ASPEN SKIING COMPANY SAVINGS PLAN

Notes to Financial Statements

(1) Plan Description

Effective May 1, 1986, the Aspen Skiing Company (the Company) established the Aspen Skiing Company Savings Plan (the Plan). The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA). The following description of the Plan provides only general information. Participants and all others should refer to the plan document for a more detailed description of the Plan's provisions.

(a) General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering all employees of the Company, who are age 18 years or older, and who have completed one year of service in which they are credited with 300 hours of service. The Plan was established under the provisions of Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), which includes a qualified deferred arrangement as described in Section 401(k) of the IRC, for the benefit of eligible employees of the Company. Benefits under the Plan are not guaranteed by the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation.

(b) Trustee and Administration of the Plan

The trustee of the Plan is Fidelity Management Trust Company ("Trustee" or "Fidelity"). Fidelity Employer Services Corporation provides recordkeeping services. The administrator of the Plan is the Company. The Trustee holds all assets of the Plan in accordance with the Service Agreement with the Company. The Company determines the appropriateness of the Plan's investment offerings and monitors investment performance.

(c) Contributions and Excess Contributions Payable

Each plan year, participants may contribute on a before-tax or after-tax Roth basis up to 60% of eligible compensation, as defined by the Plan, limited by the requirements of the IRC. Participants may also roll over amounts representing distributions from other qualified plans in accordance with the IRC.

The Plan provides for discretionary matching and discretionary non-elective contributions. During the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015, the Company matched on a dollar-for-dollar basis the first 2% of the participant's eligible compensation. An additional discretionary matching contribution of 4% of eligible earnings was approved by the Company for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015 and was contributed to the Plan in July 2015. There were no discretionary non-elective contributions for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015. Participants must be employed on the last day of the year to receive the discretionary matching and discretionary non-elective contributions.

For the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015 the Plan had excess contributions that required a refund to participants of $34,047. These amounts were refunded in August 2015 and were included as a payable on the accompanying Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits and net with contributions on the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits. For the fiscal year ended May 31, 2014 there were no excess contributions requiring refund.

(d) Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with (a) the participant's elective deferral contributions, (b) rollovers, if applicable, (c) employer discretionary matching and non-elective contributions, and (d) allocations of plan earnings and losses, as determined by the plan document. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

(e) Vesting

Participants are 100% vested in their elective deferral and rollover contributions and allocated earnings or losses thereon.

Employer contributions vest over a period of four years, with 25% credited for each year of service completed, as defined in the Plan. Upon death or disability while employed by the Company, a participant's account balance will automatically become 100% vested. In addition, participants are 100% vested in their account balances upon retirement from the Company.

(f) Forfeitures

In the event a participant terminates and distributes their account balance before becoming 100% vested in Company employer discretionary matching or discretionary non-elective contributions plus net earnings and losses thereon, unvested amounts are forfeited. Forfeitures are used to pay the reasonable, ordinary, and necessary expenses of the operation and administration of the Plan and to reduce employer contributions. Unused forfeitures remaining at May 31, 2015 and 2014 were $21,662 and $21,358, respectively, and are shown as a component of net assets available for benefits in the accompanying financial statements. Forfeitures used to pay expenses and reduce employer contributions were not material during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015.

(g) Benefits

Upon termination of service due to death, disability, retirement, or termination, a participant may elect to receive a lump-sum amount equal to the value of the participant's vested interest in his or her account or annual installments or roll over to another qualified plan. In addition, hardship distributions are permitted if certain criteria are met. The Plan provides that participants may receive in-service distributions of any or all of their account as of the date they attain age 59½.

(h) Investment Options

Participants may direct their accounts among various investment options in registered investment companies, a common/collective trust, a money market fund, and individual self-directed brokerage account.

(i) Notes Receivable from Participants

Participants may borrow from their accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balance. Loans are secured by the participant's account and bear a reasonable interest rate based on prevailing market rates. The loans are subject to certain restrictions, as defined in the plan document and applicable restrictions under the IRC. Interest rates ranged from 3.25% to 8.25% as of May 31, 2015. Loan terms may not exceed five years.

(j) Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA. Participants would be fully vested in their accounts upon termination of the Plan.

