This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedules of MorningStar Senior Living Retirement Plan, which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefit as of December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefit and changes for the year ended December 31, 2019, and the related notes to the financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial status and changes in financial status of MorningStar Senior Living Retirement Plan in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) and whether the supplemental schedules are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

We understand that, at our instruction, you did not perform any audit procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by the custodians, in accordance with the Department of Labor (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, other than comparing such information with the financial statements and supplemental schedules. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedules taken as a whole. We understand the form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedules, other than that derived from the information certified or provided by custodian, was audited by you in accordance with U.S. GAAS, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures as you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries, as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of September 16, 2020, the following representations made to you during your audit.

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated August 13, 2020, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements and notes in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and the notes include all the disclosures required by laws and regulations in which the plan is subject, including the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements, notes, and supplemental schedule that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.

- Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.

- The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
- We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.
- Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.
- Transactions with parties in interest, as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA and regulations there under, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from, or payable to, related parties have been appropriately disclosed.
- All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
- The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- We have no intentions to terminate the plan.
- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the plan is contingently liable to a bank or another lending institution have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the plan instrument, if any.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the supplementary information in accordance with the applicable criteria and we believe the supplementary information, including its form and content, is fairly presented in accordance with the applicable criteria. The methods of measurement or presentation have not changed from those used in the prior period.

Information Provided

- We have provided you with:
  - Access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as financial records and related data, plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, as applicable, or investments contracts, as applicable, and amendments to such documents entered into during the year;
  - Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit;
  - Unrestricted access to persons within the plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence;
  - All minutes of the meetings the plan administrative committee or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared. We represent no minutes were maintained for the Plan during the year ended December 31, 2019.
- All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
- Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- The plan or trust has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the plan and involves:
  - Management;
  - Employees who have significant roles in internal control; or
  - Others when the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
- We have disclosed to you all known instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation and claims whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements and we have not consulted legal counsel concerning litigation or claims.
- There are no other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or loans in default, events reportable to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel has advised us must be disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the identity of the plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related party and party in interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
- We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the plan.
