Re: Late Submission of Form 5500

To whom it may concern:

I am writing to you in regard to the late filing of the Form 5500 and our obligations to the DOL. First Off, I want to apologize for the late submission as I know these delays create a domino effect of work and delays as a result and for that I apologize.

We have recently supported some key members of our business into retirement. These individuals have managed critical aspects of our business such as filing our 5500 form. With this transition happening earlier than originally planned the transition of authority on some accounts has hindered our ability to access and respond as quickly as we would like. During the transition we were unfortunately limited in our ability to have the face to face time needed to complete this transition to the level we had desired. In addition, the shipment of all relevant documents was significantly delayed in arriving at our head office.

We have finally received the documents that included the "Pin" for our access to the DOL and the relevant documents/instructions to complete the task.

With a new controller in place and my first time completing this process we were unfortunately unable to do aligned with the requirements of the DOL. Please accept both our apologies and commitment to maintain our obligations going forward.

Respectfully,
