Fitch Group, Inc. 401(k) Plan and Trust

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2015 and 2014

1) Plan Description

The following brief description of the Fitch Group, Inc. 401(k) Plan and Trust (the "Plan"), previously known as Fitch Ratings, Inc. 401(k) Plan and Trust, is provided for general information purposes only. Participants should refer to the Fitch Group, Inc. 401(k) Plan and Trust Summary Plan Description as amended and restated as of July, 2015 for more complete information.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan designed to encourage savings on the part of eligible employees. The Plan currently covers all eligible employees of Fitch Group (the "Plan Sponsor"), Fitch Ratings, Inc., Fitch Solutions, Inc., Fitch Training, Inc., Fitch Learning, Inc. and Business Monitor International Inc. (collectively, "Fitch" or the "Company").
The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended.

Participation

Employees of the Company who meet certain age and citizenship or residency requirements, with the exception of leased employees, interns, and employees of Fitch Group, Inc. and its subsidiaries that participate in another retirement plan, are eligible to participate in the Plan. Participation commences upon an eligible employee filing an application with the Company. Eligible employees may elect to have a portion of their compensation (as defined by the Plan) reduced each pay period in any one percent increment (subject to statutory limitations of $18,000 in 2015 and $17,500 in 2014) as either 'pre-tax contributions' or 'after-tax contributions'. Eligible employees age 50 or over at any time during the Plan year can elect up to a maximum of $6,000 and $5,500 in additional pre-tax or after-tax contributions (collectively, 'catch-up contributions') in 2015 and 2014 respectively.

The Plan provides for automatic enrollment with respect to covered Participants if they haven't completed enrollment within 60 days after they become eligible. Automatic enrollment withholding is 5% of compensation (the "automatic contribution percentage") invested in one of the Vanguard Target Retirement Funds based on employee age, unless employee elects to withhold a different percentage of compensation or not to withhold at all.
The Company, at its sole discretion, may elect to contribute a 'matching-employer contribution' on behalf of each participant equal to a specified percentage of the participant's contribution, excluding catch-up contributions. The Company may also, at its sole discretion, elect to contribute a 'profit-sharing contribution' allowing eligible employees to receive additional employer contributions based on the Company's overall profitability. Matching-employer contributions are announced to employees prior to the calendar year to which the matching-employer contributions apply, while any profit-sharing contributions are announced to employees at the end of the calendar year to which the profit-sharing contributions apply.

Pre-tax contributions, catch-up contributions and employer contributions, as well as any earnings thereon are taxed to the participant only at the time of distribution.

For January through March of 2014, Fitch contributed a dollar-for-dollar matching-employer contribution (up to 4% of eligible compensation) on behalf of its participating employees. Fitch's matching-employer contributions were calculated and remitted on a bi-weekly basis as a percentage of a participant's eligible compensation for that period. On April 1, 2014 through December 31, 2015, Fitch increased the company's dollar-for-dollar matching-employer contribution by 1% to 5% of eligible compensation. This change was effective retroactively as of January 1, 2014. The balance of the 401(k) plan match for 2014 was submitted in January 2015. Employer match for 2015 employee contributions was submitted in January 2016. There were no employer profit-sharing contributions made by the Company to the Plan for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014.

Participant Accounts

Accounts are maintained separately for each participant. A participant's separate account is credited with his/her pre-tax contribution, after-tax contribution, catch-up contribution, matching-employer contribution, profit-sharing contribution, along with an allocation of the Plan's earnings (losses). Allocations of earnings (losses) are based on each individual participant's account balance. Investment results will reflect any fees and investment expenses for the investments selected by participant. The benefit to which a participant is entitled to receive is the benefit that can be provided by his/her own individual account.

Investment Options

A participant may elect to have his/her account invested in any combination of the core funds indicated on the accompanying "Schedule of Assets (Held at End of Year)". In addition, the Plan offers a brokerage option, which allows participants to invest in additional mutual funds outside the core funds (excluding sector funds) as outlined by the Plan. The brokerage option does not allow a participant to invest in any individual company securities.

