Report on the Financial Statements

We were engaged to audit the accompanying financial statements of Lockheed Martin Pension Plan for Former Salaried and Hourly Employees of Inactive Commercial Divisions, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2016, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on conducting the audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), the plan administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note 4, which was certified by the Northern Trust Company, the trustee of the plan, except for comparing such information with the related information included in the financial statements. We have been informed by the plan administrator that the trustee holds the plan's investment assets and executes investment transactions. The plan administrator has obtained a certification from the trustee as of December 31, 2016 and 2015 and for the year ended December 31, 2016, that the information provided to the plan administrator by the trustee is complete and accurate.

Lockheed Martin Pension Plan for Former Salaried and Hourly Employees of Inactive Commercial Divisions
Notes to Financial Statements

1. Description of the Plan

The following description of the Lockheed Martin Pension Plan for Former Salaried and Hourly Employees of Inactive Commercial Divisions (the Plan) provides only general information about the Plan's provisions. Participants should refer to the Plan document and Summary Plan Description for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined benefit plan covering certain former salaried and hourly employees of Lockheed Martin Corporation's (the Corporation) inactive commercial operations, and has been amended from time to time. The Corporation is the Plan Sponsor and the Plan Administrator.

The assets of the Plan are held and invested on a commingled basis in the Lockheed Martin Corporation Master Retirement Trust (the Master Trust). The assets of the Master Trust are held by The Northern Trust Company (the Trustee), with the exception of certain assets that are not held under custody by the Trustee as described in Note 4.

Funding Policy

Funding for the Plan is determined in accordance with the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), as amended by the Pension Protection Act of 2006 (PPA) and consistent with U.S. Government Cost Accounting Standards (CAS). Contributions by the Corporation, if any, meet the ERISA minimum funding requirements. The Corporation has the right under the Plan to discontinue such contributions at any time and/or terminate the Plan. In the event of termination, the Plan's net assets are to be used first for the payment of retirement benefits that former employees or their beneficiaries have been receiving and next for the payment of other vested benefits. If the net assets are not sufficient to pay all benefits, the net assets shall be paid to the most senior categories until a category cannot be paid in full, and remaining net assets shall be allocated pro rata to all the benefits in that category and not those of lower priority. However, in the event of termination of the Plan, the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) guarantees the payment of nonforfeitable retirement benefits subject to certain limitations prescribed by ERISA.

401(h) Account

The Plan maintains a separate account (the 401(h) account) for the payment of medical expenses to eligible retired participants, and their spouses and dependents, in accordance with Section 401(h) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), as amended. The assets of the 401(h) account are not available to pay pension benefits. Under this arrangement, the Corporation makes actuarially determined contributions to the 401(h) account for the payment of (i) medical care expenses as defined in the IRC, which are subject to reimbursement or payment, or (ii) premiums to purchase insurance under the Lockheed Martin Corporation Group Insurance Plan for Retired Commercial Employees. The Corporation's funding policy is to make contributions to the 401(h) account that are consistent with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) deductibility requirements, which are defined by Section 401(h) of the IRC. There were no transfers made from the Plan to the 401(h) account in 2016. At December 31, 2016 and 2015, the 401(h) account balance was $0.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Plan are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Certain amounts in the prior year have been reclassified to conform to the current year presentation.

Accumulated Plan Benefits

Accumulated plan benefits are those estimated future periodic payments that are attributable under the Plan's provisions for credited service by participants from their date of eligibility to the valuation date. Accumulated plan benefits include benefits expected to be paid to (a) retired, terminated and disabled participants or their beneficiaries, and (b) present participants or their beneficiaries. Benefits for retired, terminated and disabled participants or their beneficiaries are based on each former participant's compensation during each year of credited service prior to his or her termination or retirement date. Accumulated plan benefits for active participants are based on each participant's compensation during each year of credited service preceding the valuation date. Benefits payable under all circumstances—retirement, death, disability and termination of employment—are included to the extent they are deemed attributable to employee service prior to the valuation date.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and changes therein, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Payment of Benefits

Benefit payments to participants are recorded upon distribution.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan, through the Master Trust, invests in various investment securities. Investment securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, currency, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities will occur in the near term and that such changes could materially affect the amounts reported in the Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits.

