This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of Practice Managment Works 401(K), which comprise the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Reliance Trust Company, the trustee, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedule taken as a whole. We understand that the form and content of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustee, has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of October 5, 2017, the following representations made to you during your audit.

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated September 18, 2017, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.
- The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the plan is subject, including the DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedule referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.
- We understand that the statement of net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of December 31, 2015, was compiled in accordance with Statements on Standards for Accounting and Review Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The objective of a compilation is to assist Plan management in presenting financial information in the form of financial statements. We understand that you have not audited or reviewed the statement of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2015, and accordingly, you do not express an opinion or provide any assurance regarding the financial statement.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
- Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.
- Related-party relationships and transactions and relationships and transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP and ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder.
- All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
- Other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or leases in default, events reportable to the PBGC, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel have advised us that must be disclosed have been properly disclosed.
- Material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the plan is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- The supplemental schedules or financial statements disclose the following, if applicable:
    - All non-exempt party-in-interest transactions as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations under the section.
    - Investments or loans in default or considered to be uncollectible.
    - Reportable transactions as defined in ERISA Section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section.
- In regard to the preparation of the financial statement services performed by you, we have—
    - Assumed all management responsibilities.
    - Designated Karen Butler, Director of Finance, who has suitable skill, knowledge, or experience to oversee the services.
    - Evaluated the adequacy and results of the services performed.
    - Accepted responsibility for the results of the services.

Information Provided

- We have provided you with:
    - Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters.

- Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.
- Unrestricted access to persons within the plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.
- Plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the year, including amendments to comply with applicable laws.

- All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the plan and involves:
  - Management,
  - Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
  - Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
- We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
- We have disclosed to you all known actual or possible litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements.
- We have disclosed to you the identity of the plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related-party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
- The plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets, which are recorded at fair value and all liens, encumbrances, or security interests requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
- We have no—
  - Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
  - Intentions to terminate the plan.
- Amendments to the plan instrument, if any, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- All required filings of plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.
- The plan (and the trust established under the plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue them as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor has operated the Plan (and trust) in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401(k) and 401(m) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the plan, and any excess deferrals or contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.
- The plan has complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.
- The plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.

- We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the plan.
- We have obtained appropriate fee disclosures from covered service providers and have concluded the fees are reasonable. The Plan is in compliance with DOL regulations regarding ERISA Section 408(b)(2).
- We acknowledge our responsibility for presenting the schedule of assets held (at end of year), in accordance with U.S. GAAP and in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA and we believe the schedule of assets held (at end of year), including their form and content, are fairly presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP and in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. The methods of measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedules have not changed from those used in the prior period, and we have disclosed to you any significant assumptions or interpretations underlying the measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedules.