Vesting

The rights of a participant to his/her pre-tax contributions and any earnings (losses) thereon are at all times fully vested and non-forfeitable. The vested portion of a participant's account attributable to the matching-employer contribution shall be determined on the basis of the participant's years of service in accordance with the following schedule:

Years of Service	Percentage
1	20%
2	40%
3	60%
4	80%
5	100%

Matching-employer contributions are 100% vested and non-forfeitable after five (5) years of service. Employer profit-sharing contributions are 100% vested and non- forfeitable upon remittance.

Fitch Group, Inc. 401(k) Plan and Trust

1) Continued

Notwithstanding the above, a participant who terminated from the Plan due to retirement, disability or death is fully vested in his/her account.

Forfeitures

Participants who leave the Company or are terminated, and incur 5 (five) consecutive vesting breaks in service, forfeit the non-vested portion of their account. Forfeitures that are not used to pay administrative expenses can be used to reduce other employer contributions, added to other employer contributions, or reallocated as elected by the employer.

For the year ended December 31, 2015, forfeitures in the amount of $890,000 were used to reduce matching employer contribution that was paid in January 2016. For the year ended December 31, 2014, $0 forfeitures were used for the 2014 employer contribution paid in January 2015; $500,000 were used to reduce 2014 employer contribution paid in 2014.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Subject to the Plan's provisions, the requirements contained within the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), a participant may apply for a loan from the Plan at a reasonable rate of interest to be determined based on current interest rates charged by persons in the business of lending money for similar loans at the time the loan is made. The loan repayment by a participant who is employed by the Company is generally made through after-tax payroll deductions over a period not exceeding five (5) years for general purpose loans and not exceeding 15 years on principal residence loans. The maximum amount, which may be borrowed is governed by the Code and may not, under any circumstances, exceed the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of the employee's vested balance.

A participant who is no longer employed by the Company will have the remaining portion of his/her loan outstanding due and payable immediately. A participant not repaying his/her loan within 90 days following termination will be treated as though the loan proceeds were a withdrawal. As defined by the Code, the Plan will report both the loan principal and accrued interest outstanding as a withdrawal.

Distributions

The participant shall have distributed the total amount of his/her account coincident with his/her retirement in a lump-sum payment. If the participant leaves the Company before retirement, he/she may elect to have his/her account distributed to him/her as of the first day of the month coincident to his/her last day of employment under provisions set forth in the Plan. However, a participant is under no obligation to have his/her money distributed to him/her if he/she leaves the Company and his/her balance is in excess of $1,000. Balances over $1,000, but not in excess of $5,000 (including any rollover account the participant may have) for which the participant makes no election will be automatically rolled over to Rollover Individual Retirement Account administered by Great-West Financial Retirement Plan Services, LLC ("GWF") until June 30, 2015 and Charles Schwab Bank ("Schwab") after June 30, 2015. Balances under $1,000 will be distributed to him/her if he/she leaves the Company.

Withdrawals

Prior to termination of employment, a participant may withdraw, subject to the Plan's notice requirements, all or a portion of the value of his/her rollover contribution account, all or any portion of the vested value of his/her account if the participant has attained retirement age of 60, or when he/she reached the early retirement age of 59½ , providing he/she has 5 years of service to the Company, or becomes totally and permanently disabled, or all or any portion of the value of his/her pre-tax contributions account in the event of demonstrated financial hardship, subject to the Plan's provisions.

Withdrawals to which a participant is entitled are the contribution amounts and income thereon (including any net realized and unrealized investment gains and losses), allocated to the participant's account.

Rollover and Transfer Contributions

The Plan permits a participant to have his/her interests in other qualified profit-sharing plans transferred to the Plan or to make rollover contributions into the Plan from an individual retirement account (or similar arrangement) resulting from a rollover from another qualified plan or directly from another qualified plan. Participant's vested interest in rollover contributions remains 100% at all times.

Fund Transfers and Allocation of Contributions

A participant may contribute up to 75% of his/her eligible compensation before taxes each pay period. A participant may elect to divide his/her contribution among funds in increments of 1%. A participant may also elect to change the allocation of future pre-tax contributions among the funds on a daily basis under provisions set forth in the Plan. Additionally, a participant may elect to transfer the value of his/her contributions in increments divisible by 1%, specified number of whole shares, or a specified dollar amount from one or more of the investment funds to another investment fund or funds on a daily basis. The transfer will be effective that business day or subsequent business day, dependent upon time of transfer, based upon provisions set forth in the Plan.

