transfer of "Accounts" (as this term is defined in both the Prior Plan and the Plan) from the Prior Plan to the Plan, for those categories of Exelis employees listed in Appendix A – Benefit Groups and Projects (as updated, effective February 2, 2014) in the plan document.

The provisions of the Plan are conditioned upon the Plan's qualification under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Code") and Employer contributions being deductible under Section 404 of the Code. It is further intended that the Plan also conform to the requirements of Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, and that the Trust (as this term is defined in the Plan) be qualified under Section 501 of the Code.

The amended and restated Plan applies only to participants whose employment terminate on or after February 4, 2014. The amended and restated Plan shall have no effect on the benefits of previously retired or terminated participants, except as otherwise expressly provided in the Plan, or the adoption of resolutions or as required by law.

The following description of the Plan is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Plan document for more complete information.

General—The Plan is a defined contribution plan sponsored by the Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of Harris Corporation. An eligible employee shall become a participant as defined in the eligibility section below. Prudential Bank & Trust, F.S.B. ("Prudential" or the "Trustee") is the trustee of the Plan. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA").

Eligibility—An "Eligible Employee" means an employee described in (A) below, excluding any employee described in (B) below.

- (A) Each person who is an Eligible Employee of Exelis Inc. or Spaceport Systems International and was a participant in the Prior Plan on February 3, 2014, shall continue to be a participant on and after February 4, 2014.
- (B) Each person who is an Eligible Employee of Exelis Inc., Spaceport Systems International, or any other company or division participating in the Plan as provided in Section 12.03 of the plan document, with respect to its Eligible Employees, as approved by the Board of Directors or its delegate, shall become a participant as set forth in subsection (c) of Section 2.01 of the plan document.
- (C) Except as otherwise provided in a collective bargaining agreement applicable to a benefit group or project listed in Appendix A of the plan document, an Eligible Employee shall be eligible to become a participant as follows:

(1) With respect to floor contributions and fringe contributions, an Eligible Employee shall be eligible to become a Participant on the date he becomes an Eligible Employee.

(2) With respect to deferred cash contributions and matching contributions, an Eligible Employee shall be eligible to become a contributing participant on the first day of the month following the date he completes 30 days of employment with the employer.

(D) An Eligible Employee is any employee of the employer included in a benefit group or project (i.e., SCA contract, union or management group) specified in Appendix A of the plan document who satisfies (1), (2) or (3) below, but who is not otherwise excluded under (b) below:

(1) An employee who is paid from a payroll maintained in the continental United States, Hawaii or Alaska, and whose place of employment is within the continental United States, Hawaii or Alaska.

(2) An employee who is not eligible under (1) above and is paid in United States currency, and is a United States citizen or tax resident, as defined in Section 7701(b) of the Code.

(3) An employee who is not eligible under (1) above and who is not eligible under (2) above solely because they are not paid in United States currency, provided:

(a) The employee is paid in the currency prescribed under the applicable contract;

(b) The employee is a United States citizen or tax resident, as defined in Section 7701(b) of the Code; and

(c) The employee is subject to United States employment and income taxes, and their United States employment and income taxes, and their contributions to employee benefit plans are calculated and deducted from pay on the basis of United States currency.

If such employee's status is subsequently reclassified so that they are subject to employment or other residency tax obligations in their host country, they shall immediately cease to be an Eligible Employee.

(E) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, an Eligible Employee does not include:

(1) an employee who is eligible to participate in any other 401(k) plan sponsored by the employer or any affiliated employer, including but not limited to, a salaried employee classified by the employer as a management-benefited employee who is eligible to participate in the Exelis Salaried Investment and Savings Plan, and including any employee who is eligible to participate in a multiemployer plan to which the employer or any affiliated employer is obligated to remit and/or make contributions;

- (2) an Employee working in Puerto Rico;
- (3) a salaried employee who is classified as a non-Exelis management-benefited employee (non-ITT management-benefited employee prior to October 31, 2011) of Pacific Missile Range Facility ("PMRF") who is considered a temporary employee (i.e., a CAT III employee as defined in the PMRF contract);
- (4) an employee working for Federal Services International, Ltd; or
- (5) an employee of an affiliated employer, unless such affiliated employer has adopted the Plan pursuant to Section 12.03 in the plan document.

