Re: EIN 11-3555043 Form 5500SF, years 2013 and 2014

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am requesting an abatement of penalties for the late filing of these two 5500 reports. Madison Physical Therapy, Inc is a small employer. Our business activity has not been up to our expectations. When we initiated this plan, we had projected that we would be a successful and profitable business enterprise. Unfortunately, our revenues and profits have not met our goals. In October 2012, hurricane Sandy destroyed our office and forced us to shut down. Hurricane Sandy also caused severe damage to the owners personal residence and created further financial stress as well as personal chaos. The intent when this plan was started was to provide a benefit to our employees. This plan had been effective as of the year 2012. We have since terminated this plan and distributed all of the funds to each employee as directed by the plan consultant.

I am respectfully requesting an abatement of the late filing penalties for these two years. At the time that the electronic filing was to have been made, we were struggling personally and financially and trying to rebuild a business and a home. This caused us to overlook the filings.

Thank you for your consideration and understanding.

Sincerely,

tores

Mark Amir, President
