The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Tax Status

The Plan obtained its latest determination letter on March 31, 2014, in which the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) stated that the Plan, as then designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. Although the Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter, the Plan's administrator believes the Plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements. The Plan's open tax years subject to examination by taxing authorities include the years ended December 31, 2014, 2013, and 2012.

A. DESCRIPTION OF PLAN AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

Participants' Accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution, the Company's discretionary matching contributions and the Company's discretionary nonelective contributions, as well as allocations of the Plan's earnings and losses. Participant accounts are charged with an allocation of administrative expenses that are paid by the Plan. Allocations are based on participant earnings, account balances or specific participant transactions as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Notes Receivable from Participants

Participants may borrow from their fund accounts at a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50 percent of their vested account balance. The notes are secured by the balance in the participant's vested account. The interest rate will be based on the rates available for similar notes from commercial lending institutions. Principal and interest is paid ratably through monthly payroll deductions. Notes receivable from participants are reported at their unpaid principal balances plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Related fees are recorded as administrative expenses and are expensed when incurred. No allowance for credit losses has been recorded as of December 31, 2015 and 2014. If a participant ceases to make loan repayments and the plan administrator deems the participant loan to be in default, the participant loan balance is reduced and a benefit payment is recorded.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

The Plan's investments are reported at fair value. The Plan determines the Plan's valuation policies utilizing information provided by the investment advisors and custodians. Investments representing 5 percent or more of net assets are separately identified in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the cash basis, which approximates the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Contributions

Participants have the option to make before-tax contributions to the Plan of up to 60% of each participant's compensation, as defined by the Plan and subject to certain IRS limitations. Participants who have attained age 50 before the end of the Plan year are eligible to make catch-up contributions. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified defined benefit or defined contribution plans (rollover). Participants direct the investment of their contributions into various investment options offered by the Plan. Participants may change their elective deferral percentages and may terminate their elective deferrals at any time.

Contributions (Continued)
The Company may elect to make discretionary matching and discretionary nonelective contribution each year. During the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, the Company made discretionary matching contributions of $218,700 and $150,850, respectively. There were no discretionary nonelective contributions for the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014.

Vesting
Participants are immediately vested in their contributions plus actual earnings thereon. Participants will vest in Company discretionary matching and discretionary nonelective contributions based on the participant's years of service with the Company. A year of service is defined as 1,000 hours of service during a plan year. Company discretionary matching and discretionary nonelective contributions are vested over a five year period pursuant to the following schedule:

Years of Service	Vesting Percentage
Less than 2 years	0%
2 years but less than 3 years	20%
3 years but less than 4 years	40%
4 years but less than 5 years	70%
5 years	100%

Forfeited Accounts
At December 31, 2015 and 2014, forfeited non-vested accounts totaled $78,162 and $50,013 respectively. These amounts will be used to pay future plan year expenses. Any forfeitures left after paying plan expenses will be used to reduce future employer contributions. For the years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, plan expenses were reduced by $8,155 and $12,166 from forfeited non-vested accounts, respectively.

Payment of Benefits
Benefits are recorded when paid. On termination of service due to death, disability or retirement, a participant will receive the vested interest of his or her account as a lump sum payment as soon as administratively feasible. Participants whose account balance is less than $1,000 must elect a lump sum distribution or their account will automatically be distributed to them.

Excess Contributions Payable
Amounts payable to participants totaling $16,480 and $1,599 at December 31, 2015 and 2014, respectively, for contributions in excess of amounts allowed by the IRS are recorded as excess contributions payable, with a corresponding reduction to the 2015 and 2014 contributions, respectively.

D. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures, (ASC 820) defines fair value as the price that would be received upon sale of an asset or paid upon transfer of a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date and in the principal or most advantageous market for that asset or liability. The fair value should be calculated based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, not assumptions specific to the entity.

ASC 820 specifies a hierarchy of valuation techniques based upon whether the inputs to those valuation techniques reflect assumptions other market participants would use based upon the market data obtained from independent sources (observable inputs). In accordance with ASC 820, the following summarizes the fair value hierarchy:

Level 1 Inputs – Unadjusted quoted market prices for identical assets and liabilities in an active market that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2 Inputs – Inputs other than the quoted market prices in active markets that are both observable either directly or indirectly.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3 Inputs – Inputs based on prices or valuation techniques that are both unobservable and significant to the overall fair value measurements.

