TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I received the above referenced notice last week. The business to which it pertains is no longer in existence. It was coincidence that a former neighbor intercepted the notice as I have not been at that address since August 2016.

The referenced business, Invertex Corp, was formed in 2013 for the purpose of acquiring a business using the ROBS system. It was formed through and with the guidance of Guidant Financial in Bellevue, WA. The newly established 401(k) was funded with a transfer from my personal IRA. The Invertex 401(k) Plan had only one participant, me, the entire time. Due to a last-minute change in terms by the seller the acquisition was not consummated and Invertex never became active, laying dormant until 2016. Funds remained in the account until September 2016 when they reverted to my personal IRA at Charles Schwab.

Guidant Financial was made aware of the change and the termination of the plan. After a considerable exchange of information, I was led to believe in an email dated June 14, 2018 that all termination formalities had been accomplished.

In two separate consultations with your call center on February 4th and February 5th, I became aware that the 2016 Form 5500 had not been filed. This should have been the final/terminal form for the plan. Upon the advice of your call center representative the 2016 Form 5500 and Schedule I is hereby submitted.

I regret the inadvertent omission and respectfully urge your consideration to waiving any applicable fines or penalties. Please let me know, at the address below, if there is any further information required.

Sincerely,

George Armendariz
