Independent Auditor's Report

To the Plan Administrator
Schlumberger Technology Corporation Savings and Profit Sharing Plan
Houston, Texas

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Schlumberger Technology Corporation Savings and Profit Sharing Plan (the "Plan"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the years then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2015 is presented for the purpose of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements but is supplementary information required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Such information is the responsibility of the Plan's management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Description of the Plan

The following brief description of the Schlumberger Technology Corporation Savings and Profit Sharing Plan (the "Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering all full-time employees of Schlumberger Technology Corporation (the "Company") who have met certain requirements, including length of service. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"). The Plan has an allocable interest in the net assets of the Schlumberger Master Profit Sharing Trust (the "Trust"), a master trust arrangement which serves as the investing medium for the Plan and certain other plans of Schlumberger Limited and its affiliates.

The Plan is administered by an Administrative Committee, which is appointed by the Board of Directors of the Company. The Administrative Committee is responsible for general administration of the Plan.

The Finance Committee is appointed by the Board of Directors of Schlumberger Limited. The Finance Committee communicates to The Northern Trust Company (the "Trustee") the funding policies and methods which have been established to carry out the objectives of the Plan.

In the event of the Plan's withdrawal from the Trust, the Trustee shall set apart that portion or equitable share of the Trust allocated to participants in the Plan pursuant to a valuation and allocation of the Trust by the Trustee, subject to approval by the Finance Committee.

Eligibility

Each employee is eligible to become a participant in the Plan and receive Company matching contributions on the first day of the month following date of hire. Employees are eligible to receive profit sharing contributions upon the completion of one year of eligible service (i.e., 1,000 hours in twelve consecutive months).

Effective October 1, 2004, any employee hired prior to this date received an enhanced benefit from the Plan in lieu of continued participation in the Schlumberger Technology Corporation Pension Plan (the "Pension Plan") if they irrevocably elected to cease participation in the Pension Plan on or after January 1, 2005.

The Plan provides for automatic 401(k) enrollment equal to 6% of admissible compensation, as defined in the Plan document, to be deducted as soon as practicable following employment unless the participant elects otherwise.

Contributions

Employees may contribute, in any whole percentage of their admissible compensation on a per payroll basis, up to an amount equal to the maximum contribution limit as set forth in the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC"). Company profit sharing contributions are discretionary and, when added together with the basic matching contribution and supplemental matching contribution, may not exceed 15% of admissible compensation of the participating employees. Employees age 50 and older may elect to contribute a catch-up contribution. The limit set by the Internal Revenue

Notes to Financial Statements

Service ("IRS") for catch-up contributions during 2015 and 2014 was $6,000 and $5,500 respectively.

For employees hired prior to October 1, 2004 and who did not elect to cease participation in the Pension Plan on or after January 1, 2005, the Company provides a matching contribution equal to 50% of the first 6% of employee pre-tax contributions in profitable years. In years the Company is not profitable, the matching contribution is limited to $1,000. For employees hired on or after October 1, 2004, the Company provides a matching contribution equal to 100% of the first 3% of employee pre-tax contributions; and, in profitable years, provides an additional matching contribution equal to 100% of the next 3% of employee pre-tax contributions. In years the Company is not profitable, the matching contribution that is made subject to profitability is limited to $1,000. The Company also may make an additional discretionary contribution for all eligible employees. Company contributions that are discretionary and/or subject to profitability are funded in the year following the year to which they relate.

Effective January 1, 2016, employees may also make Roth contributions to the Plan, for which the Company provides matching contributions, as described above.

Vesting

Participants are immediately vested in their voluntary contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Vesting in Company's contributions plus actual earnings thereon is based on years of active service, as defined in the Plan document. A participant is 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ % vested after two years, 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % vested after three years, and 100% vested after four years of active service.

Participant Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contributions and an allocation of the Company's contributions, Plan earnings, and forfeitures of terminated participants' nonvested accounts (if applicable). Allocations are based on participant deferrals, admissible compensation, or account balances, as defined in the Plan document. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Participants may obtain loans from the Plan, which are secured by the vested balance in their account. The Plan limits one outstanding loan per participant at any time. Loans may not exceed five years. The minimum loan is $1,000 and the maximum is the lower of $50,000 or 50% of a participant's vested account balance, subject to IRS required limitations. Interest rates applicable to Plan loans are based on the prime lending rate. Changes in the prime lending rate are effective on the first business day of the month subsequent to the change. Generally, principal and interest are paid ratably through payroll deductions.

Distributions

Distributions to deceased, retired or terminated participants are made based upon the participants' account balances and their vested interest therein at the time of withdrawal from the Plan.

Schlumberger Technology Corporation Savings and Profit Sharing Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Forfeitures

Forfeited non-vested amounts are first used to restore forfeited amounts into participant's accounts. The remaining forfeiture amounts may be used to reduce future employer contributions to the Plan, pay administrative expenses of the Plan, or will be reallocated among the Plan participants who are entitled to share in the profit sharing contribution for the Plan year in a ratio as specified in the Plan document.

Forfeited accounts for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 amounted to $16,572,644 and $13,398,821, respectively. During the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, forfeitures in the amount of $0 and $11,654, respectively, were used to restore participant's accounts and $12,848,463 and $9,486,164, respectively, were used to reduce the employer contribution.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements of the Plan are prepared under the accrual basis of accounting.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires the Plan's management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and changes therein and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities in the Plan's financial statements. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Valuation of Investments and Income Recognition

The Plan's interest in the Trust is stated at fair value, and consists of an allocation of the Trust's net assets that is based upon cumulative employer and employee contributions, net of benefits paid to terminated and retired participants, and allocations of the Trust's investment income.