Plan contributions, if any, are made and the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits are reported based on certain assumptions pertaining to interest rates, inflation rates and employee demographics, all of which are subject to change. Due to uncertainties inherent in the estimation and assumption processes, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in these estimates and assumptions in the near term could materially affect the amounts reported and disclosed in the financial statements.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition

Investments in the Master Trust are reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would have been received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 4 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities in the Master Trust are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date. Gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year are included in interest in net investment gain (loss) of Master Trust on the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits.

Administrative Expenses

Direct administrative expenses are paid by the Master Trust and generally allocated to the Plan proportionally based on the Plan's interest in the Master Trust's net assets or directly if specifically related to the Plan. Other indirect administrative expenses are paid by the Corporation and are excluded from these financial statements. Expenses paid by the Plan are shown on the Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In February 2017, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Accounting Standard Update (ASU) 2017-06, which clarifies the presentation and disclosure requirements for an employee benefit plan's interest in a master trust. The new standard requires a plan's interests in master trust balances and activities to be presented on the face of the Plan's financial statements as a single line item for each interest in a master trust. The new standard also requires the disclosure of the master trust's investments by general type and the dollar amount of the plan's interest in each type; and the disclosure of the master trust's other assets and liabilities on a gross basis and the dollar amount of the plan's interest in each balance. An adoption of the new standard will eliminate the requirement to disclose the Plan's overall percentage interest in the trust and the health and welfare plans to disclose 401(h) investment account information, in which such information will be disclosed in the defined benefit plan. The standard is effective for the Plan beginning on January 1, 2019, with early adoption permitted. Plan management is currently evaluating the impact of the standard on the financial statements and related disclosures.

In July 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-12, a new three-part standard that changes certain reporting requirements for employee benefit plans. Part I of the standard eliminates the requirement to measure and present fully benefit-responsive investment contracts at fair value within the statements of net assets available for benefits and related disclosures and also eliminates the requirement to reconcile contract value to fair value, when these measures differ. Part II of the standard requires investments be grouped by general type and eliminates the requirement to disclose the net appreciation or depreciation for investments by general type and Part III provides for a measurement-date practical expedient. Parts I and III of the standard are not applicable as the Plan has no investments in fully benefit-responsive investment contracts and the Plan's year end coincides with the end of the reporting period on which investments are measured. The standard is effective for the Plan beginning on January 1, 2016. Plans may early adopt any of the three parts of the standard without adopting the other parts. The Plan adopted Part II of the standard on January 1, 2016 and reflected the provisions of Part II for all periods presented in these financial statements.

In May 2015, the FASB ASU 2015-07, issued a new standard that eliminates the current requirement to categorize within the fair value hierarchy investments with fair values measured at net asset value (NAV) using the practical expedient in Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820 "Fair Value Measurement." The new standard will require entities to disclose the fair values of such investments as a reconciling item between the Statements of Net Assets Available for Benefits amounts and the amounts reported in the fair value hierarchy table. Entities will be required to continue to disclose information describing the nature and risks of the investments measured using the NAV practical expedient. The standard is effective for the Plan beginning on January 1, 2016, with early adoption permitted. The Plan adopted the standard on January 1, 2016 and reflected the provisions of Part II for all periods presented in these financial statements.

Subsequent Events

The Plan has evaluated subsequent events through October 10, 2017, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. No material subsequent events have occurred since December 31, 2016 that required recognition or disclosure in these financial statements.

3. Actuarial Present Value of Accumulated Plan Benefits

The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits is the amount that results from applying actuarial assumptions to the accumulated plan benefits earned by the participants to reflect the time value of money and the probability of payment between the valuation date and the expected date of payment.

The actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits is as follows (in thousands):

	December 31, 2016	2015
Vested benefits:
Participants currently receiving payments	$ 54,193	$ 57,421
Participants not currently receiving payments	17,623	15,453
Total vested benefits	71,816	72,874
Total actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits	$ 71,816	$ 72,874

The significant actuarial assumptions used in the valuations were (a) life expectancy of participants (RP-2014 Total Dataset Adjusted to 2006 with Scale MP-2016 for 2016 and with Scale MP-2015 for 2015), (b) turnover based upon the termination experience of the Plan, (c) assumed retirement age probabilities based on the experience of the Plan resulting in an average retirement age of 63, and (d) an annual discount rate of 4.125% and 4.375% for 2016 and 2015, respectively. The discount rate assumption used to calculate the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits is adjusted annually to reflect current yields on long-term high-quality corporate bonds. This can result in significant year to year fluctuations in the valuations.

Changes in the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits are as follows (in thousands):

	Year Ended December 31, 2016
Actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits at beginning of year	$ 72,874
Increase (decrease) during the year attributable to:
Increase for interest due to the decrease in the discount period	3,054
Benefits paid	(5,906)
Benefits accumulated	1,771
Changes in actuarial assumptions	23
Net decrease	(1,058)
Actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits at end of year	$ 71,816

The changes in actuarial assumptions reflect the decrease in the discount rate and change in mortality table, which impacted the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits by $1,363,000 and ($1,340,000), respectively

The actuarial assumptions are based on the presumption that the Plan will continue. Were the Plan to terminate, different actuarial assumptions and other factors might be applicable in determining the actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits.

4. Master Trust

General

The Plan's investments are held by the Master Trust, which was established for the investment of the Plan's assets and the assets of other defined benefit plans sponsored by the Corporation. The assets, realized and unrealized gains and losses, and investment income of the Master Trust are allocated among the participating plans included therein proportionally based on each plan's interest in the Master Trust's net assets. The Plan's interest in the Master Trust's net assets, excluding assets of the 401(h) account, as of December 31, 2016 and 2015 was approximately 0.57% and 0.55%, respectively.

The Master Trust owes direct reimbursements to the Corporation for certain expenses incurred by the Corporation and its subsidiaries in providing services to the Plan.

Other than the financial information in the following table, the reported total fair value by asset class as disclosed in the fair value of assets tables including investments held as of December 31, 2016 and 2015, and net appreciation in fair value of investments, interest income, and dividend income for the year ended December 31, 2016, was obtained or derived from information certified as complete and accurate by The Northern Trust Company, the Trustee of the Master Trust.

The following financial information was not certified by the Trustee, as the net assets are not held in custody by the Trustee (in thousands):

	December 31, 2016	December 31, 2015

Fair Value of Assets

The accounting standard for fair value measurements defines fair value, establishes a market-based framework or hierarchy for measuring fair value, and requires disclosures regarding fair value measurements. The standard is applicable whenever assets and liabilities are measured and included in the financial statements at fair value.

The fair value hierarchy established in the standard prioritizes the inputs used in valuation techniques into three levels as follows:

- Level 1 – Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities;
- Level 2 – Observable inputs, other than Level 1 prices, such as quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in inactive markets, and amounts derived from valuation models where all significant inputs are observable in active markets; and

- Level 3 – Unobservable inputs where valuation models are supported by little or no market activity that one or more significant inputs are unobservable and require us to develop relevant assumptions.

Certain other investments are measured at fair value using their NAV per share and do not have readily determined values and are thus not subject to leveling in the fair value hierarchy. The NAV is the total value of the fund divided by the number of shares outstanding.

The following table presents the fair value of the assets in the Master Trust by asset category and their level within the fair value hierarchy as of December 31, 2016 (in thousands):

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

Valuation Techniques

Cash and cash equivalents and short term investment fund (STIF) investments are mostly comprised of cash and short-term money-market instruments and are valued at cost, which approximates fair value.

Common and preferred stock securities categorized as Level 1 are traded on active national and international exchanges and are valued at their closing prices on the last trading day of the year. For common and preferred stock securities not traded on an active exchange, or if the closing price is not available, the Trustee obtains indicative quotes from a pricing vendor, broker, or investment manager. These securities are generally categorized as Level 2 if the custodian obtains corroborated quotes from a pricing vendor or generally categorized as Level 3 if the custodian obtains uncorroborated quotes from a broker or investment manager.