ASC 820 requires the use of observable market data, when available, in making fair value measurements. When inputs used to measure fair value fall within different levels of the hierarchy, the level within which the fair value measurement is categorized is based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurements. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

While the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with those used by other market participants, the use of different methods or assumptions to estimate the fair value of certain financial statement items could result in a different estimate of fair value at the reporting date. Those estimated values may differ significantly from the values that would have been used had a readily available market for such items existed, or had such items been liquidated, and those differences could be material to the financial statements.

D. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (Continued)

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2015 and 2014.

Mutual funds: Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-end mutual funds that are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value (NAV) and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded.

Assets Measured at Fair Value

The following are the major categories of assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2015:

Description	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Mutual funds:
Money market funds	$ 469,945	$ -	$ -	$ 469,945

Total investments at fair value	$ 4,006,559	$ -	$ -	$ 4,006,559

The following are the major categories of assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2014:

Description	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Mutual funds:
Money market funds	$ 331,728	$ -	$ -	$ 331,728
Equity funds	1,697,540	-	-	1,697,540

Retirement income funds	902,758	-	-	902,758
Total mutual funds	3,138,286	-	-	3,138,286
Total investments at fair value	$ 3,138,286	$ -	$ -	$ 3,138,286

Due to their short-term nature, short-term receivables and payables approximate their fair value as of December 31, 2015 and 2014.

E. RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS AND PARTY IN INTEREST TRANSACTIONS

Certain Plan investments are managed by the Trustee and therefore these transactions qualify as party in interest transactions. Fees incurred by the Plan for the investment management services are included in net appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments, as they are paid through revenue sharing, rather than direct payment. The Company pays directly any other fees related to the Plan's operations. These party in interest transactions are exempt from the prohibited transactions rules of ERISA.

F. RECONCILIATIONS OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS TO SCHEDULE H OF FORM 5500

For the year ended December 31, 2015, the Plan filed its Form 5500 on a cash basis. Reconciliations between the annual Form 5500 and the financial statements are as follows for the year ended December 31, 2015:

	Net Assets	Changes in Net Assets
Per Form 5500	$ 4,134,564	$ 915,255
Excess contributions payable	(16,480)	(16,480)
Per financial statements	$ 4,118,084	$ 898,775

There were no significant differences between net assets and changes in net assets per Form 5500, Schedule H and the financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2014.

G. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated subsequent events through October 17, 2016 the date on which the financial statements were available to be issued.

To the Plan Administrator and Management
Sun West Mortgage Co., 401(k) Plan
Cerritos, California

We have conducted a Department of Labor's (DOL) limited-scope audit of the financial statements of Sun West Mortgage Co., 401(k) Plan (the Plan) for the year ended December 31, 2015, and have issued our report thereon dated October 17, 2016. As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respected to the information summarized in Note B to those financial statements. Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we are unable to, and have not, expressed an opinion on those financials statements and supplementary information taken as a whole. We did, however, audit the form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplementary information, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustee, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and found them to be presented in compliance with DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under generally accepted auditing standards, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our engagement letter. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Significant Audit Findings

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Significant Accounting Policies

You are responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by the Plan are described in Note A to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted and the application of existing policies was not changed during the year. We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the financial statements in the proper period.

Significant Accounting Estimates

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from expected.

The most sensitive accounting estimate affecting the financial statements is the valuation of investments. Management's estimate of the valuation of investments is reported at fair value. Management determines the Plan's valuation policies utilizing information provided by investment advisors and custodians.

We evaluated the key factors and assumptions used to develop the accounting estimate and determined that it was reasonable in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Financial Statement Disclosures
The disclosures in the financial statements are neutral, consistent and clear. Certain financial statement disclosures are particularly sensitive because of their significance to financial statement users. The most sensitive accounting disclosure affecting the financial statements relates to the fair value measurement of investments.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit
We encountered no significant difficulties in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements
Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. Further, professional standards require us to also communicate the effect of uncorrected misstatements related to prior periods on the relevant classes of transactions, account balances or disclosures, and the financial statements as a whole. The attached schedule summarizes uncorrected financial statement misstatements whose effects, as determined by management, are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements taken as a whole.

In addition, professional standards require us to communicate to you all material, corrected misstatements that were brought to the attention of management as a result of our audit procedures. The attached schedule summarizes material misstatements that we identified as a result of our audit procedures were brought to the attention of, and corrected by, management.