The Plan follows the provisions of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 820, "Fair Value Measurement." Under ASC 820, fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (i.e., the exit price). The Director of Trust Investments, determines the Plan's valuation policies utilizing information provided by the investment managers and the Trustee.

ASC 820 establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under ASC 820 are as described as follows:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Schlumberger Technology Corporation Savings and Profit Sharing Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of relevant observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. Observable inputs are inputs that reflect the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on market data obtained from sources independent of the Plan. Unobservable inputs are inputs that reflect the Plan's own assumptions about the assumptions market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability developed based on the best information available in the circumstances.

Changes in economic conditions or valuation techniques may require the transfer of financial instruments from one fair value level to another. In such instances, the transfer is reported at the beginning of the reporting period. Plan management evaluated the significance of transfers between levels based upon the nature of the financial instrument and size of the transfer relative to total net assets available for benefits. There were no significant transfers in or out of levels 1, 2 or 3 for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014. See Notes 5 and 6 for the disclosures required by ASC 820 with regard to Plan investments.

A fair value measurement is for a particular asset or liability. The unit of account determines what is being measured by reference to the level at which the asset or liability is aggregated (or disaggregated) for purposes of applying other accounting pronouncements. Accordingly, because the Plan does not hold shares of the Trust, the disclosures required by ASC 820 are required for the individual assets and liabilities under the Trust and are not required for the Plan's total interest in the Trust. In the same manner, the disclosures required by ASC 820 are required for the individual investments included in the self-directed investments. Similarly, since the Trust does not hold shares of the Schlumberger Group Trust (the "Group Trust"), the disclosures required by ASC 820 are required for the individual assets and liabilities under the Group Trust and are not required for the Trust's total interest in the Group Trust. Likewise, since the Group Trust does not own shares of the different investment pools which are disclosed in Note 6, the disclosures required by ASC 820 are required for the individual assets and liabilities under each investment pool and are not required for the Group Trust's total interest in each of the investment pools.

In determining the fair value of assets and liabilities underlying the Trust, Group Trust and the investment pools owned by the Group Trust, the Trust and Group Trust use various inputs and valuation methodologies which are described in Notes 5 and 6. There have been no significant changes in the inputs or valuation methodologies used at December 31, 2015 and 2014.

Investment income relating to the Trust is allocated to the Plan based upon the average monthly balance invested by the Plan.

Schlumberger Technology Corporation Savings and Profit Sharing Plan

Notes to Financial Statements

Notes Receivable from Participants

Notes receivable from participants are measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded as of December 31, 2015 or 2014. Delinquent participant loans are reclassified as distributions based upon the terms of the written loan policy, which is promulgated by the Administrative Committee in accordance with applicable governmental regulations.

Expenses

Certain expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid directly by the Company and are excluded from these financial statements. Fees related to the administration of notes receivable from participants are deducted from the loan disbursed to the participant. Self-directed brokerage account fees and managed account fees are assessed quarterly and are deducted directly from the participant's account and are included in Plan interest in the Schlumberger Master Profit Sharing Trust investment income in the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits. Expenses relating to securities transactions are included in net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments in the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits of the Trust and Group Trust.

Benefit Payments

Benefits are recorded when paid.

Relevant Accounting Developments

In May 2015, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") No. 2015-07, "Disclosures for Investments in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset Value per Share (or Its Equivalent)." ASU No. 2015-07 was issued to address diversity in practice related to how certain investments measured at net asset value with redemption dates in the future (including periodic redemption dates) are categorized within the fair value hierarchy. ASU No. 2015-07 removes the requirement to categorize within the fair value hierarchy all investments for which fair value is measured using the net asset value per share practical expedient. As such, certain fair value leveling disclosures are no longer required; although information must be disclosed so that users can reconcile amounts reported in the fair value hierarchy to the statements of net assets available for benefits. ASU 2015-07 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016, and is to be applied retrospectively. Plan management has elected to early adopt the provisions of ASU 2015-07.

In July 2015, the FASB issued ASU No. 2015-12, "Plan Accounting: Defined Benefit Pension Plans (Topic 960), Defined Contribution Pension Plans (Topic 962), Health and Welfare Benefit Plans (Topic 965): (Part I) Fully Benefit-Responsive Investment Contracts, (Part II) Plan Investment Disclosures, (Part III) Measurement Date Practical Expedient." ASU 2015-12 was issued to simplify financial reporting by employee benefits plans. Part I eliminates the requirements to measure the fair value of fully benefit-responsive investment contracts and provide certain disclosures. Contract value is the only required measure for fully benefit responsive investment contracts. Part II eliminates the requirements to disclose individual investments that represent 5 percent or more of net assets available for benefits and the net appreciation or depreciation in the fair value of investments by general type. Part II also simplifies the level of disaggregation of investments that are measured using fair value. Plans will continue to disaggregate investments that are measured using fair value by general type; however, plans are no longer required to also disaggregate investments by nature, characteristics and risks. Further, the disclosure of information about fair value measurements shall be provided by general type of plan assets. Part III provides a measurement date practical expedient for employee benefit plans when the Plan's fiscal period does not coincide with a month-end. Part III is not applicable to the Plan. ASU 2015-12 is effective for annual reporting periods after December 15, 2015, with early adoption permitted. Parts I and II should be applied retrospectively. The Plan has elected to early adopt Parts I and II of the ASU.