(2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements of the Plan have been prepared using the accrual method of accounting. The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Plan's management to use and assumptions that affect the accompanying financial statements and disclosures. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Investment contracts held by a defined contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined contribution plan attributable to fully benefit-responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the Plan. The Plan invests in investment contracts through a common/collective trust. Contract value for this common/collective trust is based on the net asset value of the trust as reported by the investment advisor. The accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits present the fair value of the investment contracts as well as the adjustment of the fully benefit-responsive investment contracts from fair value to contract value. The statement of changes in net assets available for benefits is prepared on a contract value basis.

(b) Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments in registered investment companies, self-directed brokerage account, and a money market fund are stated at fair value, which is based on quoted market prices.

The Fidelity Managed Income Portfolio is a common/collective trust that invests in guaranteed investments contracts (GICs) and synthetic GICs and is presented at fair value as well as the adjustment from fair value to contract value. The fair value of fully benefit-responsive investment contracts is calculated using a discounted cash flow model, which considers recent fee bids as determined by recognized dealers, discount rate, and the duration of the underlying portfolio securities.

The common/collective trust includes investments in investment contracts and security-backed contracts. An investment contract is a contract issued by a financial institution to provide a stated rate of return to the buyer of the contract for a specified period of time. A security-backed contract has similar characteristics as a traditional investment contract and is comprised of two parts: the first part is a fixed-income security or portfolio of fixed-income securities; the second part is a contract value guarantee (wrapper) provided by a third party. Wrappers provide contract value payments for certain participant-initiated withdrawals and transfers, a floor crediting rate, and return of fully accrued contract value at maturity.

The yield earned by the common/collective trust at the audited financial statement reporting date of September 30, 2015 and 2014 was 1.85% and 1.65%, respectively. This represents the annualized earnings of all investments in the common/collective trust, including the earnings recorded at the underlying collective trust funds, divided by the fair value of all investments in the common/collective trust at September 30, 2015.

The yield earned by the common/collective trust with an adjustment to reflect the actual interest rate credited to participants in the common/collective trust at the audited financial statement reporting date of September 30, 2015 and 2014 was 1.18% and 1.02%, respectively. This represents the annualized earnings credited to participants of the common/collective trust, including the earnings recorded at the underlying collective trust funds, divided by the fair value of all investments in the common/collective trust at September 30, 2015.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest is recorded as earned. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

The net change in the fair value of investments (net appreciation or depreciation in fair value of investments) is reflected in the accompanying statement of changes in net assets available for benefits and is determined as the difference between fair value at the beginning of the plan year (or date purchased during the plan year) and selling price or plan year-end fair value.

(c) Distributions to Participants

Distributions are recorded when paid in the accompanying statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

(d) Administrative Fees

The Plan paid certain administrative fees, which were incurred in connection with the Plan. Administrative fees paid out of plan assets amounted to $5,535 for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015. Investment related expenses (in the form of a fee expense ratio charged to each investment option) are included in net appreciation of fair value of investments. Certain expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid directly by the Company and are excluded from these financial statements.

(e) Notes Receivable from Participants

Participant loans are required to be classified as notes receivable from participants for all periods presented in the financial statements. The loans are segregated from plan investments and measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. The Plan has included participant loans as notes receivable from participants in the statements of net assets available for benefits. Delinquent participant loans are reclassified as a distribution when management deems collection is not probable.

(3) Information Certified by the Plan Trustee

The plan administrator has elected the method of annual reporting compliance permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Accordingly, the trustee has certified that the following data included in the accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedule is complete and accurate:

- Investments of $64,785,188 and $58,021,827 and adjustment from fair value to contract value for fully benefit-responsive investment contracts of ($6,098) and ($7,302), as shown in the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits as of May 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively;
- Notes receivable from participants as shown in the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits of $737,473 and $800,201 as of May 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively;
- Investment income as shown in the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits of $4,485,105 for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015;
- Interest on notes receivable from participants as shown in the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits of $24,933 for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015;
- Investment information in notes 4 and 5; and
- Schedule H, line 4i – schedule of assets (held at end of plan year) as of May 31, 2015, as shown on the supplemental schedule.

