Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520. 103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note C, which was certified by John Hancock Company of New York, the trustee of the Plan and custodian of the plan assets, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements.

We have been informed by the plan administrator that the trustee holds the Plan's investment assets and executes investment transactions. The plan administrator has obtained a certification from the trustee as of and for the years ended December 31, 2016 & 2015, that the information provided to the plan administrator by the trustee is complete and accurate.

Disclaimer of Opinion

Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on these financial statements.

Other Matter – Supplemental Schedules

The supplemental schedule of Assets Held for Investments as of the year ended December 31, 2016 and the supplemental schedule of Reportable Transactions for the Year Ending December 31, 2016 are required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and are presented for the purpose of additional analysis and are not a required part of the financial statements. Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we do not express an opinion on the supplemental schedules referred to above.

Floral Agency, LLC
Retirement Plan
Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2016 & 2015

NOTE A: Plan Description

The following description of Floral Agency, LLC Retirement Plan provides only general information. Further detailed information regarding the plan can be found in the published plan document provided by the plan.

The plan is a defined contribution plan. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).The plan was established to provide retirement benefits for those employees of Floral Agency, LLC , the plan sponsor who are eligible to participate.

Employees are eligible to participate upon completion of one year of service consisting of a minimum of 1000 hours during such period and may continue to contribute as long as they maintain employment. The plan is funded through an employee salary deferral arrangement and employer matching contribution arrangement. Matching employer contributions were provided for the years 2016 and 2015, according to plan document rules.

The plan is fully participant directed. Participants are provided with various investment alternatives. Separate accounts are maintained for each participant. Participants direct the investment of their contributions into various investment options offered by the plan. Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution, the earnings on his investments (which include realized and unrealized gains or losses), employer contributions, and any rollover from another qualified plan or IRA. Each participant's account is charged for investment advisory fees, management fees, administration fees, and fees charged by the underlying investment; all either allocated proportionally or directly charged to the participant's account.

The benefit, to which one is entitled, is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested portion of their account balance. Vesting in the account is immediate for the employee portion of the contribution and the earnings thereon as well as for the employer matching contribution.

Any distribution taken by an individual will immediately cause the unvested amount to be forfeited. This forfeiture amount is to be allocated to future years to reduce employer contributions.

Detailed information regarding vesting, age and employment requirements, employee and employer contribution and distribution limits, are all detailed in the published document.

All expenses of maintaining the plan are paid by the plan sponsor. This includes mandatory plan fiduciary insurance, audit fees, and other operating costs. However, the sponsor can elect in the future not to pay these costs and let the plan pay them. This would affect the participant's net return on investment.

In general, the sponsor has the right to amend the plan, except that no amendment may reduce any benefit accrued to the account of, or earned by a participant. Similarly, the plan may be terminated by the sponsor but only in compliance with provisions of ERISA.

NOTE B: Significant Accounting Policies

1) Date of Management's review

Subsequent events were evaluated through October 2, 2017, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

2) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires plan administration to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, as well as the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

3) Basis of Accounting and Income Recognition

The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting.

Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis and dividend income is recorded on the ex-dividend date; both shown as investment income receivable on the statements of net assets available for benefits if applicable.

4) Investments

The plan's investments are stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to buy an asset (or to transfer a liability) in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The investment alternatives mentioned in Note A are held and administered by John Hancock Insurance Company of New York, the sole provider of the options. The options are pooled separate accounts invested in publicly traded mutual funds as well as a direct investment in an insurance company general account. They are valued daily based on the publicly available market price using a unit of value method.

Transaction are recorded as purchased or sold based on that day's market price. Values are adjusted as of the date the underlying publicly traded investment adjusts its value for dividends, interest, gains & losses, etc. The unit of account concept allows fees and adjustments to be allocated to the individual accounts.

In addition to the pooled separate accounts, the plan has a "default investment alternative" for individual participant's unallocated funds. This temporary account is an investment vehicle provided by John Hancock.

5) Fair Value Measurement

In accordance with authoritative guidance on fair value measurement the accounting literature establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. This hierarchy consists of three broad levels:

Level 1 input consists of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and has the highest priority.

Level 2 inputs consist of observable inputs other than quoted prices for identical assets.

