Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet – income tax basis of Greenwich Education Group LLC as of August 31, 2016, and the related statements of income – income tax basis, of cash flows and of changes in owners' equity – income tax basis for the year then ended, as well as the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with income tax principles as stipulated by the Internal Revenue Service of the United States of America. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal controls. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as, evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Greenwich Education Group LLC as of August 31, 2016, and the results of its operations for the year then ended in conformity with income tax basis accounting principles.

Note 1. Nature of Activities

Greenwich Education Group LLC (the “Company”) provides educational services for students grades 3 -12 in the areas of:

- Test preparation
- Subject tutoring
- College counseling
- Day and boarding school advisory services
- Services with children with learning differences

Additionally, the Company operates during the year several separate schools to address students of varying program needs and circumstances. The schools are:

- Spire, grades 6-12, for students struggling with emotional issues;
- Pinnacle, grades 3-12, for students diagnosed with autism, non-verbal learning disabilities or attention deficit hyperactivity disorder; and
- Links, a short-term, transitional program for students who are temporarily unable to attend their ordinary school program.

The Company operates in Connecticut with campuses located at several locations in Riverside and Stamford.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of presentation: The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting used for tax reporting in the United States of America. This basis of accounting differs from generally accepted accounting principles primarily in that depreciation is calculated using statutory accelerated cost recovery periods instead of useful lives and in that accounts receivable are written off when deemed uncollectible, with no allowance for doubtful accounts reflected in the financial statements. Permanent book-to-tax differences, primarily partial disallowed meals and entertainment expenses, that are not reflected on actual tax income filings are incorporated on the statement of income as part of the expense rather than presented as a reconciling item in the statement of changes in owners' equity.

Income taxes: The Company is a for-profit partnership, incorporated as a limited liability company in the State of Connecticut. For federal and state income tax purposes, the Company is recognized as a disregarded entity, and as such, any profit or loss passes through to its owners. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been made.

Use of estimates and allocations of revenues and expenses: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Particularly in the allocation of expenses among its schools and operating units, the Company relies upon assumptions and inferences of discernible variables like student enrollment, teaching hours and prior year revenues as the basis to allocate such expenses. These assumptions and inferences are decisions by management and may result in the reporting of allocated expenses on the financial statements that differ from actual results.

Cash and cash equivalents: For the purposes of the financial statement, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Accounts receivable: In cases of school tuition, families are invoiced and an accounts receivable is recognized upon enrollment of the student. In all other cases such as tutoring or educational consultations, families are invoiced at the time service is rendered. Amounts shown reflect only what is deemed collectible.

Property and equipment: All acquisition of property and equipment in excess of $10,000 is capitalized. Asset acquisitions are stated at cost and are depreciated based upon the modified accelerated cost recovery system (MACRS) over a period of 5-years as per Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Publication 946.

Revenue and Deferred tuition: Revenue is recognized when earned. In the case of school tuition, the revenue is recognized as earned over the ten-month academic year beginning in September and ending in June. Deferred tuition arises when invoicing and receiving payment prior to when the related educational instruction is performed. Accordingly, tuition received or billed for the next school term or summer programs commencing after year-end are deferred until the instruction commences.

Note 3. Concentration of Credit Risk

Throughout the year, the Company maintains the majority of its cash at a single banking institutions that is insured up to $250,000 per depositor by account category by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). These balance are fully insured. At August 31, 2016, the Company also held $51,343 of cash equivalents in a money market fund at the same institution. These cash equivalents are not insured by the FDIC. Additionally, the Company has cash held at a foreign bank account overseas amounting to $3,818. This account is not insured by the FDIC.

Note 4. Deposits and Other Assets

Deposits includes lease deposits for the properties for which the Company pays rent as well as deposits held in escrow for a future purchase of real property. Related to the purchase of real property, Other assets comprise the cumulative acquisition and development cost – architectural, engineering and legal fees – associated with that purchase.

Note 5. Fair Value of Investments

FASB ASC 820, “Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures”, establishes a framework for measuring fair value of investments. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described as follows:

- Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar instruments; quoted prices in markets that are not active; or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets.
- Level 3 Unobservable inputs that are supported by little or no market activity and that are significant to the fair value of the assets or liabilities include those whose value is determined using pricing models, discounted cash flows methodologies, or similar techniques, as well as instruments for which the determination of fair value requires significant management judgment or estimation.

As of August 31, 2016, all investments held by the School were in the form of cash equivalent money market funds and are deemed Level 1 Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Note 6. Commitments & Contingencies

The Company has various operating lease commitments relating to property, equipment and vehicles. These future minimum lease payments under non-cancellable operating agreement in existence at August 31, 2016 are due in future years as follows:

August 31 of
2017	$ 467,790
2018	341,468
2019	349,230
2020	289,185
Total	$ 1,447,673

Note 7. Related Parties

Several entities owned wholly or partially by the owners do business as well as coordinate programs with the Company. These are: Beacon School LLC which operates a school of that same name, and Greenwich Education Foundation, Inc., a not-for-profit entity which provides financial aid to families enrolled in the Company's schools.

Additionally and common to organizations of this size and nature, the owners contribute personal assets for use by the Company as well as co-opts assets of the Company for personal use from time to time. Instances of such co-mingling of assets are use of the owners' personal cars for business purposes. Assets, in whole or portion, of the owners are not reflected on the financial statements, nor are any associated revenues or expenses determinable.

Note 8. Subsequent Events

On April 27 2016, the Company through its wholly-owned subsidiary entered into a purchase agreement to acquire real property with the intention to re-locate some of its operations to the said real property. Since the execution of the agreement, acquisition and development cost has been incurred of $180,844 as of August 31, 2016. As of that date, finalization of the purchase of real property remains pending. The purchase is expected to be completed by December 31, 2016. These subsequent events have been evaluated through November 2, 2016.