Common collective trusts are investment vehicles valued using the NAV provided by the fund managers. The NAV is the total value of the fund divided by the number of shares outstanding. Common collective trusts are categorized as Level 1 if traded at their NAV on a nationally recognized securities exchange, categorized as Level 2 if the NAV is corroborated by observable market data (e.g., purchases or sales activity), or not categorized in a level of fair value hierarchy (excluded from the fair value table) where certain liquidity provisions apply and the NAV is deemed a practical expedient with regards to valuation. Funds may be redeemed daily, monthly, or annually, depending upon notification requirements, liquidity, and other matters. Certain funds may require notification of management's intent to redeem at least one to 90 days in advance of exercising management's redemption right.

Registered investment company securities categorized as Level 1 are traded on active national and international exchanges and are generally valued at their closing prices on the last trading day of the year. In the cases where the valuation is based on NAV at the close of the year, these represent open-ended mutual funds valued by multiple pricing sources. For those securities not categorized in within a level of fair value hierarchy, the Corporation cannot fully redeem the investment in the near-term and NAV as a practical expedient is deemed to apply to those assets.

Corporate debt instruments and U.S. Government securities categorized as Level 2 are valued by the Trustee using pricing models that use verifiable observable market data (e.g., interest rates and yield curves observable at commonly quoted intervals and credit spreads), bids provided by brokers or dealers, or quoted prices of securities with similar characteristics. Corporate debt instruments are categorized at Level 3 when valuations using observable inputs are unavailable. The Trustee obtains pricing based on indicative quotes or bid evaluations from vendors, brokers, or the investment manager.

Other investments consists of securities such as derivatives and fixed income securities not classified as corporate debt instruments or U.S. Government securities. Level 1 securities are comprised of derivative securities traded on national and international exchanges. Level 2 securities are mainly comprised of over-the-counter (OTC) derivatives and fixed income investments valued by the Trustee using pricing models that use verifiable observable market data (e.g., interest rates and yield curves observable at commonly quoted intervals and credit spreads), bids provided by brokers or dealers, or quoted prices of securities with similar characteristics. Other investments are categorized at Level 3 when valuations using observable inputs are unavailable. The Trustee obtains pricing based on bid evaluations from vendors or the investment manager.

Commodities categorized as Level 1 are traded on an active commodity exchange and are valued at their closing prices on the last trading day of the year. Commodities categorized as Level 2 represent OTC derivative instruments using observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets.

Private equity funds, real estate funds, and hedge funds are valued using the NAV based on the valuation models of underlying securities which generally include significant unobservable inputs that cannot be corroborated using verifiable observable market data. Valuations for private equity funds and real estate funds are determined by the general partners. Depending on the nature of the assets, the general partners may use various valuation methodologies, including the income and market approaches in their models. The market approach consists of analyzing market transactions for comparable assets while the income approach uses earnings or the net present value of estimated future cash flows adjusted for liquidity and other risk factors. Hedge funds are valued by independent administrators using various pricing sources and models based on the nature of the securities. Private equity funds, real estate funds, and hedge funds are generally not categorized in a level of fair value hierarchy as the Corporation cannot fully redeem the investment in the near-term and NAV as a practical expedient is deemed to apply to those assets. Hedge funds categorized as Level 2 contain liquidity provisions which allow proceeds from redemptions / liquidations in the near term.

Private equity funds consist of investments held primarily by limited partnerships in various strategies, including venture capital, corporate finance, opportunistic, and distressed. The term of each private equity fund is generally 10 years, and the fund's investors do not have the right to redeem their investment at its NAV. Instead, the investors receive distributions as the underlying assets of the fund are liquidated. Real estate funds consist of investments in U.S. and international commercial real estate held primarily by limited partnerships. The term of each real estate fund is generally 10 years, and the real estate fund's investors do not have the right to redeem their investment at its NAV. Instead, the investors receive distributions as the underlying assets of the fund are liquidated. Unfunded capital commitments related to the Master Trust's investment in private equity and real estate funds as of December 31, 2016 and 2015 totaled $3,186,365,000 and $2,953,595,000, respectively. Hedge fund investments are made through commingled fund vehicles and depending on the hedge fund, redemptions can be monthly or annually. The redemption notice period, depending on the hedge fund, is typically 45 to 180 days in advance.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while management believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