3. Risks and Uncertainties

Due to various risks (i.e., interest rate, market and credit risk) associated with certain investments of the Trust and Group Trust, and the level of uncertainty related to changes in the value of investments, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of the investments of the Trust and Group Trust will occur in the near term, and this could materially affect participants' account balances as well as the value of the Plan interest in the Trust and the corresponding investment income reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits and the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits, respectively.

The Trust and Group Trust invest in securities with contractual cash flows, such as asset-backed securities, collateralized mortgage obligations and commercial mortgage-backed securities. The value, liquidity and related income of these securities are sensitive to changes in economic conditions, including real estate value, delinquencies or defaults, or both, and may be adversely affected by shifts in the market's perception of the issuers and changes in interest rates.

4. Plan Termination

Although it has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the terms of ERISA. In the event of Plan termination, participants will become 100% vested in their accounts.

5. Interest in the Schlumberger Master Profit Sharing Trust

The Plan's investments during the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014 were entirely in the Trust. The Trust was established for the investment of assets of the Plan and other qualified profit sharing plans sponsored by Schlumberger Limited and its affiliates. Each participating plan has an allocable interest in the Trust. The assets of the Trust are held by the Trustee. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Plan's interest in the net assets of the Trust was approximately 95.47% ($4.8 billion) and 95.76% ($5.2 billion), respectively. Investment income and securities transaction expenses relating to the Trust are allocated to the individual plans based upon average monthly balances invested by each plan. The plans' balances reflect transfers to and from the individual plans as well as the plans' share of investment income.

Valuation of investments

The Trust interest in the Group Trust is stated at fair value, and consists of an allocation of the Group Trust's net assets that is based on amounts contributed by the Trust, and a certain other trust and plan of Schlumberger Limited and its affiliates, net of distributions, that are invested by the Group Trust, and on a respective allocation of investment income and certain administrative expenses.

Cash and cash equivalents are stated at fair value. Cash equivalents include highly liquid investments that are within three months of maturity when acquired, money market funds, and short-term investment funds. Money market funds are valued at fair value based on quoted prices in active markets. Short-term investment funds are stated using a constant price (or amortized cost) of $1 per unit of participation, which approximates fair value. Other cash equivalents are valued on the basis of a bid evaluation or at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

Common stocks and most of other equities are stated at fair value, as determined by closing quoted market prices in active markets in which the securities are traded. Certain other equity investments are valued at fair value based on bid or mid prices (i.e., the average of the bid and ask prices).

Mutual funds and other registered investment companies are stated at fair value. Mutual funds are valued at quoted market prices (available to institutions and retail clients) which represent the net asset value of shares owned by the Trust at year-end. Certain other registered investment companies are valued based on the net asset value of the units owned by the Trust at year-end as determined by the investment manager of the other registered investment companies based on the fair value of the underlying investments of the other registered investment companies. Exchange traded funds, also considered to be other registered investment companies, are valued at quoted market prices, which may not represent the net asset value of the units owned by the Trust at year-end. The mutual funds and other registered investment companies are deemed to be actively traded.

Corporate bonds and other fixed income obligations consist primarily of investment grade bonds from diversified industries. Corporate bonds and other fixed income obligations are stated at fair value. Certain corporate bonds and other fixed income obligations are valued based on a bid evaluation while others are valued based on mid and bid prices (i.e., a bid price represents a price a dealer is ready to pay for a security). Oftentimes, bid evaluations use proprietary models under a discounted cash flows approach that maximizes observable inputs, such as current yields of similar instruments, but includes adjustments for certain risks that may not be observable, such as credit and liquidity risks.

Government bonds and other related obligations are comprised primarily of inflation protected U.S. treasuries, and to a lesser extent, other government-related securities (e.g., government agency obligations, and municipal and provincial bonds). Government bonds and other related obligations are stated at fair value. Government bonds and other related obligations, other than for those which have quoted market prices available, are valued based on a bid evaluation (i.e., an estimated price at which a dealer would pay for a security). Oftentimes, these evaluations use proprietary models under a discounted cash flows approach that maximizes observable inputs, such as current yields of similar instruments, but includes adjustments for certain risks that may not be observable, such as credit and liquidity risks.

Notes to Financial Statements

Other short-term securities are valued based on a bid evaluation or at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Trust believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The disclosures required by ASC 820 are not required for due from brokers for securities sold, due to brokers for securities purchased, and accrued income.

Investment Transactions and Investment Income

Net appreciation or depreciation in fair value of investments includes realized and unrealized gains or losses on investments bought, sold, as well as held during the year.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

6. Interest in the Schlumberger Group Trust

A portion of the Trust's investments are invested in the Group Trust. The Group Trust serves as the investing medium for the Trust and a certain other trust and plan of Schlumberger Limited and its affiliates. Each participating trust and plan has an allocable interest in the Group Trust. The assets of the Group Trust are held by the Trustee. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Trust's interest in the net assets of the Group Trust was approximately 57.60% ($4.868 billion) and 58.82% ($5.221 billion), respectively. Investment income and certain administrative expenses relating to the Group Trust are allocated to the individual trusts and plan based upon average monthly balances invested by each trust and plan in the underlying pooled investments of the Group Trust. Other administrative expenses are allocated to each trust and plan based on the specific services provided to them. The trusts' and plan's balances reflect transfers to and from the individual trusts and plan as well as the trusts' and plan's share of investment income.

