Statement by Enrolled Actuary
To the best of my knowledge, the information supplied in this schedule and accompanying schedules, statements and attachments, if any, is complete and accurate. Each prescribed assumption was applied in accordance with applicable law and regulations. In my opinion, each other assumption is reasonable (taking into account the experience of the plan and reasonable expectations) and such other assumptions, in combination, offer my best estimate of anticipated experience under the plan.

Disability Retirement Benefit

A participant who becomes totally and permanently disabled before his normal retirement date will receive a benefit at age 50. A participant who becomes disabled after he has attained his fiftieth birthday and has completed at least 15 years of vesting service shall retire six months after the date on which he first became disabled (provided he is still then disabled), and the first day of the following month shall be known as his disability retirement date. This applies only to active participants.

Death Benefits

In the event of an active married participant's death on or before the earliest retirement age, the surviving spouse shall receive a benefit based on the participant's vested accrued benefit as of the date of death, but payable as if the participant had separated from service on the date of death, survived to the earliest retirement age, elected a joint and 50% survivor annuity, and died on the day after the earliest retirement age.

In the event of an active participant's death after the attainment of age 55 or the completion of five years of vesting the beneficiary of any participant who dies after attaining age 55 while still actively employed by the Affiliated Group, shall be entitled to receive a death benefit payable in equal monthly installments in an amount equal to 50% of the participant's unreduced retirement income. Monthly installments shall begin on the first day of the month following the month in which the participant's death occurred, and shall end on the earlier of (1) the first day of the month in which the beneficiary's death occurs or (2) payment of the 120th installment, but prior to normal retirement date, it will be assumed the participant had retired on the day prior to death and elected a joint and 50% survivor benefit.

Severance Benefit

Upon the termination of employment after five or more years of service a participant shall have a vested interest in his accrued benefit which will be payable at normal retirement date. The percentage vested shall be:

Normal Form of Payment

The normal form of payment is an annuity paid in monthly installments for life.

Optional Methods of Settlement

All optional methods of settlement are actuarially equivalent to the normal form of payment. If a married participant does not elect the normal form of payment or does not elect one of the optional methods of settlement described below, then the participant's retirement benefit shall automatically be paid under option [1] below. The options are:

- (1) A reduced benefit payable as a qualified joint and 50% survivor annuity;
- (2) A reduced benefit payable as a qualified joint and 75% or 100% survivor annuity;
- (3) Subject to any applicable spousal consent requirements, an actuarially equivalent retirement income which is payable as long as he lives, but which is guaranteed for a period of 10 years beginning on his annuity commencement date; or
- (4) An actuarially equivalent Social Security level benefit.

All optional methods of settlement are actuarially equivalent to the normal form of payment on a unisex basis based on the 1994 GAR Mortality Table and the 7% interest rate.

Amendment or Termination of Plan

The Committee reserves the right at any time and from time to time to modify or amend in whole or in part any or all of the provisions of the plan.

In the event of any merger or consolidation with, or transfer of assets or liabilities to, any other plan, each participant shall be entitled to receive a benefit if the plan were to terminate immediately after the merger, consolidation, or transfer, which is not less than the benefit he would have been entitled to receive if the plan had terminated immediately before the merger, consolidation, or transfer. While Galata Chemicals, LLC intends to continue the plan indefinitely, nevertheless neither it nor any other employer assumes any contractual obligation as to the continuance of the plan, and at any time the Board of Directors may terminate the plan as to any employer.
