Re: Plan No. 254-485

To whom it may concern:

I would like to request at this time an abatement of all penalties. There has been some confusion on what company the 401K was with. The funds were deducted from the employee's payroll from ADP Payroll and deposited into the retirement account. When asked about the 5500 filings we were told that ADP did not have a plan for us. After researching with different departments at ADP, we found that we do have a plan with ADP. An extension was filed by ADP and the 5500 was due on October 15th, 2018. All this information was not figured out until October 19, 2018. On October 19th, 2018 we went to file the return and was informed that the extension had run out and that we needed to either pay a $750 penalty or ask for abatement under reasonable cause.

Please except this as reasonable cause, it was impossible to file the form without knowing who our 401K was with. Thank you for your consideration.