Disagreements with Management
For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with management is a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditors' report. We are pleased to report no such disagreements arose during the course of the audit.

Representations Requested from Management
We have requested certain written representations from management that are included in the management representation letter.

Management Consultation with Other Independent Accountants
In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditors' opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. Management informed us that, and to our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants regarding auditing and accounting matters.

Other Matters
With respect to the supplementary information accompanying the financial statements, we made certain inquiries of management and evaluated the form, content, and methods of preparing the information to determine that the information complies with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, the method of preparing it has not changed from the prior period, and the information is appropriate and complete in relation to our audit of the financial statements. We compared and reconciled the supplementary information to the underlying accounting records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves.

Our responsibility also includes communicating to you any information which we believe is a material misstatement of fact. Nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that such information, or its manner of presentation, is materially inconsistent with the information, or manner of its presentation, appearing in the financial statements.

REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROLS AND ADVISORY COMMENTS TO MANAGEMENT

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of the Plan as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency or a combination of deficiencies in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified. We identified the following deficiencies in internal controls that are considered to be significant deficiencies:

Remittance of Participant Contributions
DOL Rules and Regulations require participant contributions to be remitted "as soon as they can be reasonably segregated from the employer's general assets, but no later than the 15th business day of the month following the month in which the participant contributions are withheld or received by the employer." During our testing, total 2015 employee 401(k) deferrals from participants' paychecks exceeded the amount of total 2015 employee contributions remitted to the Plan by $11,818. This amount may need to be remitted to the Plan. The failure to meet transmittal requirement may constitute a breach of fiduciary responsibiilty and be considered a prohibited transaction. The employer is liable for any losses the Plan sustained or profits the employer gained as a result of the late transmittal. Management should ensure that all future remittances are made for the proper amount and on a timely basis.

Additionally, we recommend the Plan sponsor investigates the difference to determine if this amount should be remitted to the Plan. If the Plan sponsor concludes this amount should have been remitted to the Plan, we recommend the Plan sponsor transmits the amount into the Plan, report the amount as a prohibited transaction on the Schedule H of Form 5500 and consider completing Form 5330.

Employer Discretionary Matching Contributions
Employer discretonary matching contribution calculations did not take into account the 2015 limit on deferral wages; therefore, there was an excess of $5,754 employer discretonary matching contributions allocated to participant accounts. We recommend the Plan sponsor implement controls to verify employer discretionary matching contributions are made properly, with wage limitations taken into consideration. Additionally, we recommend the Plan sponsor review employer discretionary matching contributions made in 2015 and move excess amounts to the Plan's forfeiture account.

We also became aware of other matters that are opportunities for strengthening the Plan's internal controls and improving operating efficiencies. The following matters are presented for your consideration:

Excess Contributions
The Plan failed to make a corrective distribution related to a 402(g) – Annual Deferral Limit Test by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) deadline of April 15th. We recommend the Plan sponsor implement controls to ensure corrective distributions be paid from the Plan within IRS guidelines.

Plan Forfeitures Account

Forfeitures have not been accounted for in accordance with the plan documents or applicable regulations. Per the Plan Document Article 11.09: Application of Forfeitures, forfeitures may first be applied to the payment of administrative expenses. Any forfeitures not applied to administrative expenses are applied to reduce employer contributions. The accumulation of forfeited amounts in a Plan's suspense account is not allowed by the Internal Revenue Code. The IRS has taken the position that forfeitures must be used or allocated to participants in the year incurred, or subsequent year at the latest. Revenue Ruling 80-155 states a defined contribution plan will not be qualified unless all funds are allocated to participants' accounts based on a formula defined in the plan. This basically prevents any carry-over of forfeitures to later years. Treasury Regulations Section 1.401-7(a) states forfeitures must be used as soon as possible to reduce employer contributions. As the forfeiture account has grown year over year, we recommend management move to correct and actively monitor the account to ensure forfeitures are used in accordance with the Plan documents and applicable regulations.

Minutes

The Plan sponsor does not maintain minutes of meetings. We recommend minutes of meetings be maintained to document performance of fiduciary duties such as review of the performance of investments available to participants in the Plan to alternative investment options and reasonableness of third-party administrator fees charged to Plan participants.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of management, those charged with governance of the Plan, and is not intended to be, and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
