1. DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN:

The following brief description of the Dugan & Meyers Construction Company (the "Company" or "Employer") Profit Sharing Plan ("Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan documents for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan was a defined contribution plan established January 1, 1989 that covered substantially all employees of the Company. The Company included the following affiliated group members: Dugan & Meyers Construction Company and Arnold Dugan & Meyers.

Employees who completed at least three months of service during the year and were 18 years of age or older were eligible to participate in the Plan. An employee could enter the Plan as of the first day of the payroll period following completion of these requirements. The Plan included an auto-enrollment provision where all newly eligible employees were automatically enrolled in the Plan unless they affirmatively elected not to participate in the Plan. Automatically enrolled participants had their deferral rate set at 3 percent of eligible compensation and their contributions invested in a designated balanced fund until changed by the participants. The Plan was subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) and the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code).

Plan termination

In January 2017, the Company was acquired and shortly thereafter a decision was made to terminate the Plan. As of December 1, 2017, all participant balances were either distributed in accordance with the plan document or were transferred to Baker Concrete Construction, Inc. Retirement Savings Plan, the acquiring company's defined contribution plan. As of the date of acquisition, all participants became 100% vested in their accounts, to the extent they were not already vested. The Plan ceased to exist on December 1, 2017 as a result of these transactions.

Contributions

Participants could elect to contribute to the Plan, on a pre-tax basis, 401(k) contributions and catch-up contributions (up to limits set by the Plan and the Code). Additionally, employees could roll over their taxable portion of funds previously held in another employee benefit plan to the Plan on a tax-deferred basis. The Company could, at its discretion, match participants' 401(k) contributions, up to the limit determined by the Company.

Prevailing wage contributions were made by the employer in addition to employees' regular pay and were not deducted from wages. They varied for each employee based on (a) the hourly contribution rate designated for that employee's employment classification, and (b) the construction project at which the work was performed. All contributions were subject to certain limitations. Safe harbor profit sharing contributions could be made at the Company's discretion.

Participants

Each participant's account was credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of (a) the Company's matching and discretionary contributions, if applicable, (b) the Company's Prevailing Wage contributions, if applicable, and (c) Plan earnings, net of an allocation of administrative expenses. Allocations were based on participant earnings or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant was entitled was the benefit that could be provided from the participant's vested account.

Payment of benefits

Distributions were generally made to a participant upon the participant's retirement (including early retirement), death, disability, or termination of employment with the Company. Additionally, prior to termination from employment, a participant could withdraw all or a portion of their vested account balance upon attaining age 59½ or incurring a financial hardship (if certain requirements were satisfied). Benefits were paid to participants in the form of lump sum payments, installment payments, or the purchase of a single premium annuity contract upon termination of employment. In the event of a participant's death, a participant's vested account balance remaining in the Plan was to be paid to the participant's beneficiary.

At the time of Plan termination, participants were required to withdrawal their account balance in the form of a lump sum distribution or a direct rollover to an IRA or other qualified plan.

Vesting

Participants were immediately vested in their 401(k) contributions, catch-up contributions and rollover contributions, plus actual earnings thereon. Prior to Plan termination, vesting in the Company's discretionary matching and profit sharing contributions, plus actual earnings thereon, was based on years of continuous service. Participants were vested in Company contributions, other than prevailing wage and safe harbor profit sharing contributions, after five years of service. Participants were immediately vested in prevailing wage and safe harbor profit sharing contributions. Regardless of service, participants were immediately vested in the Company contributions upon normal retirement, permanent disability, or death.

Forfeitures

In the event a participant terminated employment prior to 100% vesting, the portion of the employer contributions which was not vested was forfeited at that time. The forfeited amounts could be used to reduce Plan expenses or to reduce future employer contributions. At December 31, 2016, there was approximately $31,000 of forfeited non-vested accounts available to pay plan expenses. In 2017, approximately $32,000 of forfeited non-vested accounts were used to reduce Plan expenses.

Notes receivable from participants

Participants could borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum of $50,000 or 50% of their account balance, whichever was less. The notes were secured by the balance in the participant's account and bore interest at rates commensurate with local prevailing interest rates as determined by the plan administrator. Loans were payable within five years except for those used to acquire a principal residence. Principal and interest were paid ratably through weekly payroll deductions.

2. SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES:Basis of accounting

The financial statements of the Plan have been prepared on an accrual basis of accounting.

Investment valuation and income recognition

The Plan's investments were stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Plan's 401(k) Plan Committee determined the Plan's valuation policies utilizing information provided by the investment advisors and trustee. All Plan assets were either transferred or distributed during the period from January 1, 2017 to December 1, 2017. See Note 4 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities were recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income was recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends were recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation includes the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Management fees and operating expenses charged to the Plan for investments in mutual funds and common/collective trust funds were deducted from income earned on a daily basis and were not separately reflected. Consequently, management fees and operating expenses were reflected as a reduction of investment return for such investments.

Notes receivable from participants

Notes receivable from participants were measured at their unpaid principal balance plus any accrued but unpaid interest. Interest income was recorded on the accrual basis. Related fees were recorded as administrative expenses and were expensed when they were incurred. No allowance for credit losses was recorded as of December 31, 2016. If a participant ceased to make loan repayments and the plan administrator deemed the participant loan to be in default, the participant loan balance was reduced and a benefit payment was recorded. Delinquent notes receivable from participants were recorded as a distribution based upon the terms of the Plan document.

Benefit payments

Benefits were recorded when paid.

Administrative expenses

Certain expenses of maintaining the Plan were paid directly by the Company and were excluded from these financial statements. Fees related to the administration of notes receivable from participants were charged directly to the participant's account and were included in administrative expenses. Investment related expenses were included in net appreciation in fair value of investments.

3. INFORMATION PREPARED AND CERTIFIED BY THE TRUSTEE:

The Plan management has elected the method of compliance permitted by 29 CFR2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Accordingly, Fifth Third Bank, the trustee, has certified to the completeness and accuracy of all investments reflected on the accompanying statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 1, 2017 and December 31, 2016 and the related investment activity reflected in the statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the period January 1, 2017 to December 1, 2017.

4. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS:

The framework for measuring fair value provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under FASB ASC 820 are described as follows:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value.

Mutual funds: Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan are open-end mutual funds that are registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds are required to publish their daily net asset value (NAV) and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Plan are deemed to be actively traded.

Common/collective trust funds: Valued at the NAV of units of the common/collective trusts. The NAV, as provided by the trustee of the funds, is used as a practical expedient to estimate fair value. The NAV is based on the fair value of the underlying investments held by the funds less its liabilities. This practical expedient is not used when it is determined to be probable that the funds will sell the investment for an amount different than the reported NAV. Participant transactions (purchases and sales) may occur daily. There are no restrictions on redemptions from these funds.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's investments at fair value as of December 31, 2016.

Investments at Fair Value at December 31, 2016

5. PARTY IN INTEREST TRANSACTIONS:

Certain Plan investments were shares of a common/collective trust fund managed by Fifth Third Bank. Fifth Third Bank is the trustee as defined by the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualified as party-in-interest transactions. Fees incurred by the Plan for the investment management services were included in net appreciation in fair value of the investments, as they were paid through revenue sharing, rather than a direct payment. The Company paid certain fees related to the Plan's operations.

6. INCOME TAX STATUS:

The Plan Sponsor adopted a prototype plan document which received a favorable opinion letter dated March 31, 2014, in which the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) stated that the Plan, as then designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Code. The Plan elected not to apply for a separate determination letter. Although the Plan had been amended since receiving the determination letter, the Plan administrator and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the Plan was designed, and was operated, in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.