Notes to Financial Statements

The following table represents the Group Trust's Level 3 financial instruments, the valuation techniques used to measure the fair value of those financial instruments as of December 31, 2015 and 2014, and the significant unobservable inputs and the ranges of values for those inputs:

Instrument	Fair Value (dollars in thousands) at December 31, 2015	Fair Value (dollars in thousands) at December 31, 2014	Principal Valuation Technique	Unobservable Inputs	Range (Weighted Average)
Common stocks and other equities	$ 1	$ 1	Market Approach	Price adjustments based on comparable securities and other market assumptions	0.0001%
Corporate bonds and other fixed income obligations	-	848	Market Approach	Price adjustments based on comparable securities and other market assumptions	2.613% (as of 12/31/2014)
Government and other related bonds	21	23	Market Approach	Price adjustments based on comparable securities and other market assumptions	0.683% (as of 12/31/2015) -0.991% (as of 12/31/2014)
Total	$ 22	$ 872

In estimating fair value of the investments in Level 3, the Group Trust may use third-party pricing sources. In substantiating the reasonableness of the pricing data provided by third parties, plan management evaluates a variety of factors including review of methods and assumptions used by external sources, recently executed transactions, price movements of comparable securities, existing contracts, economic conditions, industry and market developments, and overall credit ratings.

The following table sets forth a summary of investments held by the Group Trust reported at net asset value as a practical expedient as of December 31, 2015 and 2014.

Notes to Financial Statements

Valuation of Investments and Financial Liabilities

Cash and cash equivalents are stated at fair value. Foreign currency included in cash is translated using closing spot rates of exchange. Cash equivalents include repurchase agreements, U.S. Treasury bills and other highly liquid investments that are within three months of maturity when acquired, and short-term investment funds. Repurchase agreements are valued at amortized cost, which approximates fair value. U.S. government securities and government agency obligations included in cash equivalents are stated at fair value based on a bid evaluation. Short-term investment funds are stated using a constant price (or amortized cost) of $1 per unit of participation, which approximates fair value. Other cash equivalents are valued on the basis of a bid evaluation or at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

Equity securities include U.S. and international equity securities. U.S. equities include companies that are well diversified by industry sector and equity style (i.e., growth and value strategies). Active and passive management strategies are employed. Investments are primarily in large capitalization stocks and, to a lesser extent, mid-and small-cap stocks. International equities are invested in companies that are traded on exchanges outside the U.S. and are well diversified by industry sector, country and equity style. Active and passive strategies are employed. The vast majority of the investments are made in companies in developed markets with a small percentage in emerging markets.

For common stocks and other equities, corporate bonds and other fixed income obligations, government and other related bonds, and other short-term securities, the Group Trust valuation is similar to the Trust valuation (see Note 5).

Mutual funds and other registered investment companies are stated at fair value. Mutual funds are valued at quoted market prices (available to institutions and retail clients) which represent the net asset value of shares owned by the Group Trust at year-end. Certain other registered investment companies are valued based on the net asset value of the units owned by the Group Trust at year-end as determined by the investment manager of the other registered investment companies based on the fair value of the underlying investments of the other registered investment companies. Exchange traded funds, also considered to be other registered investment companies, are valued at quoted market prices, which may not represent the net asset value of the units owned by the Group Trust at year-end. Other registered investment companies include an open-end interval management investment fund that offers its shareholders the opportunity to purchase and redeem shares on a periodic basis. The mutual funds and other registered investment companies are deemed to be actively traded.

Collective and other trusts are stated at fair value, represented by the net asset value of the units of participation owned by the Group Trust at year end as determined by the trustees of the collective and other trusts based on the fair value of the underlying investments of the collective and other trusts. The net asset value is used as a practical expedient for measuring fair value.

Corporate bonds and other fixed income obligations consist primarily of investment grade bonds from diversified industries. Corporate bonds and other fixed income obligations are stated at fair value. Certain corporate bonds and other fixed income obligations are valued based on a bid evaluation while others are valued based on mid and bid prices (i.e., a bid price represents a price a dealer is ready to pay for a security). Oftentimes, bid evaluations use proprietary models under a discounted cash flows approach that maximizes observable inputs, such as current yields of similar instruments, but includes adjustments for certain risks that may not be observable, such as credit and liquidity risks.

Government and other related bonds are comprised primarily of inflation protected U.S. treasuries, and to a lesser extent, other government-related securities (e.g., government agency obligations, and municipal and provincial bonds). Government and other related bonds are stated at fair value. Government and other related bonds, other than for those which have quoted market prices available, are valued based on a bid evaluation (i.e., an estimated price at which a dealer would pay for a security). Oftentimes, these evaluations use proprietary models under a discounted cash flows approach that maximizes observable inputs, such as current yields of similar instruments, but includes adjustments for certain risks that may not be observable, such as credit and liquidity risks.

Government mortgage-backed securities and other collateralized obligations are debt obligations that represent claims to the cash flows from pools of credit cards, auto loans and mortgage loans which are purchased from banks, mortgage companies, and other originators and then assembled into pools by governmental, quasi-governmental and private entities. Government mortgage-backed securities and other collateralized obligations are stated at fair value. Government mortgage-backed securities and other collateralized obligations are valued based on a bid evaluation. Oftentimes, these evaluations use proprietary models under a discounted cash flows approach that maximizes observable inputs, such as current yields of similar instruments, but includes adjustments for certain risks that may not be observable, such as credit and liquidity risks.

Bank loans consist of term bank loans and revolving bank loans which are traded in the secondary market. Bank loans are stated at fair value. Bank loans are based on bid evaluations. Oftentimes, these evaluations use proprietary models under a discounted cash flows approach that maximizes observable inputs, such as current yields of similar instruments, but includes adjustments for certain risks that may not be observable, such as credit and liquidity risks.

