This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of the Weber Metals, Inc. Savings and Retirement Plan (the Plan), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2017 and 2016, the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2017, and the related notes to the financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) and whether the supplemental schedules are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole. We understand that, at our instruction, you did not perform any audit procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Capital Bank & Trust Company, the trustee of the Plan, in accordance with the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), except for comparing such information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules. Because of the significance of the information you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedules as a whole. We understand that the form and content of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedules, other than that derived from the information certified by the trustee, has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of the date of this letter, the following representations made to you during your audit:

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated July 24, 2018, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements and note disclosures.

2. The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the Plan is subject, including the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedules are fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.

5. Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments are disclosed in the notes to the financial statements. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.

6. We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.

7. Related-party relationships and transactions, and relationships and transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP and ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder.

8. No events have occurred subsequent to the date of the financial statements for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure.

9. There are no material uncorrected misstatements.

10. The effects of all known actual or possible litigation, claims, and assessments have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

11. Material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

12. Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.

13. We have properly disclosed amendments to the plan instrument.

14. We acknowledge our responsibility for presenting the supplementary schedules in accordance with U.S. GAAP and in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We believe the supplementary schedules, including the form and content, are fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. The methods of measurement and presentation of the supplementary schedules have not changed from those used in the prior year, and we have disclosed to you any significant assumptions or interpretations underlying the measurement and presentation of the supplementary information.

Information Provided

15. We have provided you with:

    a. Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation and other matters.

    b. Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.

    c. Unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.

    d. Plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the year, including amendments to comply with applicable laws.

    e. All minutes of the meetings pertaining to the Plan or summaries of actions of most recent meetings pertaining to the Plan for which minutes have not yet been prepared.

16. All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.

17. We do not believe there is a risk of material misstatement in the financial statements as a result of fraud.

18. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Plan and involves:

    a. Management

b. Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or

c. Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.

19. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.

20. There have been no communications with regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices that could have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

21. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.

22. We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related-party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.

23. All investments of the Plan are recorded and exist and all are owned by the Plan, free of liens, pledges and other security interests or, if not, the security interest are identified and properly disclosed. Additionally, the Plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets, which are recorded at fair value, unless another valuation methodology has been disclosed.

23. We have no—

a. Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.
b. Intentions to terminate the Plan.

24. The Plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

25. All required filings with the appropriate agencies have been made.

26. During the year ended December 31, 2017, the Plan has complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan. We will correct our non-compliance for with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan for the year ended December 31, 2016.

27. The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.

28. There have been no communications with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.

29. The Plan has complied with the required disclosures of plan fees and expenses to participants.

30. We believe we have adequate controls in place regarding cyber security.

31. There are no:

    a. Nonexempt party-in-interest transactions that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedules or financial statements.

    b. Investments or loans in default or considered to be uncollectible.

    c. Reportable transactions.

    d. Other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities or events that may jeopardize the tax status).

    e. Material concentrations.

    f. Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk.

    g. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable.

32. We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.

33. The Plan (and the trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue them as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor has operated the Plan (and trust) in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401 (k) and 401 (m) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the Plan, and any excess deferrals or contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.

34. We will perform a review of the hardship distribution and loans made during the year to verify that they qualify as hardship distributions and make required corrections if needed.

35. We will correct the missed matching contribution for the rehired employee during 2017 for which a matching contribution was not made.

36. Regarding our investments in stable value funds we believe:

    a. The methods used by the custodian to measure fair market value are appropriate and consistent with prior years.

    b. The fair value disclosures in the financial statements are complete and adequate.

    c. There have been no events subsequent to year-end which would require adjustment to the estimated fair value measurements.

d. The significant assumptions used to value the stable value funds are reasonable.

e. If there are events that limit the ability of the Plan to transact at fair value with the issuer, they are improbable of occurring.
