Independent Auditor's Report

To the Plan Administrators
Plains Cotton Cooperative Association Employee Benefit Plan
Lubbock, Texas

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Plains Cotton Cooperative Association Employee Benefit Plan (the Plan), which comprise the statements of benefit obligations and net assets available for benefits as of September 30, 2016 and 2015 (in liquidation), and the related statements of changes in benefit obligations and net assets available for benefits for the years then ended (in liquidation), and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Plan's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of September 30, 2016 and 2015 (in liquidation), and the changes in its net assets available for benefits for the years then ended (in liquidation), in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis of Accounting

As described in the notes to the financial statements, the plan administrators elected to provide coverage for all benefits of the Plan through fully insured policies effective October 1, 2014, and to dissolve the trust that held plan assets. In accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the accompanying financial statements were prepared on the liquidation basis of accounting. Our opinion is not modified with respect to that matter.

Note 1: Plan Description

The following description of the Plains Cotton Cooperative Association (PCCA) Employee Benefit Plan (the Plan) provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan document for a complete description of the provisions of the Plan.

General. The Plan is a contributory, single-employer, defined-benefit health and welfare plan that provides medical (including prescription drugs), dental, vision, critical illness, life and accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) benefits to participants. Plan participants include substantially all full-time employees of PCCA (the Sponsor), former employees electing coverage under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA), and certain retirees and their respective dependents, as elected.

Trust. The assets of the Plan were held in the Plains Cotton Cooperative Association Employee Benefit Plan Trust (the Trust) established October 1, 1988. See Amendment or Termination below.

Contributions. Employee contributions are required for employee and dependent coverage. Retirees and COBRA participants remit contributions for themselves and covered dependents directly to the Plan. The Sponsor pays all other contributions. The Plan's administrators determine the contribution rates annually. Employer and employee contributions were remitted to the insurance providers within 90 days, in accordance with ERISA guidelines.

Benefits. Employees and their dependents become eligible to participate in the Plan upon the employee's thirty-first day of active full-time employment. All medical benefits, unless otherwise specified in the Plan, are based on usual, reasonable and customary charges and are subject to deductibles and co-payments, with an unlimited lifetime maximum per person. The Sponsor pays the life insurance premiums for coverage of $20,000 per full-time employee. Employees may elect additional life insurance coverage for themselves and dependents at their own expense. Retirees (excluding dependents) may elect $2,000 of life insurance coverage.

Insurance and Reinsurance. Prior to October 1, 2014, the Plan was self-insured for medical and prescription drug benefits and contracted with independent third party insurers for reinsurance (i.e., stop-loss) coverage for claims exceeding specified levels on a per-participant and aggregate basis. On June 30, 2014, PCCA sold substantially all of the operating assets of its textile and apparel division and employees of that division were no longer eligible to participate as full-time employees. Due to the significant decrease in the number of participants as a result of the sale, the Plan elected to provide coverage for medical and prescription drug benefits through fully insured policies effective October 1, 2014. With this change, all Plan benefits are provided through fully insured policies with an independent third party provider; the Plan retains no risk for these benefits.

Amendment or Termination. The Plan is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA), including amendment, cancellation or discontinuance of the Plan. As all employee benefits are now provided through fully insured policies, the Trust was no longer considered necessary. The remaining assets of the Plan were used in partial satisfaction of the outstanding liabilities, the deficit was funded through additional contributions from the Sponsor, and the Trust was terminated.

Note 2: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation. The Plan's financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). In conformity with GAAP, the 2016 and 2015 financial statements are prepared on the liquidation basis of accounting.

Benefit Obligations. The liability for benefit obligations consists of claims reported and currently due and an estimated liability for claims incurred but not reported (IBNR). These obligations are stated at cost, which approximates fair value due to terms generally requiring payment within one year. Benefit obligation expenses include medical claims, reduced by reinsurance reimbursements of claims exceeding policy deductibles, as well as premiums for insurance policies. Insurance premiums are generally paid in the period incurred.

Administrative Costs. The Sponsor provides certain administrative services to the Plan, as well as the use of office fixtures and equipment. No provisions for these costs are included the accompanying financial statements. All other administrative expenses are recognized when incurred.

Use of Estimates. Financial statements prepared on an ongoing plan basis require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, benefit obligations and changes therein, as well as IBNR claims, claims payable and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Liquidation Basis of Accounting. Financial statements prepared on the liquidation basis of accounting present relevant information about an entity's expected resources in liquidation by measuring and presenting assets at the amount of the expected cash proceeds from liquidation. The Plan's conversion from an ongoing plan basis to the liquidation basis had no material effect on the accompanying financial statements.

Note 3: Tax Status

The Plan is intended to qualify pursuant to Section 501(c)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), and, accordingly, net investment income is exempt from income taxes. The Plan has obtained a favorable tax determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS); however, the Plan has been amended since receiving that determination letter. The Plan administrators believe that the Plan is designed and currently being operated in compliance with the applicable IRC requirements.

The Plan recognizes tax benefits only to the extent that management believes it is more likely than not that its tax positions will be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities. Management believes that all of the positions taken on its federal income tax returns would more likely than not be sustained upon examination. Generally, the Plan's tax returns are subject to examination for three years after they are filed.

Note 4: Cash and Equivalents

The Plan maintains deposits in a financial institution that at times exceed amounts insured by the U.S. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporations (FDIC). The Plan believes there is no significant risk with respect to such deposits.

Note 5: Subsequent Events Evaluation

Management has evaluated subsequent events through August 22, 2017, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued. No material events have occurred during this time which would require recognition in the financial statements or footnotes as of and for the year ended September 30, 2016.