Asset derivatives include options, rights, warrants, swaps, swaptions and pending foreign exchange purchases. Derivatives are stated at fair value. Exchange traded options and rights are valued based on a settlement price which is the price set by the exchange at the end of each day's trading. Pending foreign exchange purchases are marked-to-market based upon year-end forward exchange rates. Other derivatives are valued based on a bid price or a mid evaluation (i.e., the average of the estimated prices at which a dealer would pay for and sell a security). Oftentimes, these evaluations use proprietary models under a discounted cash flows approach that maximizes observable inputs, such as current yields of similar instruments, but includes adjustments for certain risks that may not be observable, such as credit and liquidity risks.

Short-term securities under security lending agreement represent short-term investments purchased with proceeds from cash collateral received from borrowers of the Group Trust's securities. Short-term securities under the security lending agreement are valued at cost, which approximates fair value.

Other short-term securities are valued based on a bid evaluation or at amortized cost, which approximates fair value.

Liability derivatives (which include options, swaps, and pending foreign exchange sales) and other liabilities are stated at fair value. Exchange traded options are valued based on a settlement price which is the price set by the exchange at the end of each day's trading. Pending foreign exchange sales are marked-to-market based upon year-end forward exchange rates. Other derivatives are valued on the basis of a mid evaluation. Oftentimes, these evaluations use proprietary models under a discounted cash flows approach that maximizes observable inputs, such as current yields of similar instruments, but includes adjustments for certain risks that may not be observable, such as credit and liquidity risks. Other liabilities are valued at cost, which approximates fair value.

The obligation under security lending agreement represents amounts due to borrowers of the Group Trust's securities for the cash collateral received from them. The amount due approximates fair value.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Group Trust believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The disclosures required by FASB ASC 820 are not required for due from brokers for securities sold, due to brokers for securities purchased, accrued income, other assets and other liabilities.

Investment Transactions and Investment Income

Net appreciation or depreciation in fair value of investments includes realized gains or losses on investments sold and unrealized gains or losses on investments held. Realized gains or losses on securities transactions are recorded as the difference between proceeds received and cost, with cost determined on the moving average basis. Unrealized gains or losses on investments represent the change in the difference between the cost and fair value of investments at the end of the year and at the beginning of the year.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Group Trust enters into various derivative financial instruments in carrying out its investment strategy, principally to: (1) hedge a portion of the Group Trust's portfolio to limit or minimize exposure to certain risks such as foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk, credit risk, and equity risk, (2) gain an exposure to a market more rapidly or less expensively than could be accomplished through the use of the cash markets, and (3) increase investment returns by reducing the cost of structuring the portfolio or by capturing value disparities between financial instruments.

Forward foreign exchange contracts are used to protect the Group Trust against the exchange risk associated with the Group Trust's investment in common stock and fixed income obligations denominated in foreign currency because the Group Trust is able to secure an exchange rate in the present for settlement at a future date. The terms of these contracts generally do not exceed one year. Risks in forward foreign exchange contracts arise from the possible inability of counterparties to meet the contract's terms and from movements in currency values.

The Group Trust reflects the fair value of all forward contracts as an asset (forward contracts to purchase foreign currency) or liability (forward contracts to sell foreign currency) in the Group Trust's statements of net assets. The change in value of these forward exchange contracts is included as unrealized gains or losses in the changes in Group Trust net assets. When the forward exchange contract is closed, the Group Trust transfers the unrealized appreciation or depreciation to a realized gain or loss equal to the change in the value of the forward exchange contract when it was opened and the value at the time it was closed or offset. Unrealized and realized gains and losses are included in net appreciation (depreciation) in the Group Trust's statements of changes in net assets.

Interest rate contracts such as fixed income futures, interest rate swaps, and option premiums are used to manage the interest rate risk.

The Group Trust enters into fixed-income futures contracts in the normal course of its investment activities to reduce the interest rate risk associated with its fixed-income investments, to replicate government bond positions, and as a duration management tool to enhance portfolio returns.

Upon entering into a fixed-income futures contract, the Group Trust is required to pledge to the broker an amount of cash and/or liquid securities equal to the minimum "initial margin" requirements of the exchange. Pursuant to the futures contract, the Group Trust agrees to receive from, or pay to, the broker an amount of cash equal to the daily fluctuation in the value of the futures contract. Such receipts or payments are known as "variation margin" which is settled daily and is included in net appreciation (depreciation) in the changes in Group Trust net assets. The Group Trust records a variation margin receivable or payable in the Group Trust's statements of net assets for valuation margins which have not been received or paid at the end of the year. Fixed-income futures contracts are not included in the Group Trust's statements of net assets as cash settlements are made daily.

The risk of counterparty non-performance associated with the use of fixed-income futures is considered to be modest as performance is assured by the futures exchanges, which provide multiple layers of protection, such as the collection of variation margin on a daily basis and the use of standardized contracts to facilitate liquidity.

Interest rate swaps are used to adjust interest rate and yield curve exposures and as a substitute for physical securities. Swap agreements involve the exchange by the Group Trust with a counterparty of the respective commitments to pay or receive interest with respect to a notional amount of principal. Market risk of loss is limited to changes in the fair value from December 31 of each year presented through the applicable expiration date. Long swap positions increase exposure to long-term interest rates while short positions decrease exposure. The Group Trust is subject to the risk of the counterparty to an interest rate swap agreement being unable or unwilling to make timely interest payments, or to otherwise honor its obligations.

