United States Department of Labor

Dear United States Department of Labor:

I wanted to provide an explanation for the late filing for the 2017 and 2018 Form 5500-SF. The 401K plan was opened in 2016 and was terminated on about 1/6./2018. During the termination process, my company also switched payroll providers, and the 401K was with the past payroll service. After changing providers, I was able to finally close the 401K plan. During the time of the 401K plan service, I was charged too many fees and I was only able to put about $1,525.00 into the plan.

I am late in filing as this slipped through the cracks and I did not get it filed by the deadline, since the past payroll service did not send me the Form 5500 to me for filing. I am filing the 2017 and 2018 currently. I am sorry for the delay and after 2018, my company does not have any 401K plan and no further 5500-SF forms will be necessary. If you have any questions, please call me directly at 425-905-8189.

Sincerely,

Paul Myers
