To the Plan Trustees of
Caleris 401(k) Safe Harbor Plan

We have conducted a DOL limited-scope audit of the financial statements of Caleris 401(k) Safe Harbor Plan (the Plan) for the year ended December 31, 2015, and have issued our report thereon dated July 21, 2016. As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note B to those financial statements. Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we are unable to, and have not, expressed an opinion on those financial statements and supplemental schedule taken as a whole. We did, however, audit the form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustee, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and found them to be presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under generally accepted auditing standards, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our letter to you dated January 19, 2016. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Significant Audit Findings

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

You are responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by Caleris 401(k) Safe Harbor Plan are described in Note B to the financial statements. As described in Note B, the Plan changed accounting policies related to the reporting of the fair value of investments valued at net asset value and the simplification of the investment disclosure and the fair value measurement disclosure by adopting ASU 2015-07 and ASU 2015-12 in 2015. Accordingly, the accounting change has been retrospectively applied to prior periods presented as if the policy had always been used. We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. We are not aware of any significant transactions that have been recognized in the financial statements in a different period than when the transaction occurred.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements and are based on your knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimate affecting the financial statements was the fair value determination of certain investments held by the plan.

Certain financial statement disclosures are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. The most sensitive disclosures affecting the financial statements were plan investment disclosures and the limited-scope audit exemption disclosures.

The financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in performing and completing our audit.

Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. We identified no such misstatements during our audit.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with management is a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

During our audit we noted that minutes are not maintained documenting the meetings of trustees. Meetings of the Plan trustees should be held and meeting minutes maintained to document decisions made regarding the Plan. Written minutes are important in establishing that the trustees have met their fiduciary duties to the Plan. The minutes should document such decisions as reaffirming or changing investment options, eligibility dates, review of service provider contracts and fees for reasonableness, and other plan matters.

As specifically related to service provider fees, Plan management is responsible for determining whether it received the required disclosures and for evaluating the disclosed information to determine if the contract arrangements are reasonable. If Plan management fails to comply with the requirements under §408(b)(2), the Plan may be considered to be involved in a prohibited transaction and may be subject to penalties including excise tax penalties, reimbursement to the Plan for excessive fees and potential plan disqualification. We recommend that Plan management develop written procedures or policies to more thoroughly document these considerations, such as in Trustee meeting minutes that will support the conclusion that the Plan's covered service provider contracts and related fees are reasonable.

Very truly yours,

To the Plan Trustees of
Caleris 401(k) Safe Harbor Plan

Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Caleris 401(k) Safe Harbor Plan (the "Plan") as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of issuing our report on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

We were engaged to perform a DOL limited-scope audit of those financial statements as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Our audit did not include all of the procedures required by U.S. generally accepted auditing standards and did not include a consideration of internal control relating to the information summarized in Note B to those financial statements. Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we were unable to, and did not, express an opinion on those financial statements.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraphs and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified. However, as discussed below, we identified a deficiency in internal control that we consider to be a significant deficiency.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. We consider the following deficiency in Caleris 401(k) Safe Harbor Plan's internal control to be a material weakness:

Segregation of Duties

One employee is responsible for all duties related to Plan operations, including processing participant data and changes, loans, remittances, and terminations. This lack of segregation of duties in performing and reviewing these functions could provide opportunities to alter participant data or result in inaccurate data. We recommend that another employee review information prepared and changed by this employee.

A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance. We consider the following deficiency in Caleris 401(k) Safe Harbor Plan's internal control to be a significant deficiency.

External Financial Reporting Expertise

Internal control over financial reporting includes controls over not only general ledger and internal financial statement reporting, but also over external financial statement reporting, including financial statement disclosures. The Plan engages us to assist them with their external financial statement reporting as the Plan's management does not possess, as is the case with most plans of privately-held businesses, the necessary expertise with certain of the financial statement reporting and disclosure reporting requirements required by the Department of Labor and/or the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA).

As we cannot be considered part of the Plan's internal control according to generally accepted auditing standards, this lack of internal expertise results in the matter being considered a significant deficiency.