The Group Trust reflects the fair value of all interest rate swaps as an asset or liability in the Group Trust's statements of net assets. Gains or losses on interest rate swaps are accounted in net appreciation (depreciation) in the Group Trust's statements of changes in net assets.

The Group Trust may buy or write put and call options through listed exchanges and in the over-the-counter ("OTC") market. When the Group Trust buys or writes an option, an amount equal to the premium paid or received by the Group Trust is recorded as an asset or liability and is subsequently adjusted to the current market value of the option purchased or written. The premiums paid or received from buying or writing options are recorded as realized gains or losses upon the expiration of the options. The difference between the premium and the amount paid or received on effecting a closing purchase or sale transaction also is treated as a realized gain or loss. If an option is exercised, the premium paid or received is recorded as a realized gain or loss if sold or an adjustment to cost if acquired. The Group Trust, as a writer of an option, may have no control over whether the underlying securities may be sold (call) or purchased (put) and as a result bears the market risk of an unfavorable change in the price of the security underlying the written option. Options to purchase and sell fixed income securities and swaptions are used to manage interest rate and volatility exposure, while credit spreads are used to manage credit risk. Options will become worthless at expiration if the underlying instrument does not reach the strike price of the option.

The Group Trust may use derivatives including stock rights and warrants as a substitute for investment in equity and fixed-income securities or to reduce the effect of fluctuating foreign currencies on foreign currency denominated investments.

Rights are the right, but not the obligation, to purchase newly issued equity shares, often in proportion to the number of shares currently owned, in a specified company, at a pre-established price on or within a pre-determined date. Rights are privately transacted in OTC markets. Rights are subject to general market risk and liquidity risk.

A warrant provides the holder the right, but not the obligation, to purchase securities from the issuing entity at a specific price and within a certain time period. Warrants are privately transacted in OTC markets. The Group Trust may purchase or receive warrants from its investment in the debt or equity of a company. The warrants provide the Group Trust with exposure and potential gains upon equity appreciation of the company's share price.

The value of a warrant has two components: time value and intrinsic value. A warrant has a limited life and expires on a certain date. As the expiration date of a warrant approaches, the time value of a warrant will decline. In addition, if the stock underlying the warrant declines in price, the intrinsic value of an "in the money" warrant will decline. Further, if the price of the stock underlying the warrant does not exceed the strike price of the warrant on the expiration date, the warrant will expire worthless. As a result, there is the potential for the Group Trust to lose its entire investment in a warrant.

Credit default swaps ("CDS") are used to manage credit exposure without buying or selling securities outright. Written CDS increase credit exposure ("selling protection"), obligating the portfolio to buy bonds from counterparties in the event of a default. Purchased CDS decrease exposure ("buying protection"), providing the right to "put" bonds to the counterparty in the event of a default. CDS agreements involve one party making a stream of payments (referred to as the buyer of protection) to another party (the seller of protection) in exchange for the right to receive a specified return in the event of a default or other credit event for the referenced entity, obligation or index. As a seller of protection on credit default swap agreements, the Group Trust will generally receive from the buyer of protection a fixed rate of income throughout the term of the swap provided that there is no credit event. Typical credit events include bankruptcy, dissolution or insolvency of the referenced entity, failure to pay and restructuring of the obligations of the referenced entity. As the seller, the Group Trust would effectively add leverage to its portfolio because, in addition to its total net assets, the Group Trust would be subject to investment exposure on the notional amount of the swap.

If the Group Trust is a seller of protection and a credit event occurs, as defined under the terms of that particular swap agreement, the Group Trust will either (i) pay to the buyer of protection an amount equal to the notional amount of the swap and take delivery of the referenced obligation, other deliverable obligations or underlying securities comprising the referenced index or (ii) pay a net settlement amount in the form of cash or securities equal to the notional amount of the swap less the recovery value of the referenced obligation or underlying securities comprising the referenced index. If the Group Trust is a buyer of protection and a credit event occurs, as defined under the terms of that particular swap agreement, the Group Trust will either

Notes to Financial Statements

(i) receive from the seller of protection an amount equal to the notional amount of the swap and deliver the referenced obligation, other deliverable obligations or underlying securities comprising the referenced index or (ii) receive a net settlement amount in the form of cash or securities equal to the notional amount of the swap less the recovery value of the referenced obligation or underlying securities comprising the referenced index.

The Group Trust may use credit default swaps on corporate issues, sovereign issues of an emerging country or U.S. municipal issues to provide a measure of protection against defaults of the issuers (i.e., to reduce risk where the Group Trust owns or has exposure to the referenced obligation) or to take an active long or short position with respect to the likelihood of a particular issuer's default. The Group Trust also may use credit default swaps on credit indices to hedge a portfolio of credit default swaps or bonds, which is less expensive than it would be to buy many credit default swaps to achieve a similar effect. Credit default swaps on indices are benchmarks for protecting investors owning bonds against default, and traders use them to speculate on changes in credit quality. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Group Trust did not hold credit default swaps where the Group Trust was a seller of protection.

The maximum potential amount of future payments (undiscounted) that the Group Trust as a seller of protection could be required to make under a credit default swap agreement would be an amount equal to the notional amount of the agreement. These potential amounts would be partially offset by any recovery values of the respective referenced obligations, upfront payments received upon entering into the agreement, or net amounts received from the settlement of buy protection credit default swap agreements entered into by the Group Trust for the same referenced entity or entities. Securities or cash may be identified as collateral or margin in accordance with the terms of the respective swap agreements to provide assets of value and recourse in the event of default or bankruptcy/insolvency.