Level 3 inputs have the lowest priority. They consist of unobservable inputs. The Plan uses appropriate valuation techniques based on the available inputs to measure the fair value of its investments. When available, the plan measures fair value using Level 1 inputs because they generally provide the most reliable evidence of fair value.

The investments in pooled separate accounts that are valued daily based on the publicly traded underlying value, use a unit of value concept which only closely approximates the actual fair market value because of fees that are allocated. Based on the above, and John Hancock's fair market value guidance, the valuations were ascribed to level 2.

The accompanying schedule shows detailed information.

6) Plan Participant Loans

The plan provides for loans to participants under certain circumstances. The plan document provides details on loan administration including interest rate information and maximum loan eligibility. Currently there are no participant loans outstanding.

NOTE C: Information Prepared and Certified by the Custodian

The following financial summary information was certified as complete and accurate in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and disclosure under ERISA, by John Hancock Insurance Company of New York, the trustee, transaction administrator, and custodian of the plan assets, per these regulations. The certified information included is outlined as follows:

investment balances included in the Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits as of December 31, 2016 & 2015.

	2016	2015
Fidelity Contra Fund	$ 2,359	$ 259

Investment activities included in the Statement of Changes in Net assets Available for Benefits for the year ended December 31, 2016 & 2015:

	2016	2015
Gains & Losses	$ (1)	$ (1)

NOTE D: Party-in-Interest Transactions

The investment options offered are all managed by John Hancock Insurance Company of New York who serves as the as custodian of the plan assets and as a Third Party Administrator. As such, they are considered parties in interest but are exempt from the prohibited transactions rules of ERISA.

NOTE E: Plan Amendments and Tax Status

The plan was formed by Thomson Reuters Services Inc., a volume submitter. There is an IRS approval letter dated March 31, 2014 stating that the plan and related trust are designed in accordance with applicable sections of the code and are tax exempt and can operate as a benefit plan. The plan was adopted December 9, 2014 effective for employees as of January 1, 2015. As a volume submitter sponsor, any subsequent amendments will not require new IRS approval.

Plan management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the plan and has concluded that as of December 31, 2016 there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of an asset, liability, or disclosure in the financial statements.

NOTE F: Form 5500

The plan, per government regulations, is required to file an annual report for employee benefit plans (Form 5500). The financial statements are to be on an accrual basis while the form is to be filed on a cash basis. This will sometimes result in differences between the two reports. The report is being filed on an accrual basis so there are no differences to report.

NOTE G: Risks and Uncertainties

The plan invests in various investment securities. These investments are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of these investments will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the statement of net assets available for benefits.

In addition, although plan management believes that their valuations of the investments are appropriate, the use of different methodologies to value those assets may result in a different valuation.

NOTE H: Related Financial Schedules

The following schedule and all subsequent pages present information regarding the investments and are an integral part of the notes.

The following table presents the fair values of investments, at year end, that represent 5% or more of the plan's net assets at the beginning of the year.

What's New

The June 2011 version of Form 5558 required a signature for extensions of time to file Form 8955-SSA. A signature is no longer required for an extension to file Form 8955-SSA. As under the June 2011 version of Form 5558, a signature is also not required to extend the time to file Form 5500 series; however, a signature is still required to extend the time to file Form 5330.

The June 2011 version of the Form 5558 provided space for the names of three plans; as a result a single Form 5558 could be used to extend the time to file returns for three plans. The Form 5558 now limits the extension to a single plan. Applications for extensions of other plans must be submitted on additional Forms 5558. As under current rules, lists of other plans should not be attached to a Form 5558. Lists attached to Form 5558 will not be processed. Only the plan listed on Form 5558 will be processed.

A new checkbox has been added for recently adopted plans that are requesting an extension of time to file a Form 5500 series return/report where a Form 5500 series return/report is being filed for that plan for the first time.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form 5558 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/form5558.

Purpose of Form

Use Form 5558 to apply for a one-time extension of time to file the Form 5500 series (Form 5500, Annual Return/Report of Employee Benefit Plan; Form 5500-SF, Short Form Annual Return/Report of Small Employee Benefit Plan; Form 5500-EZ, Annual Return of One-Participant (Owners and Their Spouses) Retirement Plan); Form 8955-SSA, Annual Registration Statement Identifying Separated Participants With Deferred Vested Benefits; or Form 5330, Return of Excise Taxes Related to Employee Benefit Plans.

