Attention IRS and Department of Labor

My name is Frank A. Winegar Jr. and I and my wife were owners and general managers of Kelwin RV Enterprises from its establishment in 2005 until we terminated the business on April 2016. Kelwin RV was a small business with total employment levels ranging between 8 and 15 employees. The business was focused on selling recreational vehicles along with parts and service.

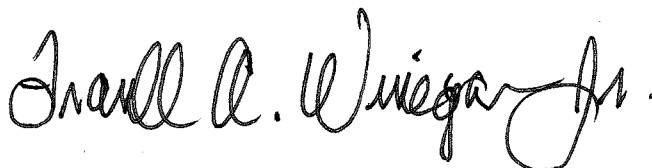

When we started the business in 2005 we were not financially able to provide retirement benefits to our employees. As our business became more financially sound in 2008 we decided to provide the employees a 401-K plan through ADP (plan #221853) with a company matching component. Only six employees chose to participate and because of this and the administrative expense of the plan we terminated the plan at the end of 2013 and replaced it with a Simple IRA Plan in January 2014. Five of the six employees executed a rollover of their 401-K balances into the Simple IRA. The one employee that did not do so was a former employee (Henry Barclay) and numerous attempts to locate Mr. Barclay were unsuccessful. Approximately mid year 2014 we received word that Mr. Barclay had died in April 2014. Several attempts to locate the beneficiary on his account (Sally Barclay) were unsuccessful. After closing the business I was able to locate Sally Barclay in Frankfort, KY and I assisted her in withdrawing the balance in her late husband's account (about $350). The 401-K plan now has a zero balance.

With the 401-K Plan inactive and the Simple IRA Plan in place my office administrator failed to file Form 5500-SF for the years 2014 and 2015. Form 5500 was filed for 2016. The failure to file 2014 and 2015 was due to no active employees participating in the plan and the office administrator resigning and informing no one of the issue. This is a typical risk many small businesses face.

Along with this letter are Form 5500 filings for 2014 and 2015. I am requesting a waiver of any penalties due to the circumstances described above.. The 401-K plan will be formally closed later this year with the filing of 2017 Form 5500.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