Contributions—Under the provisions of the Plan allowable contributions are outlined as follows:

Participant Contributions—Participants can contribute on a pre-tax basis, as permitted by Section 401(k) of the Code, an amount from 1% to 70% of their compensation as defined by the Plan, limited by the requirements of the Code. Participants can also make Roth contributions. Roth contributions are deducted on an after taxes basis. Employees may contribute “rollover” contributions from another qualified plan upon becoming an eligible employee. Participation in employee contributions may begin the first day of the month following the completion of 30 days of employment from date of hire.

Employer Contributions—The Company may make a contribution to the Plan on behalf of each participant in an amount equal to the specifications outlined in Appendix A of the Plan Document. The governing contract or collective bargaining agreement will dictate the amount of the employer matching and employer non-matching contributions. Participation in employer non-matching contributions begins on their date of hire, if applicable. Participation in the employer matching contributions, if applicable, begins on the same date as employee contributions.

Participant Accounts—Individual accounts are maintained for each Plan participant. Each participant’s account is credited with the participant’s contribution, the employer’s matching contribution, and allocations of employer non-matching contributions and Plan earnings, and charged with withdrawals and an allocation of Plan losses and administrative expenses. Allocations are based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant’s vested account.

Investment Options—Participants designate the funds in which their contributions and employer contributions are to be invested. All investments are participant directed.

Vesting—Participant’s interest in their contributions and employer contributions is fully vested at all times.

Notes Receivable from Participants—Participants may borrow from their fund account balance in any whole dollar amount which must be a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum of the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of the participant’s vested interest in their account, reduced by the highest outstanding loan balance, if any, during the prior 12-month period. Loan terms range up to 4 years. A participant who is using a loan for the purchase of a primary residence may elect to repay the loan over a period of whole years between 1 and 9. A participant’s Roth account balance will be taken into consideration for purposes of calculating a participant’s available loan balance; however, loans may not be taken from the participant’s Roth account.

The interest rate for loans issued by the Plan shall be computed by adding one percent to the prime rate from The Wall Street Journal for the last business day of the quarter preceding the quarter in which the loan is processed. Principal and interest are paid ratably through payroll deductions. Participants may have one loan outstanding at any given time. The interest rate is determined at the time the loan is processed, and shall remain in effect for the term of the loan, with the exception of loans while the participant is on leave under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act.

Payments of Benefits—On termination of employment (including death, disability, or retirement), a participant or his/her surviving spouse beneficiary may elect to receive a lump-sum amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his/her account paid in cash, or as a rollover to another qualified plan or an individual retirement account, or periodic payments under one of two alternative installment options. In any case, a participant or his/her surviving spouse beneficiary whose vested account balance is more than $5,000 may elect to keep his/her account balance in the Plan until the year in which the participant reaches/would have reached age 70½.

Notwithstanding any provision of the Plan to the contrary, no withdrawal may be made from the participant's Roth account unless the withdrawal is made after the close of the five-consecutive calendar year period that began on the first day of the first calendar year in which the participant made a Roth contribution to this Plan.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Accounting—The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Use of Estimates— The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and changes therein and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Risks and Uncertainties—The Plan utilizes various investment instruments, including mutual funds, pooled separate accounts and group annuity. Investment securities, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such change could materially affect the amounts reported in the financial statements.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition— The Plan's investments are measured at fair value. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (i.e., an exit price). A more detailed description of the individual types of securities can be found in Note 3.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Administrative Expenses— The Plan Sponsor provides accounting and other administrative services to the Plan at no charge. Administrative expenses are paid by the Plan or the Company in accordance with the Plan document.

Benefits Paid to Participants—Benefit payments to participants are recorded upon distribution. Additionally, for loans declared in default the principal and accrued interest are recorded as a distribution.

3. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, provides a framework for measuring fair value. This framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value, as follows: Level 1, which refers to securities valued using unadjusted quoted prices from active markets for identical assets and liabilities; Level 2, which refers to securities not traded on an active market but for which observable market inputs are readily available or quoted prices in an active market for similar assets and liabilities; and Level 3, which refers to securities valued based on significant unobservable inputs. Assets are classified in their entirety based on the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

Asset Valuation Techniques – Valuation techniques maximize the use of relevant observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2014.

- Mutual funds – Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-ended mutual funds that are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value (NAV) and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded.
- Pooled separate accounts (“PSAs”) - Fair value is estimated based on NAV, which is used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value. While NAV for a PSA is quoted in a market that is not active; classification in the fair value hierarchy is based on the observability of the investments held in the PSA. Accordingly, the Plan has classified PSAs based on the lowest level input that is significant to NAV. There are no unfunded commitments related to the PSAs and investments in PSAs can be redeemed on a daily basis.
- Group annuity – Fair value equals contract value, which is valued at NAV and classified in Level 2. The interest rates are reset at a semi-annual basis.

Fair Value Measurements at December 31, 2014

	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)	Total
Prudential Financial Group Pooled Separate Accounts:
Fixed income	$ -	$ 2,410,794	$ -	$ 2,410,794
Large cap	-	15,033,834	-	15,033,834
International stock	-	3,387,348	-	3,387,348
Mid cap	-	8,497,484	-	8,497,484
Small cap	-	6,919,256	-	6,919,256
Target fund	-	25,939,782	-	25,939,782
Mutual funds	4,108,731	-	-	4,108,731
Group annuity	-	20,307,434	-	20,307,434
Total	$ 4,108,731	$ 82,495,932	$ -	$ 86,604,663

Transfers Between Levels — The availability of observable market data is monitored to assess the appropriate classification of financial instruments within the fair value hierarchy. Changes in economic conditions or model-based valuation techniques may require the transfer of financial instruments from one fair value level to another. In such instances, the transfer is reported at the beginning of the reporting period.

We evaluate the significance of transfers between levels based upon the nature of the financial instrument and size of the transfer relative to total net assets available for benefits. There were no transfers between levels for the year ended December 31, 2014.

4. EXEMPT PARTY-IN-INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

Plan investments include shares of mutual funds, PSAs and group annuity managed by Prudential. Prudential is the trustee, as defined by the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualify as exempt party-in-interest transactions.

Fees paid by the employer for trustee services and administrative fees provided by the trustees amounted to approximately $10,725 for the year ended December 31, 2014.

Certain administrative functions are performed by the officers and employees of the Company (who may also be participants in the Plan) at no cost to the Plan.

These transactions are not deemed prohibited party-in-interest transactions because they are covered by statutory or administrative exceptions from the Code and ERISA's rules on prohibited transactions

5. INFORMATION CERTIFIED BY THE TRUSTEE (UNAUDITED)

The following is a summary of the unaudited information regarding the Plan as of December 31, 2014 and for the year ended December 31, 2014, included in the Plan's financial statements that was prepared by or derived from information prepared by Prudential, the trustee of the Plan, and furnished to the plan administrator. 8. PLAN TERMINATION

9. FEDERAL INCOME TAX STATUS

The Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") has determined and informed the plan administrator by a letter dated February 11, 2015, that the Plan is qualified and therefore is tax-exempt, under the appropriate sections of the Code.

GAAP requires Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

10. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

For the year ended December 31, 2014, subsequent events were evaluated through October 12, 2015, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. The assets of the Plan were merged into the Exelis Retirement Savings Plan ("RSP") on January 2, 2015 as a result of a plan merger.

On May 29, 2015, the Harris Corporation completed the acquisition of the Company; Exelis Inc. became a wholly owned subsidiary of Harris Corporation. Each outstanding share of Exelis common stock converted into the right to receive $16.625 in cash and 0.1025 of a share of Harris Corporation common stock. The Company continues to be the Plan Sponsor of the Plan.
