Re: Late filing of Form 5500-SF for 401k Plan ID 237524

Dear Sir/Madam,

We are a small business offering 401k retirement benefits to our employees for the last few years. We currently have 11 participants in our plan, we have continued to offer employee benefits in spite of the current pandemic situation and heavy disruptions to the business as we are personal services spa business.

We always file the form 5500 on time, this year due to the various challenges I have experienced managing the business during the pandemic and on the personal level with close family members hospitalized in the last month due to COVID, I missed the extension deadline of 10/15/2020 by 12 days.

I request you to kindly waive the late fees and accept the form 5500-SF for 2019. We have already closed our business due to COVID restrictions for 4 months this year and we are running at only 50% capacity that has placed undue burden on our small business. As we speak the state is re-imposing more restrictions which may cause our business to close again as COVID cases increase. Between procuring the PPE at high cost and effort, managing employees and sick family care, I will be grateful if this penalty is waived. I assure you that this will not be the case for filing next year.

Thank you for your consideration,

Sincerely,

Rahul Kommineni
