THE PARTS HOUSE

August 17, 2017

Dixon Hughes Goodman LLP
245 Riverside Avenue, Suite 410
Jacksonville, Florida, 32202

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audits of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of TPH Acquisition, LLLP Retirement Plan (the "Plan"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2016 and 2015 and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2016 and the related notes to the financial statements. As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's ("DOL") Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Principal Life Insurance Company and Principal Trust Company, the custodians, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedules as a whole. We understand that the form and content of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified by the custodians, has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of the date of this letter, the following representations made to you during your audits.

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated December 9, 2016, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements and note disclosures in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").
2. The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the Plan is subject, including the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedule referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.

5. Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments are described in the notes of the financial statements. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.

6. We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.

7. Related party relationships and transactions, and relationships and transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP and ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder.

8. All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.

9. We are not aware of any uncorrected financial statement misstatements or omitted disclosures.

10. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments, or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.

11. We have no:

    a) Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.

    b) Intentions to terminate the Plan.

12. Material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

13. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

Information Provided

14. We have provided you with:

    a) Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters.

    b) Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.

c) Unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.

d) All the minutes of the meetings of Board of Directors of the plan sponsor or any other committee related to the Plan for the period January 1, 2016 through the date of this letter or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.

e) Plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the year, including amendments to comply with applicable laws.

15. All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are properly reflected in the financial statements.

16. Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.

17. The Plan or trust has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.

18. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.

19. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Plan and involves:

    a) Management,

    b) Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or

    c) Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.

20. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the Plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.

21. We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.

22. We have disclosed to you all known actual or possible litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements.

23. There are no other matters (for example, breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or loans in default, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel have advised us must be disclosed.

24. We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and parties-in-interest and all the related party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.

25. We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.

26. Amendments to the plan instrument, if any, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.

27. The Plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

28. All required amendments and filings of documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.

29. The Plan (and the trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC") and intends to continue as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor has operated the Plan and trust in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401(k) and 401(m) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the Plan, and any excess deferrals or contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.

30. The Plan has complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participants' contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan.

31. The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.

32. We have determined that operating expenses paid by the Plan are properly authorized, permitted by the plan document and are in compliance with regulatory requirements.

33. There are no:

    a) Nonexempt party in interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 3[14] and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules or financial statements.

    b) Investments or loans in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.

    c) Reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103[b][3][H] and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules.

34. The Plan recognizes tax benefits only to the extent that the Plan believes it is more-likely-than-not (i.e. greater than 50 percent) that its tax positions will be sustained upon examination. We have evaluated the Plan's tax positions, including its status of being qualified under the appropriate section of the IRC and have determined that the Plan does not have any material uncertain tax positions.

35. We are responsible for determining whether an employee is eligible to participate in the Plan and informing that employee of their opportunity to participate in the Plan.

36. We are responsible for determining that all distributions are properly valued and made only to those eligible to receive them.

37. We acknowledge our responsibility for presenting the Schedule of Assets Held at End of Year, in accordance with U.S. GAAP and in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA and we believe the aforementioned schedule, including its form and content, is fairly presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP and in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. The methods of measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedule have not changed from those used in the prior period, and we have disclosed to you any significant assumptions or interpretations underlying the measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedule.

38. In regards to the non-attest services of advising management about appropriate accounting principles and their application and assisting in the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP and the preparation of supplemental schedules as required by DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, performed by you, we have:
    a) Assumed all management responsibilities.

b) Overseen the service, by designating an individual, within senior management, who possess suitable skill, knowledge, or experience.
c) Evaluated the adequacy and results of the services performed.
d) Accepted responsibility for the results of the services.
e) Evaluated and maintained internal controls, including monitoring ongoing activities.
