RE: Pan American Food Broker
Plan # 222917
Plan Year 2016

Please be advice that Pan American Food Broker did not file Form 5500 on time nor reported the information to ADP because the controller suffered a serious fall and had major surgery. The company had another employee not an accountant cover for the controller while she was recovering. This employee was not aware that this form needed to be completed. The controller was subsequently let go and a new controller was hired to assume the position. This issue was not brought up to her attention until we received an email from APD at which time we contacted ADP and was made aware of the situation.

Please accept our sincere apology and hope that you will consider the abatement of penalties owed for reasonable cause. Please also consider that up to this time all filings were done on a timely manner.

Sincerely,

Manuel Garcia
President/CEO