In estimating the fair value of the investments not in a level of fair value hierarchy, management may use third-party pricing sources or appraisers. In substantiating the reasonableness of the pricing data provided by third parties, management evaluates a variety of factors including review of methods and assumptions used by external sources, recently executed transactions, existing contracts, economic conditions, industry and market developments, and overall credit ratings.

Derivative Instruments

Derivative instruments are used in the Master Trust to achieve certain portfolio objectives and to adjust asset allocation in order to manage market risk. Derivative instruments allow internal and external investment managers to achieve these goals efficiently while maintaining appropriate liquidity.

At December 31, 2016 and 2015, the Master Trust utilized four types of derivative instruments:

Futures Contracts – The purchase of futures contracts allows the Master Trust to achieve desired portfolio positions in various commodities without the need to physically own and store them. Futures are used to manage the overall risk to equity and fixed income markets. Foreign exchange futures are used to separate the management of currency exposure from foreign equity exposure. Futures contracts are exchange-traded with initial margin required from both parties and daily settlement of gains and losses; therefore credit and counterparty risks are minimal, and futures contracts have no net market value.

Forward Contracts – Forward contracts are similar to futures contracts except that they are traded over-the-counter rather than over a standardized exchange. Foreign exchange forwards are used by investment managers as another means of separating currency risk from investment risk. These contracts allow a manager to lock into a rate at which to exchange an upcoming settlement in a foreign currency into U.S. dollars. Commodity forward contracts are used by investment managers to achieve desired portfolio positions in various commodities. While forward contracts are traded over-the-counter, they are generally very short-term which minimizes counterparty risk.

Options, including Options on Futures – These contracts allow the holder to buy or sell a security or a futures contract at a specified price prior to an expiration date. Options are primarily used to protect against downside risk in an equity, commodity or currency position held by the Master Trust.

Swaps – Swaps are over-the-counter agreements between counterparties to exchange the return stream of one security for another. Swaps are utilized either to provide exposure to a security for which there is no available futures contract, or to achieve an exposure over a specific time horizon.

A long derivative position increases (decreases) in value when the price of the underlying asset (e.g., currency, equity index) increases (decreases). A short derivative position increases (decreases) when the price of the underlying asset decreases (increases).

Offsetting and Netting of Assets and Liabilities

The Master Trust is subject to master netting agreements with certain counterparties. These agreements govern the terms of certain transactions and reduce the counterparty risk associated with the relevant transactions by permitting the Master Trust to net certain amounts due from the Plan to a counterparty against amounts due to the Plan from the same counterparty under certain conditions.

As of December 31, 2016, information related to the potential effect of the Master Trust's master netting agreements was as follows (in thousands):

Collateralized Transactions

The Master Trust enters into reverse repurchase agreements as well as securities lending and borrowing agreements to generate additional income and earnings. Reverse repurchase agreements are transactions in which the Master Trust lends cash to borrow financial instruments from another firm and simultaneously enters into an agreement to resell the same financial instruments at a higher price in the future. Securities lending agreements are transactions in which the Master Trust lends securities to another firm, in exchange for collateral which is returned upon the conclusion of the loan, with interest received by the Master Trust over the life of the transaction. The collateral requires 102% of the fair value of U.S. securities borrowed and 105% for non-U.S. securities borrowed. The collateral is marked to market on a daily basis. In the event the counterparty is unable to meet its contractual obligation under the securities lending arrangement, the Master Trust may incur losses equal to the amount by which the market value of the securities differ from the amount of collateral held. The Master Trust mitigates credit risk associated with securities lending arrangements by monitoring the fair value of the securities loaned on a daily basis, with additional collateral obtained or refunded as necessary. Securities borrowing agreements are transactions in which the Master

Trust borrows securities from another firm, typically in connection with a short sale, in exchange for collateral which is returned upon the conclusion of the transaction.

