INSURANCE PREMIUM & COMMISSION INFORMATION FOR FORM 5500, SCHEDULE A

Questions and Answers

Why are you receiving this report?

To assist you in complying with the reporting requirements of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), we are providing you the enclosed information needed to complete the Form 5500, Schedule A covering the most recent plan year for your Northwestern Mutual Welfare Benefit Plan. When completed, the information entered on the Form 5500, Schedule A should pertain to the insurance contract or policy year ending with or within the plan year (for reporting purposes, a year cannot exceed 12 months).

Who should use this report?

Enclosed is information which the Plan Administrator may need to complete Form 5500, Schedule A for Welfare Benefit Plans. If your Welfare Benefit Plan is covered by ERISA, you may be required to file a Form 5500. Welfare benefit plans provide benefits such as medical, dental, life insurance, apprenticeship and training, scholarship funds, severance pay, and disability.

> Please note: Northwestern Mutual sends copies of the "Insurance Premium and Commission Information for Form 5500, Schedule A" directly to the Plan Administrator, and any third party administrators, as shown on our records. This information is not filed with the IRS or Department of Labor (DOL).

What premiums and commissions are included in this report?

The most important items provided on this report are the Commissions paid and the Total Premiums. As required by applicable regulations, the figures shown are based on Northwestern Mutual's ordinary business records for the plan year. Since the reporting period is on a strict plan year basis, Northwestern Mutual's report for any given plan year will not include any premiums received or commissions credited either before the plan year begins or after the plan year ends; and will not include any premiums received or commissions credited for pending or conditionally approved contracts until such time those contracts become 'in force' or active.

> Example: Plan year end = 12/31. Payment is mailed on 12/28/17, but is not received at Northwestern Mutual until 01/03/18. This payment and commission will not be reflected on the 2017 Schedule A, but instead will be included on the 2018 Schedule A.

In addition, Northwestern Mutual Financial Representatives and Field Managers receive commissions or fees based on the amount and timing of premiums paid.

What are commissions and fees?

Commissions and Fees shown in Part 1 are compensation paid to a Financial Representative and/or Field Manager by Northwestern Mutual for premiums paid on life insurance policies, disability policies, and/or long term care policies.

How are commissions and fees allocated to contracts?

Amounts shown under "Sales and Base Commissions," "Servicing Fees," and "Persistency Fees" relate only to the sale of a particular contract and are reported as actual dollars paid during the plan year for each contract held by your plan . Amounts shown under "Other Compensation" include incentive compensation or benefits that are based on the sale of multiple contracts and are allocated to each contract using a formula. Specifically, a factor representing the average amount paid, as a percentage of commission, on all contracts sold by Northwestern Mutual that count toward qualifying for such compensation or benefits is multiplied by the commission eligible to generate such compensation or benefits that is paid on each contract held by your plan.

What to do if Northwestern Mutual's report figures do not agree with the trust/employer records?
There may be instances when Northwestern Mutual's report figures do not agree with the specific dollar amount of premium on the plan/trust/employer's records. There are valid reasons why these figures may differ, including, but not limited to, the scenarios mentioned in the "What Premiums and Commissions are included in This Report?" section, and general billing and accounting adjustments (credits and debits) made throughout the plan year. In these cases, the plan administrator should complete Schedule A using the amount that it believes to be correct. Although Northwestern Mutual is required to provide the premium information on its records to the employer, it is the responsibility of the plan administrator to determine the proper amount of premium to be reported on Schedule A.

Who to contact with questions:
For questions related to ERISA regulations or instructions for completing the Form 5500, Schedule A, we suggest you consult the booklet "Instructions for Form 5500," available free from your local IRS office. This publication is also available from the Publication Hotline at 1-866-444-EBSA (3272), or the Employee Benefits Security Administration (EBSA) website www.dol.gov/ebsa/5500main.html

For questions related to applicability of Form 5500, Schedule A filing requirements to your specific plan and/or organization, we suggest you consult with your organization's ERISA Advisor or Employee Benefits Plan Administrator, or your Northwestern Mutual Financial Representative.

For questions related specifically to the information contained on your Insurance Premium and Commission Information for Form 5500, Schedule A report, contact Northwestern Mutual Customer Service at 1-888-455-2232.
