Crisis Services recently received a notice from the IRS regarding our non-profit organization's employee benefit plan filings. According to the notice, no Form 5500 was filed for Plan 002 for the year ended 6/30/17. Upon further investigation of this notice, we determined the Form 5500 had not been filed for this plan and time period.

The current Chief Financial Officer of Suicide Prevention and Crisis Service, Inc. joined the organization approximately one year ago and was unaware, that any Form 5500 filings were in arrears. Our organization is a small non-profit organization and we rely heavily on our third-party administrator and record keeper to oversee and assist with all filings. They would prepare the Form 5500 filings for our organization and present it to the CFO for signature and filing. Our records indicate that for some unknown reason, these three Form 5500 filings were never prepared or presented to our attention. We continue to investigate this matter with our third party administrator.

We respectfully request that no penalties or interest be assessed due to reasonable cause. Crisis Services has always filed all federal and state tax filings on a timely basis in the past. We have taken steps to correct this process and will ensure that late filing of the Form 5500 will not occur again.
