To Whom It May Concern:

It has come to my attention that our form 5500 has not been filed for 2015-2019. I learned of this while calling ADP related to a 401k question. At no time was I notified in my direct email or received a phone call letting me know of this error. I can assume that if emails were sent that they reached my spam and not my direct email. We are a very small non-profit that serves homeless women and babies. I understand there is a penalty for each year filing and I am requesting them to be waived.

I was finally connected to a representative today that informed me of the errors. I was calling about another topic so if I had not reached her I would not of know of this error. I have been the Executive Director of ALPHA House since 2006 and have never received a call from ADP about reports that needed to be filed.

I thank you for your time and kindly ask that you allow me to file the above years and waive any fees associated with the lateness. Again, this was not done intentionally but not being informed and notified.

Thank you