To avoid processing delays, the most recent version of this Form 5558 should always be used. For example, this Form 5558 (Rev. August 2012) should be used instead of the June 2011 version or any other prior version. To determine the most recent version of this Form, go to IRS.gov/retirement.

Where To File

File Form 5558 with the Department of the Treasury, Internal Revenue Service Center, Ogden, UT 84201-0045.

Private delivery services. You can use certain private delivery services designated by the IRS to meet the "timely mailing treated as timely filing/paying" rule for tax returns and payments. If you use a private delivery service designated by the IRS (rather than the U.S. Postal Service) to send your return, the postmark date generally is the date the private delivery service records in its database or marks on the mailing label. The private delivery service can tell you how to get written proof of this date.

The following are designated private delivery services:

- DHL Express (DHL): DHL Same Day Service.
- Federal Express (FedEx): FedEx Priority Overnight, FedEx Standard Overnight, FedEx 2 Day, FedEx International Priority, and FedEx International First.
- United Parcel Service (UPS): UPS Next Day Air, UPS Next Day Air Saver, UPS 2nd Day Air, UPS 2nd Day Air A.M., UPS Worldwide Express Plus, and UPS Worldwide Express.

Specific Instructions

Part I. Identification

A. Name and Address

Enter your name and address in the heading if you are requesting an extension of time to file the Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ and/or Form 8955-SSA or Form 5330.

The plan sponsor (generally, the employer for a single-employer plan) or plan administrator listed on the application should be the same as the plan sponsor or plan administrator listed on the annual return/report filed for the plan.

Include the suite, room, or other unit number after the street address. If the Post Office does not deliver mail to the street address and you have a P.O. box, show the box number instead of the street address.

If the entity's address is outside the United States or its possessions, or territories, enter in the space for city or town, state, and ZIP code, the information in the following order: city, province or state, and country. Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Do not abbreviate the country name.

If your mailing address has changed since you filed your last return, use Form 8822, Change of Address, to notify the IRS of the change. A new address shown on Form 5558 will not update your record.

B. Filer's Identifying Number

Employer identification number (EIN). Enter the nine-digit EIN in an XX-XXXXXXX format, assigned to the employer for all applications filed for the Form 5500 series (Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ) and/or Form 8955-SSA. Also enter the EIN for applications filed for Form 5330 (see Social security number (SSN) next for exceptions).

If the employer does not have an EIN, the employer must apply for one. An EIN can be applied for:

- Online by clicking the Online EIN Application link at IRS.gov. The EIN is issued immediately once the application information is validated.

Note. The online application process is not yet available for corporations with addresses in foreign countries.

- By telephone at 1-800-829-4933.
- By fax using the FAX-TIN numbers for your state listed in the Instructions for Form SS-4.
- Employers who do not have an EIN may apply for one by attaching a completed Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to this form.

Social security number (SSN). If you made excess contributions to a section 403(b)(7)(A) custodial account or you are a disqualified person other than an employer, and you are applying for an extension of time to file Form 5330, enter your nine-digit SSN in an XXX-XX-XXXX format. Do not enter your SSN for Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ, or Form 8955-SSA.

C. Plan Information

Complete the plan name, plan number, and plan year ending for the plan included on this Form 5558.

Part II. Extension of Time To File Form 5500 Series and/or Form 8955-SSA

Use Form 5558 to apply for a one-time extension of time to file the Form 5500 series (Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ) and/or Form 8955-SSA.

Do not include the Form 5500 series (Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ) or the Form 8955-SSA with this form.

Exception: Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ, and Form 8955-SSA filers are automatically granted extensions of time to file until the extended due date of the federal income tax return of the employer (and are not required to file Form 5558) if both of the following conditions are met: (1) the plan year and the employer's tax year are the same; and (2) the employer has been granted an extension of time to file its federal income tax return to a date later than the normal due date for filing the Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ, or Form 8955-SSA. An extension granted under this exception cannot be extended further by filing a Form 5558 after the normal due date of the Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ, or Form 8955-SSA.

An extension of time to file a Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ, and/or Form 8955-SSA does not operate as an extension of time to file the PBGC (Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation) Form 1, Annual Premium Payment.

How to file. A separate Form 5558 must be used for each plan for which an extension is requested. For example, if an employer maintains a defined benefit plan and a profit-sharing plan, a separate Form 5558 must be filed for each plan. A single Form 5558 may, however, be used to extend the time to file a plan's Form 5500 series return/report and its Form 8955-SSA.

