Dear Department of Labor

January 8, 2021

I am writing this letter because I have been informed that my 5500 filing for 2019 was rejected or unsuccessful. I have been trying to submit this form for months, however the ADP site I am supposed to use was not working correctly. (Apparently, they had my log in credentials incorrect and I kept receiving an error saying I wasn't authorized...I tried numerous times to reach a rep for help and couldn't get through, assuming due to staffing issues due to the pandemic). My financial planner Vicki from Edward Jones had submitted an extension request and we were under the impression that I had until December 31, 2020 to file.

I then had my son prematurely at 36 weeks on October 13, 2020. I have been on maternity leave since.

I am now being informed that the filing was rejected due to being late. I am asking for forgiveness as it was not my intention to submit late, and to please accept the filing.

Thank you,

Rosie Patterson
