Dear Valued Customer:

We are sending you the enclosed information to assist you in completing Schedule A/C, of IRS/DOL/PBGC Form 5500. We are providing Schedule A/C information to you because we cannot be certain whether or not you require it. Sun Life Financial does not administer your plan and cannot provide tax and legal advice regarding your plan or policies. Please let us know in writing if you do not file a Schedule A/C of Form 5500 and you do not wish to receive this information in the future. We will not resume Schedule A/C reporting with respect to the above-referenced policy unless you otherwise notify us in writing.

The enclosed information includes all the premiums and/or fees we received, as well as all commissions paid to your broker. The commission information may include:

- Base commissions which are policy specific and are included in the policy rate(s).
- Override commissions (sometimes referred to as special payments, or program management fees) which are also policy specific but generally are not included in the policy rate(s).
- Bonus commission and producer conference fees which are not policy specific. They are paid based upon the anticipated annual premiums of all your broker's or administrator's policies with us. The amount of the bonus that is paid to your broker and attributable to your policy is determined by allocating the total bonus amount for the calendar year in proportion to the anticipated annual premium associated with each policy used in the calculation of the total bonus amount. Bonus payments are a company operating expense and, thus, are not directly reflected in the policy rate(s).

  During the course of the year, Sun Life sales and other personnel may engage in various activities with the insurance producers connected with your ERISA plan, such as "lunch and learn" meetings, restaurant meals, attending sporting events, and/or playing golf. Generally, these activities are intended to establish or strengthen the business relationship between the Sun Life sales personnel and the insurance producers and are not provided as a compensatory payment attributable to the plan's insurance contract or to the non-insurance services being provided to the plan. Accordingly, we are not reporting such expenses unless we have determined both that a particular expense is in fact a compensatory payment and exceeds the insubstantial value reporting threshold described in the Form 5500 instructions.

The enclosed should not be used for commission and/or premium reconciliation, it is strictly for Schedule A/C Form 5500 filing purposes. If you have any questions concerning this letter or enclosed information, please contact us via the above listed information.

Sincerely,
Broker Services

CC. The Plexus Groupe LLC

The Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA") requires an annual financial report on employee welfare benefit plans and pension benefit plans which cover 100 or more participants at the beginning of the plan year and are subject to ERISA. The administrator of such a plan is required to file an annual report on I.R.S./DOL Form 5500, including the accompanying Schedule A, with the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

Your Metropolitan Life Insurance Company ("MetLife") employee welfare benefit plan may be subject to ERISA's annual reporting requirements and MetLife is therefore providing you with the information needed to complete Schedule A of Form 5500. The attached report is not an actual Schedule A form and should not be attached to the Form 5500 for regulatory filing. The information should be forwarded to the person who will be completing your annual filing. The information is taken from the data MetLife maintains within its normal business records and is, to the best of MetLife's knowledge and belief, complete and accurate.

Part I, Section 2 of this report lists the compensation paid to intermediaries related to your plan. Intermediaries may include brokers, consultants, agents and third-party administrators. There are several categories of compensation that may be paid to an intermediary. For your reference, the categories of compensation are listed below.

- Base Commissions - Base commissions are generally paid to an intermediary on a monthly basis and are usually calculated as a percentage of premium. Base commissions are typically factored into the cost of the customer's plan.
- Supplemental Compensation - Supplemental compensation may be paid to qualifying intermediaries based on an intermediary's new business or total inforce premium for a specified year. It is not MetLife's practice to specifically factor supplemental compensation into the cost of customer's plan. Supplemental compensation is factored into the price structure of MetLife's institutional business products.
- Fees - Fees may include payments made to intermediaries for services such as administration, communication, enrollment, billing, eligibility, recordkeeping, printing and mailing. Fees may be directly charged to the customer's plan.
- Award - If your intermediary received an award (such as travel or a gift) from MetLife, MetLife allocated the value of the award to all plans that were considered in the qualification criteria proportionately.

Note, the non-monetary compensation amount included in the Schedule A, Fees Paid section of the enclosed report is based on the calendar year tracking of all individual gifts or items of non-monetary compensation such as dinners, tickets for shows or other entertainment events, membership dues, hotels, equal to or greater than $10, that are given to or provided directly or indirectly to brokers, producers, and other insurance intermediaries and/or their spouses, companions or family members. This information is tracked and aggregated at the brokerage firm or company level. The total value is divided by the total number of active contracts or policies in place with that firm for that year except for items relating directly to a specific customer or customers (which are reported to the specific customer(s)). This allocation is reported on the Schedule A reports for all ERISA customers who are part of a given broker firm's book of business.

Before submitting the Schedule A with your annual report to the Employee Benefits Security Administration, in addition to the information MetLife has provided, you should enter in the Schedule the appropriate name of the plan, three-digit plan number and employer identification number in the appropriate spaces immediately preceding Part I.

You may also wish to consult with your counsel concerning any need for attaching an opinion by an independent qualified public accountant.

This letter, together with your copy of the complete annual report should be retained for at least the 6-year period required by ERISA.

* The Gross Dealer Concession is based on premiums received and represents the total compensation and fees paid by the Insurance Company to the selling firm for the coverage used to fund the plan. Your representative(s) received payments subject to selling agreements that they have with the selling firm. The remaining compensation is used by the distributor or selling firm to pay other expenses, including Management Compensation, Conference expenses, etc. The Gross Dealer Concession includes the Commission Paid which is listed separately. The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company attests that the foregoing statement is complete and accurate to the best of its knowledge, information, and belief.