Lists of other plans should not be attached to a Form 5558. Only the plan listed on Form 5558 will be processed. Lists attached to the Form 5558 will not be processed.

When to file. To request an extension of time to file Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ, and/or Form 8955-SSA, file Form 5558 on or before the return/report's normal due date. The normal due date is the date the Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ, and/or Form 8955-SSA would otherwise be due, without extension.

Applications for extension of time to file Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ, and/or Form 8955-SSA that are filed on or before the return/report's normal due date on a properly completed Form 5558 will be automatically approved to the date that is no later than the 15th day of the third month after the return/report's normal due date.

Note. If the filing date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, the return may be filed on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday.

Approved copies of Form 5558 requesting an extension to file Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, Form 5500-EZ, and/or Form 8955-SSA will not be returned to the filer from the IRS.

Line 1. Check this box if the extension of time being requested on line 2 is for the first Form 5500 series return/report filed for the plan. This box should not be checked if the plan previously filed a Form 5500 series return/report at any time for any year.

Line 2. Enter on line 2 the due date for which you are requesting to file Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, or Form 5500-EZ. This date should not be later than the 15th day of the third month after the normal due date of the return/report.

When using Form 5558 to request an extension of time to file Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, or Form 5500-EZ, plan sponsors or plan administrators are not required to sign the form. If Form 5558 is timely filed and complete, you will be granted an extension not later than the 15th day of the third month after the return/report's normal due date to file Form 5500, Form 5500-SF, or Form 5500-EZ.

Line 3. Enter on line 3 the due date for which you are requesting to file Form 8955-SSA. This date should not be later than the 15th day of the third month after the normal due date of the return.

When using Form 5558 to request an extension of time to file Form 8955-SSA, plan sponsors or plan administrators are not required to sign the form. If Form 5558 is timely filed and complete, you will be granted an extension not later than the 15th day of the third month after the return's normal due date to file Form 8955-SSA.

Part III. Extension of Time To File Form 5330

File one Form 5558 to request an extension of time to file Form 5330 for excise taxes with the same filing due date. For specific information on excise tax due dates, see the Instructions for Form 5330.

CAUTION An extension of time to file does not extend the time to pay the tax due. Any tax due must be paid with this application for an extension of time to file Form 5330. Additionally, interest is charged on taxes not paid by the due date even if an extension of time to file is granted.

Note. The IRS will no longer return stamped copies of the Form 5558 to filers who request an extension of time to file a Form 5330. Instead you will receive a computer generated notice to inform you if your extension is approved or denied. Because of this change, we ask you to attach a photocopy of this notice to your Form 5330.

When to file. To request an extension of time to file Form 5330, file Form 5558 in sufficient time for the IRS to consider and act on it before the return's normal due date.

The normal due date is the date the Form 5330 would otherwise be due, without extension.

Line 4. On line 4, enter the requested due date. If your application for extension of time to file Form 5330 is approved, you may be granted an extension of up to 6 months after the normal due date of Form 5330.

Line 4a. Indicate the section(s) for the excise tax for which you are requesting an extension.

Line 4b. Enter the amount of tax estimated to be due with Form 5330 and attach your payment to this form.

Make your check or money order payable to the "United States Treasury." Do not send cash. On all checks or money orders, write your name, filer's identifying number (EIN or SSN), plan number, Form 5330 section number, and the tax year to which the payment applies.

If you changed your mailing address after you filed your last return, use Form 8822 to notify the IRS of the change. You can get Form 8822 by calling 1-800-829-3676 or you can access the IRS website at IRS.gov 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Line 5. The IRS will grant a reasonable extension of time (not to exceed 6 months) for filing Form 5330 if you file a timely application showing that you are unable to file Form 5330 because of circumstances beyond your control. Clearly describe these circumstances. Generally, an application will be considered on the basis of your own efforts to fulfill this filing responsibility, rather than the convenience of anyone providing help in preparing the return. However, consideration will be given to any circumstances that prevent your practitioner, for reasons beyond his or her control, from filing the return by the normal due date, and to circumstances in which you are unable to get needed professional help in spite of timely efforts to do so.

CAUTION If we grant you an extension of time to file Form 5330 and later find that the statements made on this form are false or misleading, the extension will be null and void. A late filing penalty associated with the form for which you filed this extension will be charged.