At December 31, 2016 and 2015, the fair value of securities on loan was $790,000,000 and $690,000,000, the fair value of securities borrowed was $1,317,000,000 and $1,328,000,000, and the fair value for reverse repurchase agreements was $67,000,000 and $181,000,000. Collateral pledged for securities on loan is not held in the Master Trust, and cannot be sold, repledged, or traded.

Securities lending and borrowing and reverse repurchase agreement income earned by the Master Trust is recorded on an accrual basis and was approximately $7,000,000 for the year ended December 31, 2016 and 2015.

5. Parties-in-Interest Transactions

The Master Trust invests in funds managed by The Northern Trust Company, the Trustee. Investments in these funds qualify as party-in-interest transactions for which a statutory exemption from the prohibited transaction regulation exists.

6. Income Tax Status

The IRS has determined and informed the Corporation by letter dated September 19, 2013, that the Plan is designed in accordance with applicable sections of IRC and, therefore, the related trust is exempt from taxation. The Plan has been amended since issuance of the determination letter. However, the Plan Administrator and the Corporation's counsel believe that the current design and operations of the Plan are in compliance with the applicable provisions of the IRC and, therefore, believe the Plan, as amended, is qualified and the related trust is tax exempt.

GAAP requires plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan to determine whether the Plan has taken any uncertain positions that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The Plan Administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of December 31, 2016, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or asset or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, but no tax audits are in progress. The Plan Administrator believes the Plan is no longer subject to income tax examinations for years prior to 2013.

7. Reconciliation of Financial Statements to Form 5500

Interest in net investment gain of Master Trust reported in the financial statements is $1,519,000 greater than the amount reported on Form 5500 for the year ended December 31, 2016. Administrative expenses reported in the financial statements are $1,519,000 greater than the amount reported on Form 5500 for the year ended December 31, 2016. These differences arose from the classification of certain administrative expenses which are included in the net investment gain in the Master Trust for Form 5500 reporting purposes.

Actuarial Assumptions and Methods

Discussion of Actuarial Assumptions and Methods

For the funding valuation, the allowable interest rates and mortality tables available to measure plan liabilities are prescribed by IRC Section 412. Aon Hewitt provided guidance with respect to the alternative interest rate and mortality table options, and it is our belief that the options prescribed by Lockheed Martin Corporation are appropriate for funding purposes. It is our belief that all other actuarial assumptions used for the funding valuation represent reasonable expectations of anticipated plan experience. The actuarial cost and amortization methods used are prescribed by IRC Section 412. While the method used to value assets is prescribed by Lockheed Martin Corporation, Aon Hewitt provided guidance with respect to the use of this method, and it is our belief that the method is appropriate for funding purposes.

For the plan accounting valuation, Lockheed Martin Corporation selected the economic and demographic assumptions and prescribed them for use for purposes of compliance with ASC 960. Aon Hewitt provided guidance with respect to these assumptions, and it is our belief that the assumptions represent reasonable expectations of anticipated plan experience. The asset and actuarial cost methods used are prescribed by ASC 960.

Calculation of Normal Costs and Liabilities

The method used to calculate the ERISA target normal cost and funding target, and ASC 960 liabilities, is the unit credit cost method. The funding target under IRC section 430 is calculated as the present value of all benefits that have been accrued or earned under the plan as of the first day of the plan year, based on current service and current pay. The target normal cost is the present value of all benefits expected to accrue or be earned under the plan during the plan year, including any increase in benefits earned in prior plan years attributable to compensation increases in the current plan year, plus certain trust expenses.

Under this method, benefits are estimated at each decrement age using service and earnings as of the valuation date. The present value of these estimated benefits using the applicable ERISA or ASC 960 assumptions is the ERISA funding target or ASC 960 actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits. The target normal cost is the present value of the benefits earned during the year.

For calculating the actuarial present value of vested benefits, benefits at each decrement age are determined in the same manner, but are then multiplied by each participant's vesting percentage as of the valuation date. The present value of these estimated vested benefits is determined without recognition of any benefit for which a participant will become entitled only through the advancement in service or age while actively employed. In addition, certain ancillary benefits have been treated as vested consistent with PBGC premium regulations.