A participant may elect to suspend his/her contributions and thereafter resume contributions anytime. Changes will be effective as soon as administratively practicable.

Administrative Fees

The Company pays certain administrative expenses of the Plan. Trustee fees are paid by the Plan. Fees resulting from individual participant transactions, such as loan origination, benefit payments or certain investment elections, are paid by the participant and are included in the fee amount on the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions any time and to terminate the Plan subject to provisions of ERISA. In the event of such termination, either full or partial, all affected participants will become 100% vested in their accounts.

All assets remaining after payments of expenses properly chargeable against the Plan will be distributed to the participants in accordance with the value of each participant's account on the date of such termination.

2) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

A summary of the significant accounting policies of the Plan is presented to assist the user in the understanding of the financial statements. The financial statements and notes thereto are representations of the Plan's management. The accounting policies utilized in the preparation of the financial statements conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP") and have been consistently applied. The following is a summary of significant accounting policies followed by the Plan in the preparation of its financial statements:

a. Accounting Method

The financial statements of the Plan have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

b. Use of Estimates and Basis of Accounting

The preparation of the Plan's financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires the Plan administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the Plan's financial statements and accompanying notes thereon. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The Plan's administrator believes the techniques and assumptions used in establishing these amounts are appropriate.

c. Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are stated at fair value in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification ("Codification" or "ASC") ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurement". Shares of registered investment companies are valued at quoted market prices, which represent the net asset value of shares held by the Plan at year- end. See Note 3 for additional information.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation (depreciation) in the fair value of investments includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought, sold, as well as held during the year.

Fitch Group, Inc. 401(k) Plan and Trust

2) Continued

d. Notes Receivable from Participants

Notes receivable from participants are valued at their unpaid principal balance, plus any accrued, but unpaid interest. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Related costs are recorded as administrative fees and are expensed when they are incurred. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded at December 31, 2015 or 2014. See Note 4 for additional information.

e. Payment of Benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid. Defaults on notes receivable from participants are recorded as benefits paid.

f. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan's investments are currently held with multiple registered investment companies as indicated in Note 2(c), Investment Valuation and Income Recognition. Investment securities are exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market, liquidity and credit. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in risks could occur in the near term and that such changes could effect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits as well as the statement of changes in net assets available for benefits.

The Plan's exposure to any concentration of credit risk is limited by the diversification of investments across a combination of nineteen (19) participant-directed mutual fund selections, excluding a separate brokerage account option. Investments within each of the participant-directed mutual fund selections are then further diversified into other varied financial instruments based on the nature of the mutual fund. Investment decisions (along with any resulting risks thereto) are made exclusively by each Plan participant.

g. Impact of New Accounting Standards and Interpretations

In July 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-12, Plan Accounting: Defined Benefit Pension Plans (Topic 960), Defined Contribution Pension Plans (Topic 962), Health and Welfare Benefit Plans (Topic 965): (Part I) Fully Benefit-Responsive Investment Contracts, (Part II) Plan Investment Disclosures, (Part III) Measurement Date Practical Expedient.
ASU No. 2015-12 simplifies the financial reporting and eliminates the following disclosures:

- removes the requirement to disclose the net appreciation or depreciation in fair value of investments by general type; and
- removes the requirement to denote individual investments that represent 5% or more of the Plan's net assets available for benefits.

The updates are effective on January 1, 2016 and shall be applied retrospectively to all periods presented. Early adoption is permitted and was completed for the Plan's financial statements for year ending December 31, 2015 and applied retrospectively.

Fitch Group, Inc. 401(k) Plan and Trust

2) Continued

The updates do not impact the Plan's net assets available for benefits or changes therein.

