This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements of the Asurint Retirement Savings Plan (the Plan), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits the year ended December 31, 2019, and the related notes to the financial statements.

We have determined that the Plan custodian, Fidelity Management Trust Company, qualifies to issue a certification of the Plan's asset activity under Section 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations. Therefore, as permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to asset information certified or provided by Fidelity Management Trust Company, the custodian, other than comparing that information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information that you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedule as a whole.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, that as of the date of this letter:

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit arrangement letter dated April 19, 2020, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements referred to above in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).
2. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement whether due to fraud or error.
3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
4. We are responsible for making the accounting estimates included in the financial statements. Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable and reflect our judgment based on our knowledge and experience about past and current events, and our assumptions about conditions we expect to exist and courses of action we expect to take.

In that regard, we are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services or other third parties. The method and significant assumptions used to determine fair values of the financial instruments are as summarized in Note 4 of the financial statements.

Our valuation methodology has been consistently applied from period to period. The methods and assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial statement measurement and disclosure purposes.

5. All significant estimates and material concentrations known to management that are required to be disclosed in accordance with the Risks and Uncertainties Topic of the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) have been properly recorded and/or disclosed in the financial statements. Significant estimates are estimates at the statement of net assets available for benefits date that could change materially within the next year. Concentrations refer to the nature and type of investments held by the Plan, or markets in which events could occur that would significantly disrupt normal finances within the next year.
6. Related-party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.
7. Transactions with parties in interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements and guarantees, and amounts receivable from or payable to related parties have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed.
8. All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements, and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure, have been adjusted or disclosed.
9. The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
10. We have no intention to terminate the Plan.
11. We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the Plan instrument, if any.
12. We have not completed the process of evaluating the effect that will result from adopting the guidance in FASB Accounting Standard Update 2018-13, as discussed in Note 2 to the financial statements. The Plan is therefore unable to disclose the effect that adopting the guidance in FASB Accounting Standards Update 2018-13 will have on its financial statements when such guidance is adopted.
13. We have no knowledge of any uncorrected misstatements in the financial statements.

Supplementary Information

14. With respect to supplemental schedule:
 - a. We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of such information.
 - b. We believe such information, including its form and content, is fairly presented in accordance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
 - c. The methods of measurement or presentation have not changed from those used in the prior period.
 - d. There are no underlying significant assumptions or interpretations regarding the measurement or presentation of such information.
 - e. We will only present the supplemental schedule together with the audited financial statements and auditor's report thereon and will not separate the supplementary information from the audited financial statements and auditor's report thereon in any document that contains such information.

Information Provided

15. We have provided you with:

- a. Access to all information of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements such as records, documentation and other matters;
- b. Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit;
- c. Unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence;
- d. The currently effective version of the Plan document, including the prototype plan document and adoption agreement, the trust agreement or insurance contracts, and all related amendments. The Plan was most recently restated on and effective as of December 1, 2016.
- e. All correspondence, filings, reports and determinations with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and the DOL relating to the Plan's compliance with ERISA and the maintenance of its tax-exempt status;
- f. All Plan financial records and related data. In that regard, the payroll information we provided you covered all employees that were eligible to participate in the Plan; and
- g. All minutes of the meetings of the Plan's Retirement Savings Plan Committee or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.

16. All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements. The Plan Sponsor's management designated an individual with sufficient skills, knowledge and experience to oversee the financial statement preparation process and take responsibility for the results of the financial statement preparation services. This individual performed a detailed review of the financial statements, consisting of the following procedures:

- a. Reconciliation of the general ledger accounts, trust activity and participant statements to the financial statements.
- b. Review and approval of all journal entries proposed by you.
- c. Review of the adequacy of financial statement disclosures.
- d. Review and approval of schedules and calculations supporting the amounts included in the notes to the financial statements.
- e. Applying analytical procedures to financial statements.

17. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.

18. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan involving:

- a. Management.
- b. Employees who have significant roles in internal control.
- c. Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.

19. We have no knowledge of allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan received in communications from employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators or others.
20. We are not aware of any pending or threatened] litigation and claims whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements, and neither we nor the Plan Sponsor, or others acting on behalf of the Plan, have consulted a lawyer concerning litigation and claims or other matters affecting the Plan.
21. We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related-party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
22. We are aware of no significant deficiencies, including material weaknesses, in the design or operation of internal controls that could adversely affect the Plan's ability to record, process, summarize and report financial data.
23. We have no plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets or liabilities.
24. The Plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances or security interests have been properly disclosed.
25. We have answered your questions about the Plan's tax compliance to the best of our knowledge and belief.
26. There have been no communications, whether written or oral, from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in the operation of the Plan.
27. We have complied with (a) all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements, including provisions of the Plan, that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance, (b) the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA, (c) all participant eligibility and coverage requirements of the Plan, ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), and (d) the filing requirements of appropriate agencies.
28. We have complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participants' contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan.
29. The Plan has adopted a volume submitter plan sponsored by Fidelity Management & Research Co. The volume submitter plan provider has received an advisory letter from the Internal Revenue Service as to the volume submitter plan's qualified status. The volume submitter plan advisory letter has been relied upon by this Plan. The Plan Administrator believes the Plan is designed and is being operated in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.
30. We have reviewed the complementary user entity control considerations of the Service Organization Controls (SOC 1) Reports for the service providers listed below, and we believe all applicable controls are properly designed and implemented and operating effectively:
 - a. Fidelity Workplace Services LLC's Defined Contribution Recordkeeping Services System dated December 4, 2019 for the period ended October 31, 2019, and the related gap letter through December 31, 2019;
 - b. Fidelity Technology Group's Data Center and Related Infrastructure System dated December 4, 2019 for the period ended October 31, 2019, and the related gap letter through December 31, 2019; and
 - c. Paylocity Corporation's HR & Payroll System dated November 14, 2019 for the period ended August 31, 2019, and the related gap letter through December 31, 2019.