Implied credit spreads, represented in absolute terms, utilized in determining the market value of credit default swap agreements on corporate, sovereign, U.S. municipal or U.S. Treasury obligation issues as of period end serve as an indicator of the current status of the payment/performance risk and represent the likelihood or risk of default for the credit derivative. The implied credit spread of a particular referenced entity reflects the cost of buying/selling protection and may include upfront payments required to be made to enter into the agreement. Wider credit spreads represent a deterioration of the referenced entity's credit soundness and a greater likelihood or risk of default or other credit event occurring as defined under the terms of the agreement.

The Group Trust reflects the fair value of all CDS as an asset or liability in the Group Trust's statements of net assets. Gains or losses on CDS are accounted in net appreciation (depreciation) in the Group Trust's statements of changes in net assets.

The Group Trust enters into equity futures contracts to manage the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of an equity financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices (other than those arising from interest rate risk or currency risk), whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual financial instrument, or its issuer, or factors affecting all similar financial instruments traded in the market.

The objective of the S&P 500 Index futures contracts is to lock in the return of the S&P 500 Index and then use fixed income assets to add excess return over the benchmark. The risks involved with owning S&P 500 Index futures contracts are related to the volatility of the S&P 500 Index and that the performance of the Index and the futures may differ slightly. Changes in the contract values are settled daily and gains and losses are included in net appreciation (depreciation) in the fair value of investments in the Group Trust's statements of changes in net assets. S&P 500 Index futures contracts are not included in the Group Trust's statements of net assets as cash settlements are made daily.

U.S. Treasury Bills, U.S. Treasury Bonds, short-term investments, and cash with a fair value of $990,000 and $2,300,000 at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively, were posted by brokers and held by the Group Trust as collateral for derivative transactions. The notional amount of this collateral at December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $990,000 and $2,300,000, respectively.

Assets owned and included in the Group Trust's statements of net assets, with a fair value of $32,782,021 and $32,863,329 at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively, were held by the Group Trust's brokers as collateral for derivative transactions. The notional amount of this collateral at December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $33,382,000 and $32,542,000, respectively.

Certain of the Group Trust's derivative documents contain provisions, in addition to standard events of default, which if violated could cause a counterparty to declare a termination event and terminate the relevant agreement(s) with the Group Trust, which would result in a determination of the net amount due to or due from the counterparty and require immediate payment in accordance therewith. The aggregate fair value of all derivative instruments with credit-risk-related contingency features that are in a net liability position on December 31, 2015 and 2014 was $10,033,589 and $8,580,060, respectively. If the credit-risk-related contingency features underlying these agreements were triggered on December 31, 2015 and 2014 with respect to one or more counterparties and any of such counterparties declared a termination event, as of the effective date of termination all derivative positions would be valued in accordance with the valuation procedures set forth in the derivatives documentation and the net amount due to or due from the counterparty would be payable by or payable to the Group Trust, respectively.

The Group Trust is subject to various Master Agreements, which govern the terms of certain transactions with select counterparties. These Master Agreements reduce the counterparty risk associated with relevant transactions by specifying credit protection mechanisms and providing standardization that improves legal certainty. Since different types of forward and OTC financial derivative transactions have different mechanics and are sometimes traded out of different legal entities of a particular counterparty organization, each type of transaction may be covered by a different Master Agreement, resulting in the need for multiple agreements with a single counterparty. As the Master Agreements are specific to unique operations of different asset types, they allow the Group Trust to close out and net its total exposure to a counterparty in the event of a default with respect to all the transactions governed under a single agreement with that counterparty.

Master Agreements can also help limit counterparty risk by specifying collateral posting arrangements at pre-arranged exposure levels. Under the Master Agreements, collateral is routinely transferred if the total net exposure to certain transactions (net of existing collateral already in place) governed under the relevant master agreement with a counterparty in a given account exceeds a specified threshold, which typically ranges from zero to $250,000 depending on the counterparty and the type of Master Agreement. United States Treasury Bills and U.S. dollar cash are generally the preferred forms of collateral, although other forms of AAA rated paper may be used. The Group Trust's overall exposure to counterparty risk can change substantially within a short period, as it is affected by each transaction subject to the relevant Master Agreement.

Notes to Financial Statements

Fair value amounts recognized for derivative instruments and fair value amounts recognized for the right to reclaim or return cash collateral arising from derivative instruments recognized at fair value under master netting arrangements are presented on a gross basis in the Group Trust's statements of net assets. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Group Trust has the right to reclaim cash collateral under master netting arrangements of $6,112,082 and $9,137,257, respectively. At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Group Trust has the obligation to return cash collateral under master netting arrangements of $990,000 and $3,514,906, respectively.

At December 31, 2015 and 2014, the notional values of derivative contracts were as follows:

As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Group Trust holds certain derivative instruments that are eligible for offset in the statements of net assets and are subject to the terms of master netting arrangements between the Group Trust and select counterparties. In the case of default, the master netting arrangement allows the Group Trust to close out and net its total exposure to a counterparty with respect to all the transactions governed under a single agreement with that counterparty. For financial reporting purposes, the Group Trust does not offset derivative assets and derivative liabilities that are subject to master netting agreements in the statements of net assets.