3) Investments

The Plan accounts for its investments in accordance with ASC 820, which defines fair value as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. When determining the fair value measurements for assets and liabilities required to be recorded at fair value, the Plan considers the principal or most advantageous market in which it would transact and considers assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, such as inherent risk, transfer restrictions, and risk of nonperformance. ASC 820 also establishes a fair value hierarchy that requires the Plan to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. ASC 820 establishes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1: quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: inputs other than Level 1 that are observable, either directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities; or
- Level 3: unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

The following table presents the Plan's fair value hierarchy for those investments measured at fair value as of December 31, 2015 and 2014:

In thousands of dollars	2015
	Level 1	Level	Level 3	Total
Mutual Funds	$ 199,108	-	-	$ 199,108
Brokerage accounts	5,241	-	-	5,241

In thousands of dollars	2014
	Level 1	Level	Level 3	Total
Mutual Funds	$ 204,593	-	-	$ 204,593
Brokerage accounts	4,684	-	-	4,684

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for the Plan's investments measured at fair value:

Mutual funds: A mutual fund's net asset value ("NAV") is normally calculated and published as of the close of business of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"). The fund's individual assets are valued as of this time for the purpose of computing the mutual fund's NAV.

Fitch Group, Inc. 401(k) Plan and Trust

Open-end mutual funds issue redeemable securities, which permits the shareholder to present shares for redemption and receive a proportionate share of the fund's assets, and continually offers its shares for sale to the public.

Brokerage accounts: Comprised entirely of mutual funds that are valued in a manner consistent with the other mutual funds held by the Plan.

4) Notes Receivable from Participants

At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Plan had outstanding notes receivable from participants in the amounts of $1,949,903 and $1,869,664, respectively. Based on the nature of the notes receivable portfolio (generally short-term loans issued at market interest rates, which are secured by the participant's Plan balance), the Plan has assigned the notes receivable a value equal to their unpaid principal balance, plus any accrued, but unpaid interest at December 31, 2015 and 2014.

Interest rates charged on these notes receivable range from 4.25% - 9.25%. Interest paid on these notes receivable is credited back to the borrowing participant's account within the Plan. The amount of interest earned on these notes receivable was $76,915 and $80,597 for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively.

5) Party-in-Interest Transactions

Parties-in-Interest are defined under Department of Labor regulations as any fiduciary of the Plan, any party rendering service to the Plan, the employer, and certain others. Notes Receivable from Plan participants qualify as exempt party-in-interest transactions. Certain administrative functions are performed by officers or employees of Fitch. No such officer or employee received compensation from the Plan.

Annual recordkeeping fee is paid by the Plan and assessed to the accounts of Participants based upon the Participant's pro-rate share of his/her account balance to the total account balances. Fees paid by the Plan for investment management services were included as a reduction of the return earned on the applicable funds.

The Company currently pays, but is under no obligation to pay, other miscellaneous administrative expenses on behalf of the Plan throughout the year.
From January 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015, GWF and, starting July 1, 2015, Schwab were service providers for the Plan. The Plan holds various investments that are issued by these parties, or an affiliate of these parties; therefore, these transactions qualify as exempt party-in-interest transactions.

6) Federal Income Tax Consequences

The Plan used a prototype plan document sponsored by Schwab, which received a favorable opinion letter from the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") on June 19, 2014 indicating that the prototype and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the Code. U.S. GAAP requires plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the organization has taken an uncertain tax position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS.

Fitch Group, Inc. 401(k) Plan and Trust

The Plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan and has concluded that there are no uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of the liability (or asset) or disclosure within the financial statements.

The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. The Plan Administrator believes it is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2012.

7) Unaudited Information – Certified Investments and Notes Receivable from Participants

Substantially all information pertaining to the Plan's investments and notes receivable from participants included in the 2015 financial statements, including the associated investment loss and interest earned on notes receivable from participants, was obtained or derived from information supplied to the Plan administrator and certified as complete and accurate by Great-West Financial Retirement Plan Services, LLC, as agent for JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., the trustee of the Plan from January 1, 2014 through June 30, 2015, and Charles Schwab Bank, the trustee of the Plan from July 1, 2015 through December 31, 2015. This information has not been audited by independent accountants.

8) Subsequent Events

The Plan has evaluated all subsequent events through October 6, 2016, which is the date that the financial statements were available to be issued.
