Independent Auditor's Report

The Plan Committee of the Etex Telephone Cooperative, Inc. Comprehensive Major Medical Health Care Plan

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Etex Telephone Cooperative, Inc. Comprehensive Major Medical Health Care Plan (the Plan), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits (cash basis) as of January 31, 2015 and 2014, and the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits (cash basis) for the year ended January 31, 2015, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2; this includes determining that the cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the presentation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Plan's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of Etex Telephone Cooperative, Inc. Comprehensive Major Medical Health Care Plan (cash basis) as of January 31, 2015 and 2014, and the changes in net assets available for benefits (cash basis) for the year ended January 31, 2015, in accordance with the cash basis of accounting described in Note 2.

Basis of Accounting

As discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements, which describes the basis of accounting, the financial statements are prepared on the cash basis of accounting, which is a basis of accounting other than accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

ETEX TELEPHONE COOPERATIVE, INC. COMPREHENSIVE MAJOR MEDICAL HEALTH CARE PLAN
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
January 31, 2015

Note 1 – Description of Plan:

The following description of the Etex Telephone Cooperative, Inc. Comprehensive Major Medical Health Care Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a health and welfare benefit plan that was established effective February 1, 2000. The Plan provides for the payment or reimbursement of certain medical, prescription drug, vision and dental expenses for the benefit of the Plan's participants. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

The Plan's sponsor and administrator, is Etex Telephone Cooperative, Inc. (the Company). The claims administrator is HealthFirst Plans, Inc. (HealthFirst). Unimerica Insurance Company (Unimerica) is the stop-loss insurer for all coverage for the year ended January 31, 2015.

Eligibility and Benefits

Full-time employees (and their dependents) and active directors are eligible for medical, hospital, surgical, dental, vision and other related health benefits after a 90 day service waiting period from date of hire. Full-time employees are employees who work 31 or more hours per week.

The Plan self-insures its health benefits coverage for participants up to $70,000 per person with no annual attachment limit. Stop-loss insurance reimbursements of $94,709 have been netted against health claims paid in the year ended January 31, 2015.

Contributions

Contributions for health benefits are made by the Company and the Plan's participants based on rates established by the Company. Such employer and employee contributions are used to fund current health benefits. The Company's board of directors annually determines the amount of contributions to be made by the participants for current health benefits. Employee monthly contributions for current health benefits were $60 for the period ended January 31, 2015. Employees may elect to extend coverage to eligible dependents at no additional monthly charge.

Expenses of the Plan

All reasonable expenses of administering the Plan are paid out of the Plan assets, unless paid for by the Company. For the period ended January 31, 2015 the Company paid no expenses related to the administration of the Plan that were not treated as a contribution to the Plan by the Company.

Amendment and Termination

Although it has not expressed an interest to do so, the Company has the right to amend or terminate the Plan and related Trust at any time. However, no amendment, change or modification may deprive a participant of any benefits that are accumulated after the effective date of an amendment but before its adoption.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies:

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements are prepared on the cash basis, which differs from generally accepted accounting principles. The more significant differences are:

- Contributions and other additions to net assets available for plan benefits are recorded when received rather than when earned.
- Claims and other expenses are recorded when paid rather than when the obligation is incurred.

Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not purport to be presented in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Estimates in the Financial Statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations and changes therein, incurred but not reported, claims payable and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Claims Incurred But Not Reported

Plan obligations at January 31 for heath claims incurred by active participants but not reported at that date are estimated by considering actual claims reported within eight months after year end and the historical amounts of claims filed more than eight months after year end.

Note 3 – Federal Income Taxes:

The operations of the Plan are not segregated in a 501(c)(9) trust; therefore, an Internal Revenue Service determination letter is not required. However, the Plan Sponsor believes the Plan was operated within the provisions of ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code.

Note 4 – Benefit Obligation:

Estimated claims incurred but not reported at the beginning and ending of the year are as follows:

Benefit Obligations Currently Payable:
Balance, Beginning of Year	$ 404,802
