Report on the Financial Statements

We were engaged to audit the accompanying financial statements of Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. Pre-Tax Savings Plan - Gaylord (the "Plan"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of February 3, 2020 and December 31, 2019, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the period January 1, 2020 through February 3, 2020, and for the year ended December 31, 2019, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on conducting the audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Because of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, however, we were not able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion.

Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion

As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the Plan Administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note 3, which was certified or provided by Fidelity Management Trust Company, the custodian of the Plan, except for comparing this information with the related information included in the financial statements. We have been informed by the Plan Administrator that the custodian holds the Plan's assets and executes transactions. The Plan Administrator has obtained certifications from the custodian as of February 3, 2020 and December 31, 2019, and for the period January 1, 2020 through February 3, 2020 and for the year ended December 31, 2019, that the information provided to the Plan Administrator by the custodian is complete and accurate.

Disclaimer of Opinion

Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we have not been able to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to provide a basis for an audit opinion. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on these financial statements.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. approved a merger of the Plan into the Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. Enhanced Investment Savings Plan. All plan assets were transferred to the Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. Enhanced Investment Savings Plan on February 3, 2020. Our disclaimer of opinion has not been modified with respect to this matter.

Other Matter

The supplemental schedule H, line 4(i) – schedule of assets (held at end of year) as of December 31, 2019, is required by the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. The supplemental schedule is the responsibility of the Plan's management. Because of the significance of the matter described in the Basis for Disclaimer of Opinion paragraph, we do not express an opinion on the supplemental schedule.

Report on Form and Content in Compliance with DOL Rules and Regulations

The form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified or provided by the custodian, have been audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and, in our opinion, are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

COOPER-STANDARD AUTOMOTIVE INC.
PRE-TAX SAVINGS PLAN - GAYLORD
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
February 3, 2020 and December 31, 2019

Note 1-Description of plan

The following description of the Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. Pre-Tax Savings Plan - Gaylord (the "Plan"), provides only general information. Participants should refer to the plan agreement for a complete description of the Plan's provisions.

General

The Plan was a defined contribution plan covering all hourly employees who had completed the 90-day probationary period and were covered by the collective bargaining agreement between the UAW Local 388 and Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. (the "Plan Sponsor" or "Company"). The Plan was subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (ERISA).

On September 13, 2019, Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. approved a merger of the Plan into the Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. Enhanced Investment Savings Plan. On February 3, 2020, the plan assets were merged into the Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. Enhanced Investment Savings Plan.

Contributions

Each year, participants could contribute up to 15% of their pre-tax compensation or the dollar limitation contained in the Internal Revenue Code 402(g) in effect for such taxable year. Participants could direct their contributions to any of the Plan's investment fund options.

Effective July 1, 2017, the Plan automatically enrolled employees at a deferral rate of 3% of compensation, as defined in the plan document, upon meeting eligibility requirements to participate in the Plan unless the employee revoked or changed this election.

The Plan Sponsor contributed a fixed matching contribution equal to 100% of all pre-tax contributions up to 3% of their compensation.

The Plan Sponsor contributed a base contribution of 1% for employees with less than 15 years of service and 2% for employees with more than 15 years of service.

The Plan Sponsor could also make an annual discretionary contribution at the discretion of the Plan Sponsor's Board of Directors, up to 5% of each participant's compensation. The Plan Sponsor did not make an annual discretionary contribution to the Plan in 2019 or 2020.

Participant accounts

Individual accounts were maintained for each participant in the Plan. Each participant's account was credited with the participant's contributions, their allocation of the Plan Sponsor's contributions and Plan earnings. Plan earnings were allocated based on the participant's share of net earnings or losses of their respective elected investment options. The benefit to which a participant was entitled was the benefit that could be provided from the participant's vested account.

Vesting

The participants were immediately vested in their contributions and the Company's contributions, plus actual earnings thereon.

Forfeitures
Forfeitures used to reduce employer contributions for the year ended December 31, 2019 were $274. Forfeitures used to pay administrative expenses for the year ended December 31, 2019 were $591. No forfeitures were used to reduce employer contributions or administrative expenses for the period January 1, 2020 through February 3, 2020. At February 3, 2020 and December 31, 2019, forfeited non-vested accounts totaled $0.

Payment of benefits
In the event of retirement, attainment of age 59 ½, death, termination, total and permanent disability or other severance from employment, participants were entitled to receive an amount equal to the value of the vested interest in their accounts. Payment of benefits could be taken in a lump sum distribution. In certain circumstances, active employees could take partial withdrawals.

Upon termination of service, a participant could receive a lump-sum amount equal to the value of his or her account. If a participant's balance was less than $5,000 and a distribution election was not made, the full value of the account was to be distributed in a single lump-sum within a reasonable period of time, either directly to the participant if the balance did not exceed $1,000, or to an individual retirement account if the balance was between $1,000 and $5,000.

In the event of hardship, as defined in the plan agreement, participants could take a distribution from their accounts, in an amount necessary to satisfy the financial need, subject to certain tax withholdings.

Notes receivable from participants
Participants could borrow the lesser of 50% of the vested value of their entire account or $50,000. Only one outstanding note receivable was permitted at any time and the note receivable repayment schedule could be no longer than 59 months or less than $1,000. The interest rate was established based on an interest rate charged by a person in the business of lending money for loans under similar circumstances. Notes receivable from participants were valued at their unpaid principal balance plus accrued but unpaid interest. Principal and interest were paid ratably through payroll deductions.

The notes receivable from participants were secured by the balance in the participant’s account. If a participant ceased to make note receivable repayments and the Plan Administrator deemed the notes receivable to be in default, the remaining balance was reduced, and a benefit payment was recorded.