Security Lending

Pursuant to the investment objectives of the Group Trust, stock loan transactions are permitted with the objective of adding investment income to the Group Trust. The Group Trust may lend securities held to unaffiliated broker-dealers registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, or banks organized in the United States of America through the Group Trust's participation in the Trustee's securities lending program. At all times, the borrower must maintain cash or equivalent collateral equal in value to at least 100 percent of the value of the securities loaned. The cash collateral generally is invested in short-term securities which generate income that is allocated between the security lending agent and the Group Trust at predetermined contractual rates. The primary risk in lending securities is that a third-party borrower may default during a sharp rise in the price of the security that was borrowed, resulting in a deficiency in the collateral posted by the third-party borrower. The Group Trust seeks to minimize this risk by requiring that the market value of the loaned securities is recomputed each day and that additional collateral is furnished daily, if necessary. The Group Trust records cash collateral received from the third-party borrower as an asset and also records a corresponding liability for the return of the cash collateral. The Group Trust bears the risk of loss with respect to the unfavorable change in fair value of the invested cash collateral. The fair value of the securities loaned in the Group Trust securities lending program amounted to $970,452,672 and $457,702,807 at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively, and is included in Investments in the Group Trust. The Group Trust recorded gross earnings from lending securities of $2,687,087 and $1,183,875 in 2015 and 2014, respectively, and net income of $2,054,497 and $1,127,198 in 2015 and 2014, respectively. Participating brokers (received) paid $(71,754) and $426,046 for rebates in 2015 and 2014, respectively, and the Trustee received $560,836 and $482,723 in 2015 and 2014, respectively, for fees relating to security lending activity.

7. Tax Status

The Plan and Trust are exempt from taxation under the applicable sections of the IRC and have obtained a favorable tax determination letter on October 9, 2012 from the IRS. Plan management and tax counsel believe that the Plan, as amended, continues to qualify and to operate as designed.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. Plan management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan and has concluded that as of December 31, 2015 and 2014 there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

8. Related Party and Party-In-Interest Transactions

The Trust holds common shares of Schlumberger Limited in the Schlumberger Common Stock Fund. The Schlumberger Common Stock Fund was closed to active investing on July 1, 1987. As described in Note 2, certain expenses of maintaining the Plan are paid directly by the Company. Notes receivable from participants qualify as exempt party-in-interest transactions. Through its interest in the Trust, certain investments held by the Plan are managed by the Trustee or an affiliate of the Trustee. Transactions in such investments qualify as party-in-interest transactions which are exempt from the prohibited transactions rules under ERISA.

* During 2015 and 2014, the stock funds were not investment options of the Plan

The Short-Term Fixed Income Fund is primarily composed of high-quality fixed income instruments with an average maturity of less than 3 years.

The Intermediate Fixed Income Fund is primarily composed of a diversified mix of short, intermediate and long-term investments in U.S. government, U.S. agency and investment grade corporate bonds and fixed income instruments.

The U.S. Equity Fund is invested in stocks of U.S. companies and seeks to track the performance of the broad U.S. stock market. The Fund is allocated approximately 88% to large capitalization stocks and approximately 12% to small capitalization stocks. The Fund is well diversified by market capitalization (large, mid and small companies), equity style (growth, value, core) and investment management.

The Global Equity Fund maintains an asset mix of approximately 44% foreign stocks, 11% emerging markets stocks, and 45% U.S. stocks.

Notes to Financial Statements

The Schlumberger Common Stock Fund is primarily composed of Schlumberger Limited common stock.

The Dow Common Stock Fund is primarily comprised of Dow Chemical Company common stock.

The Transocean Sedco Forex Stock Fund is primarily composed of Transocean Sedco Forex Company common stock.

The Self-Directed Account is primarily composed of U.S. and foreign equities, equity instruments (e.g., warrants, rights and options), mutual funds and short-term investments.

Schlumberger's Target Date Series is a suite of ten funds ("Target Date Funds") that are designed to simplify retirement investing with an all-in-one, professionally managed and diversified fund that evolves as a participant's career does. Each Target Date Fund has a target date in its name that corresponds to the approximate year when a participant expects to retire.

The Target Date Funds invest in a combination of actively and passively managed funds that cover multiple asset classes and fund families, to create diversified allocations for participants based on a participant's retirement date and risk profile. The Target Date Funds gradually adjust the asset allocation over time to become more conservative as the target year approaches. These asset class adjustments are referred to as a glide path.

Generally, the Target Date Fund's glide path will transition to certain target equity allocations on an annual basis. Once a Fund reaches its target date, the target asset allocation will be approximately 31% equity and 69% fixed income and will remain static thereafter. The actual percentage allocation of any asset class in each Target Date Fund at any given time will vary slightly due to market value fluctuations of underlying assets or tactical positioning within the Target Date Fund.

Each Target Date Fund is generally rebalanced to target weights on a monthly basis.

Company contributions may be invested in any of the Target Date Funds or the Short-Term Fixed Income Fund, Intermediate Fixed Income Fund, U.S. Equity Fund or the Global Equity Fund (collectively referred to as the "Core Funds"). Participants may allocate 1 to 100% of their balances attributable to Company contributions among any of these funds on a daily basis. Participants with an account balance in the Schlumberger Common Stock Fund, Transocean Sedco Forex Stock Fund and/or the Dow Common Stock Fund may elect to move 100% of their balance in these funds to any of the Core Funds.

10. Net Transfers from Affiliated Plans

Transfers of assets from plans of affiliated companies result from employment transfers of individual participants between the various affiliated companies.

11. Subsequent Events

For purposes of determining the effect of subsequent events on these financial statements, management has evaluated events through October 17, the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.

Effective March 31, 2016, the Greybull Retirement Plan was merged with and into the Plan.