The ERISA funding target for lump sum benefits is determined by valuing the annuity that corresponds to the distribution using special actuarial assumptions, as described under Treasury regulations section 1.430(d). Under these special assumptions, for the period beginning with the annuity starting date, the current IRC Section 417(e) applicable mortality table is substituted for the mortality table otherwise used.

Statement by Enrolled Actuary

To the best of my knowledge, the information supplied in this schedule and accompanying schedules, statements and attachments, if any, is complete and accurate. Each prescribed assumption was applied in accordance with applicable law and regulations. In my opinion, each other assumption is reasonable (taking into account the experience of the plan and reasonable expectations) and such other assumptions, in combination, offer my best estimate of anticipated experience under the plan.

Actuarial Assumptions and Methods

Discussion of Actuarial Assumptions and Methods

For the funding valuation, the allowable interest rates and mortality tables available to measure plan liabilities are prescribed by IRC Section 412. Aon Hewitt provided guidance with respect to the alternative interest rate and mortality table options, and it is our belief that the options prescribed by Lockheed Martin Corporation are appropriate for funding purposes. It is our belief that all other actuarial assumptions used for the funding valuation represent reasonable expectations of anticipated plan experience. The actuarial cost and amortization methods used are prescribed by IRC Section 412. While the method used to value assets is prescribed by Lockheed Martin Corporation, Aon Hewitt provided guidance with respect to the use of this method, and it is our belief that the method is appropriate for funding purposes.

For the plan accounting valuation, Lockheed Martin Corporation selected the economic and demographic assumptions and prescribed them for use for purposes of compliance with ASC 960. Aon Hewitt provided guidance with respect to these assumptions, and it is our belief that the assumptions represent reasonable expectations of anticipated plan experience. The asset and actuarial cost methods used are prescribed by ASC 960.

Calculation of Normal Costs and Liabilities

The method used to calculate the ERISA target normal cost and funding target, and ASC 960 liabilities, is the unit credit cost method. The funding target under IRC section 430 is calculated as the present value of all benefits that have been accrued or earned under the plan as of the first day of the plan year, based on current service and current pay. The target normal cost is the present value of all benefits expected to accrue or be earned under the plan during the plan year, including any increase in benefits earned in prior plan years attributable to compensation increases in the current plan year, plus certain trust expenses.

Under this method, benefits are estimated at each decrement age using service and earnings as of the valuation date. The present value of these estimated benefits using the applicable ERISA or ASC 960 assumptions is the ERISA funding target or ASC 960 actuarial present value of accumulated plan benefits. The target normal cost is the present value of the benefits earned during the year.

For calculating the actuarial present value of vested benefits, benefits at each decrement age are determined in the same manner, but are then multiplied by each participant's vesting percentage as of the valuation date. The present value of these estimated vested benefits is determined without recognition of any benefit for which a participant will become entitled only through the advancement in service or age while actively employed. In addition, certain ancillary benefits have been treated as vested consistent with PBGC premium regulations.

The ERISA funding target for lump sum benefits is determined by valuing the annuity that corresponds to the distribution using special actuarial assumptions, as described under Treasury regulations section 1.430(d). Under these special assumptions, for the period beginning with the annuity starting date, the current IRC Section 417(e) applicable mortality table is substituted for the mortality table otherwise used.

Schedule SB, Line 22—Description of Weighted Average Retirement Age

The assumed retirement age varies by division (see table below). Since there are no active employees in the plan, the weighted average retirement age is calculated based on the number of terminated vested employees in each division:

Division	Number of Terminated Vested Employees	Assumed Retirement Age	Weighted Retirement Age
IPP Hourly	186	65	23.25
IPP Salaried	58	65	7.25
ILMC Hourly	179	62	21.34
ILMC Salaried	68	56	7.32
Aluminum Salaried	6	56	0.65
Divested Operations	23	62	2.74
Total	520
		Rounded to Nearest Year:	62.55