Note 2-Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of accounting
The accompanying financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting. Participant withdrawals were recorded upon distribution.

Note 2-Summary of significant accounting policies–continued

Use of estimates
The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and changes therein, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Valuation of investments and income recognition
Investments held by the Plan were stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. See Note 4 for further discussion and disclosures related to fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of investments were recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income was recorded on the accrual basis. Dividend income was recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation (depreciation) included gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Contributions
Participant salary deferrals and Company contributions were included in income during the period the related salary was earned.

Administrative expenses
Recordkeeping fees were paid by participants and the Plan Sponsor paid all remaining administrative expenses of the Plan, unless the expenses related to specific investment directions of the participant. Administrative expenses that were paid by the Plan Sponsor are excluded from these financial statements. Fees related to the administration of notes receivable from participants and benefit payments were charged directly to the participant's account and are included in administrative expenses.

Note 3-Investments
All investment information disclosed in the accompanying financial statements and supplemental schedule, including investments held and notes receivable from participants as of February 3, 2020 and December 31, 2019, and net realized and unrealized appreciation (depreciation) in fair value of investments, interest, dividends and interest income on notes receivable from participants for the period January 1, 2020 through February 3, 2020 and for the year ended December 31, 2019, were obtained or derived from information supplied to the Plan Sponsor and certified by Fidelity Management Trust Company, as complete and accurate in accordance with Section 2520.103-5 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Such information has not been examined by independent auditors.

Note 4-Fair value measurements

The framework for measuring fair value provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic 820*, Fair Value Measurement*, are described as follows:

Level 1. Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan has the ability to access.

Level 2. Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

a. Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;

b. Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;

c. Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;

d. Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3. Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset's or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques maximize the use of relevant observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Note 4-Fair value measurements–continued

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at February 3, 2020 and December 31, 2019. There were no assets held at February 3, 2020 as they were merged into the Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. Enhanced Investment Savings Plan.

Mutual Funds – A mutual fund's net asset value is normally calculated as of the close of business of the New York Stock Exchange, normally 4:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. The fund's assets normally were valued as of this time for the purpose of computing the fund's net asset value.

Common Collective Trust Funds – Valued at the net asset value of units sales price of the underlying investments using the net asset value, as provided by the fund manager, as a practical expedient based on the value reported.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Plan believes its valuation methods were appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies and assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The following table sets forth, by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets that were measured at fair value:

		Fair Value Measurements at December 31, 2019
Description	Total	Level (1)	Level (2)	Level (3)
Mutual funds	$ 1,376,912	$ 1,376,912	$ 0	$ 0
Total investments in the fair value hierarchy	1,376,912	$ 1,376,912	$ 0	$ 0
Investments measured at net asset value (a)	3,121,102
Total investment assets at fair value	$ 4,498,014

(a) In accordance with Subtopic 820-10, certain investments that were measured at the net asset value per share (or its equivalent) have not been classified in the fair value hierarchy. The fair value amounts presented in this table are intended to permit reconciliation of the fair value hierarchy to the line items presented in the statement of net assets available for benefits.

The common collective trust funds had no unfunded commitments, had a daily redemption frequency and required a 1-day redemption period. The fair value of the common collective trust funds, as measured at net asset value (or its equivalent), was $3,121,102 at December 31, 2019.

Note 5-Related party transactions and party in interest transactions

Fidelity Management Trust Company was the custodian as defined by the Plan, therefore, transactions with Fidelity Management Trust Company qualified as party in interest transactions. The Plan made direct payments to Fidelity Management Trust Company in the amount of $0 and $19,429 during the period January 1, 2020 through February 3, 2020 and the year ended December 31, 2019, respectively. Notes receivable from participants also qualified as party in interest transactions. Notes receivable from participants totaled $0 and $119,530 at February 3, 2020 and December 31, 2019, respectively, and the interest income from the notes receivable from participants totaled $531 for the period January 1, 2020 through February 3, 2020 and $5,619 for the year ended December 31, 2019.

Note 6-Federal income tax status

The Plan obtained its latest determination letter dated February 23, 2017, from the Internal Revenue Service indicating that the Plan, as designed, was qualified for tax-exempt treatment under the applicable section of the Internal Revenue Code. Subsequent to this issuance of the determination letter, the Plan was amended. Once qualified, the Plan was required to operate in conformity with the Internal Revenue Code to maintain its qualification. The Plan Administrator believes the Plan was being operated in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been included in the Plan's financial statements.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination. The Plan Administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan and has concluded that there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress.

Note 7-Risks and uncertainties

The Plan invested in various investment securities. Investment securities were exposed to various risks, such as interest rate, market and credit risk. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it was at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities could have occurred in the near term and could have materially affected the participants' account balances.

Note 8-Transfer of plan assets

As discussed in Note 1, effective February 3, 2020, the Plan merged into the Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. Enhanced Investment Savings Plan. Plan assets in the amount of $4,616,620 were transferred into the Cooper-Standard Automotive Inc. Enhanced Investment Savings Plan held with Fidelity Management Trust Company on February 3, 2020.

Note 9-Subsequent events

The Plan Sponsor has evaluated subsequent events through November 19, 2020, the date the financial statements were available to be issued and has noted the transfer of plan assets as described in Note 8 and the following that require recognition or disclosure:

As a result of the spread of the COVID-19 coronavirus during 2020, economic uncertainties have arisen as of the date of the financial statements. The extent of the impact of COVID-19 on the Plan's operational and financial performance will depend on certain developments, including the duration and spread of the outbreak, and the impact on the Plan sponsor, participants and investments, all of which are uncertain and cannot be predicted. At this point, the extent to which COVID-19 may impact the Plan's financial condition or results of operations is uncertain.
