Reasonable cause letter for late filing of Form 5500-SF

Dear Sir / Madam,

Moteri Management Co LLC is a two member LLC. We had started 401(k) program couple years back with the help of company named PAYCHEX to help manage the plan. However company went thru financial trouble in year 2014 and we couldn't effort to continue plan management expenses. As a result we ended up terminating the program and transferring fund to member's individual retirement accounts for both members.

Unfortunately, we were not informed by PAYCHEX and we were not aware of the requirement of filing annual form Form500-SF for calendar year 2014 within required time limit. Hence we completely missed it. We are not trying to blame anybody or trying to pass the buck for not filing but just stating the reality. We didn't realize the mistake till we received IRS notice CP-403. Upon receiving the notice, I immediately contacted IRS and they asked us to get in touch with DoL's DFVCP department which I did and ended up talking to Ms. Olivera and explained her our entire situation, including the fact that company is pretty much in close down state and doesn't have any money to pay the penalty. She suggested me to file the return ASAP and include a letter explaining entire situation.

Given that we have Reasonable cause of innocent mistake and not having any money in the company, along with not informed by the plan provider - please forgive us and waive the penalty. We are law-biding citizens trying to make end meet and stay afloat – hence asking for your mercy. Should you have any question, please feel free to contact me anytime at (206) 755-3697.

Regards,

Managing Member of the LLC
