INDUSTRIAL MAINTENANCE WELDING & MACHINING 401(K) PLAN

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2018 AND 2017

NOTE 1 - Description of plan

The following description of the Industrial Maintenance Welding & Machining 401(k) Plan ("Plan") provides only general information. Participants should refer to the Plan agreement for a more complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan is a defined contribution plan covering all employees of Industrial Maintenance, Welding & Machining Company, Inc. ("Company") who have one year of service and are age 21 or older. It is subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Contributions

Each year, participants may contribute up to the maximum percentage of pretax annual compensation allowable by IRS Code limitations, as defined in the Plan. Participants may also contribute amounts representing distributions from other qualified plans and rollovers. The Company may make matching or qualified non-elective contributions at the discretion of its Board of Directors. Participants direct the investment of their contributions, and may change their investment options daily.

Participant accounts

Each participant's account is credited with the participant's contribution and allocations of (a) the Company's contribution and (b) Plan earnings. Allocations are based on participant compensation or account balances, as defined. The benefit to which a participant is entitled is the benefit that can be provided from the participant's vested account.

Vesting

Participants are 100% vested upon entering the Plan.

Investment options

Participants direct investments of their account balances. Contributions to the Plan and account balances are invested in 20 pooled separate accounts of an insurance company under a group annuity contract, as well as the general account of the insurance company. The pooled separate accounts are available from a variety of different investment managers, and range from conservative to aggressive. The general account assets are invested in the general assets of the Minnesota Life Insurance Company, and consist predominately of fixed income investments.

Participants' notes receivable

Participants may borrow from their fund accounts a minimum of $1,000 up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balances. Loans are secured by the balance in the participant's account. Loans are subject to an interest rate equal to the prime rate in effect at the time of the granting of the loan plus 2%. Principal and interest are paid through weekly payroll deductions.

Payment of benefits

Distributions upon the death of a participant prior to receiving any benefits shall be made pursuant to the election of the participant or beneficiary. Distributions due to retirement, permanent and total disability and termination of employment are payable in lump sums or partial withdrawals.

NOTE 2 - Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of accounting

The financial statements of the Plan are prepared using the accrual method of accounting, and reported in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the Plan administrator to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results may differ from those estimates.

Valuation of investments

Investment contracts held by a defined-contribution plan are required to be reported at fair value. However, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits of a defined contribution plan attributable to fully benefit–responsive investment contracts because contract value is the amount participants would receive if they were to initiate permitted transactions under the terms of the plan. The Statement of Net Assets Available for Benefits presents the fair value of the investment contracts as well as the adjustment of the fully benefit-responsive investment contracts from fair value to contract value. The auditors feel that the best estimate of fair value of the investment contract is in fact the contract value that it is reported at, therefore, no adjustment to fair value exists for the years ended December 31, 2018 and 2017. The Statement of Changes in Net Assets Available for Benefits is prepared on a contract value basis.

Payment of benefits

Benefits are recorded when paid.

Plan administrative expenses

Certain administrative expenses of the Plan have been paid by both the Plan and the Plan sponsor.

NOTE 3 - Fair value measurements

Fair Value Measurements Topic ASC 820 of FASB Accounting Standards Codification establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described as follows:

Level I – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level II – Inputs to the valuation methodology includes:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level III – Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Pooled separate accounts – The assets of each pooled separate account are invested solely in mutual funds. Valued at fair value as published daily by Minnesota Life Insurance Company.

Guaranteed return account – The guaranteed return account assets are invested in the general assets of Minnesota Life. The general assets consist of mainly fixed income investments of high quality. The valuation technique used is the income approach using level 3 unobservable inputs. The guaranteed return account is reported at contract value which is considered to be a reasonable estimate of fair value.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Plan believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as of December 31, 2018:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

NOTE 4 - Investment contract with insurance company

In 2006, the Plan entered into a benefit-responsive investment contract with Minnesota Life Insurance Company. Minnesota Life maintains the contributions in a general account as well as various pooled separate accounts. The accounts are credited with earnings on the underlying investments and charged for participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. The accounts are included in the financial statements at contract value as reported to the plan by Minnesota Life. Contract value represents contributions made to the account under the contract, plus earnings, less participant withdrawals and administrative expenses. Participants may ordinarily direct the withdrawal or transfer of all or a portion of their investment at contract value. As described in Note 2, valuation of investments, because the investment contract is fully benefit-responsive, contract value is the relevant measurement attribute for that portion of the net assets available for benefits attributable to the investment contract.

There are no reserves against contract value for credit risk of the contract issuer or otherwise. The fair value of the guaranteed return account portion of the investment contract at December 31, 2018 and 2017 was $632,936 and $703,109, respectively. The crediting interest rate is based on a formula agreed upon with the issuer, but may not be less than 1.5%.

NOTE 6 - Related party transactions

Certain Plan investments are shares of pooled separate accounts, as well as the general account, and are managed by Securian, a division of the Minnesota Life Insurance Company. The Minnesota Life Insurance Company holds the assets and executes transactions as defined by the Plan, and, therefore, these transactions qualify as party-in-interest. Fees for investment management services were paid by the employer.

NOTE 7 - Plan termination

Although is has not expressed any intent to do so, the Company has the right under the Plan to discontinue its contributions at any time and to terminate the Plan subject to the provisions of ERISA.

Liquidation of the entire contract may cause a one-time adjustment to the contract value, resulting in a fair value different from the contract value.

NOTE 8 - Tax status

Industrial Maintenance Welding and Machining adopted the Minnesota Life Insurance Volume Submitter 401(K) Profit Sharing Plan effective September 1, 2014, as an amendment and restatement in its entirety of its previously established qualified Plan and Trust.

Although the Plan has not requested determination from the Internal Revenue Service as to the Plans' tax-exempt status, the master prototype plan from which the plan was drafted received a favorable determination letter from the IRS on March 31, 2014. The Plan has been amended since receiving the determination letter, however, the plan administrator and the Plan's tax counsel believe that the plan is currently designed and being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code.