Custody of plan investments and the reporting thereof is managed through an agreement with Fidelity , the trustee of the Plan. Participants are allowed to direct their contributions for investments in a variety of investment funds offered by the trustee.

(4) Investments

The following table presents investments that exceed 5% of net assets available for benefits as of May 31, 2015 and 2014:

		2015
Registered Investment companies	$	1,640,343
Self directed brokerage account - registered investment companies		40,358
Self directed brokerage account - common stocks		70,795
Net Appreciation in fair value of investments	$	1,751,496

(5) Fair Value Measurements

The Plan's financial assets include the investments. The carrying values of the Plan's investments are their fair value.

The Plan estimates fair value using a hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

- Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity has the ability to access.
- Level 2 – Observable inputs, other than quoted prices included in Level 1, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets and liabilities in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.
- Level 3 – Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities. This includes certain pricing models, discounted cash flow methodologies, and similar techniques that use significant unobservable inputs.

Certain investments are reported at fair value on a recurring basis in the statements of net assets available for benefits. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

Registered investment companies and money market fund – These investments consist of various publicly traded mutual funds and money market fund. The fair values are based on quoted market prices and are classified within Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

Common/collective trust – These investments are public investment vehicles valued using a discounted cash flow model, which considers recent fee bids as determined by recognized dealers, discount rate, and the duration of the underlying portfolio securities. These investments are classified within Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

Self-directed brokerage account – These investments allow participants to invest all or a portion of their defined contribution account balance into investment options available through the Fidelity BrokerageLink service. Investment options include mutual funds with registered investment companies, common stocks, bonds, and cash. These investments are classified within Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

Investments measured at fair value on a recurring basis consisted of the following types of instruments as of May 31, 2015 and 2014:

	Total carrying value in statements net assets available for benefits		Quoted prices in active markets (Level 1)		Significant other observable inputs (Level 2)		Significant other unobservable inputs (Level 3)

(1) Although the amount reflected in the table above represents the fair value of this investment, the contract value (the amount available for plan benefits) was $339,169 and $354,745 as of May 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan's valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methods or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Changes in Fair Value Levels

The availability of observable market data is monitored to assess the appropriate classification of financial instruments within the fair value hierarchy. Change in economic conditions or model-based valuation techniques may require the transfer of financial instruments from one fair value level to another. In such instances, the transfer is reported at the beginning of the reporting period. No investments were transferred between levels of the fair value hierarchy during the year ended May 31, 2015.

(6) Tax Status

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has determined by an opinion letter for a prototype plan dated March 31, 2014 that the Plan and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of IRC. Although the Plan has been amended since receiving the opinion letter, the plan administrator believes that the Plan is designed and is currently being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. Therefore, the plan administrator believes that the Plan was qualified and the related trust was exempt as of May 31, 2015 and 2014.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax asset or liability if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan and has concluded that as of May 31, 2015 and 2014, there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of an asset or liability or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The plan administrator believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2012.

(7) Related-Party Transactions

As of May 31, 2015 and 2014, certain plan investments held shares of registered investment companies and self-directed brokerage accounts managed by Fidelity. Fidelity is the trustee, as defined by the Plan. The Plan paid fees of $5,535 to Fidelity during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2015, and Fidelity may receive certain other indirect fees from mutual fund companies. The Plan also issues loans to participants which are secured by the vested balance of the participants' accounts. These transactions qualify as party-in-interest transactions, which are exempt from the prohibited transaction rules.

(8) Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan provides for various investment options in registered investment companies, common/collective trusts, a self-directed brokerage account, and a money market fund. Investments, in general, are exposed to various risks, such as significant world events and interest rate, credit, and overall market volatility risk. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investments, it is reasonably possible that changes in the values of the investments will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

The Plan provides participants the ability to invest in various registered investment companies, money market funds, and a common/collective trust, which may, in turn, invest in securities with contractual cash flows, such as asset-backed securities, collateralized mortgage obligations, and commercial mortgage-backed securities, and could potentially include securities backed by subprime mortgage loans. The value, liquidity, and related income of those securities are sensitive to changes in economic conditions, including real estate value, delinquencies or defaults, or both, and may be adversely affected by shifts in the market's perception of the issuers and changes in interest rates.
