Section I - Internal Control Related Matters Identified in an Audit

In planning and performing our limited scope audit of the financial statements of Keihin Thermal Technology of America, Inc. Retirement Plan as of and for the year ended November 30, 2020, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) other than those controls over investments and related investment activity. Our limited scope audit was performed in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America except, as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we did not perform any auditing procedures with respect to certified information except for comparing such information to the related information included in the financial statements. We considered internal control as a basis for designing our procedures to enable us to express an opinion as to whether the form and content of the information included in the financial statements, other than that derived from the certified information, are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the preceding paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses, and, therefore, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that were not identified.

However, as discussed below, we identified a certain deficiency in internal control that we consider to be a material weakness.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis.

We consider the following deficiency in the Plan's internal control to be a material weakness:

- Controls over compliance with the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA did not ensure the timely deposit of employee contributions, as required by the DOL. As a result, the net assets of the Plan could be understated for those contributions and related lost earnings, and the Plan would be out of compliance with DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, resulting in potential fines and penalties up to the Plan losing its tax-qualified status.

A DOL regulation requires that benefit plans remit employee contributions to the plan as soon as they can be reasonably segregated from the employer's general assets. In no case can this amount of time exceed 15 business days after the end of the month in which the amounts were withheld. The 15-business-day rule, however, is not a safe harbor. The general rule has been interpreted as being as little as zero days for entities with more than 100 employees. The DOL also looks at the consistency of timing and holds employers to a deposit standard, which is the employer's historically fewest number of days to actually deposit employee contributions, when determining if contributions are timely.

Section II - Required Communications with Those Charged with Governance

Our Responsibility Under U.S. Generally Accepted Auditing Standards

As stated in our engagement letter dated June 21, 2021, we conducted our audit in accordance with professional standards except that, as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA and as instructed by you, we did not perform any auditing procedures with respect to certified information except for comparing such information to the related information included in the financial statements. Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we did not express an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. The form and content of the information included in the financial statements, other than that derived from the certified information, were audited by us in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and were subjected to tests of your accounting records and other procedures as we considered necessary to enable us to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. Our audit of the financial statements does not relieve you or management of your responsibilities. As part of our audit, we considered the applicable internal controls of the Plan. Such considerations were solely for the purpose of determining our audit procedures and not to provide any assurance concerning such internal control.

We are responsible for communicating significant matters related to the audit that are, in our professional judgment, relevant to your responsibilities in overseeing the financial reporting process. However, we are not required to design procedures specifically to identify such matters.

Planned Scope and Timing of the Audit

We performed the audit according to the planned scope and timing previously communicated to you in our meeting about planning matters on August 22, 2021.

Significant Audit Findings

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. In accordance with the terms of our engagement letter, we will advise management about the appropriateness of accounting policies and their application. The significant accounting policies used by the Plan are described in Note 2 to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted, and the application of existing policies was not changed during 2020.

We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus.

We noted no significant transactions that have been recognized in the financial statements in a different period than when the transaction occurred.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the financial statements prepared by management and are based on management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the financial statements and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. The most sensitive estimate affecting the financial statements was the Plan's valuation of investments.

Management has informed us that, in determining the appropriateness of the estimate of investment values, they have recorded the fair values based on market values provided by the investment custodian, plus any applicable valuation adjustments. We performed no specific procedures related to the valuation of the investments due to the limited scope nature of the engagement.

The disclosures in the financial statements are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with management in performing and completing our audit.

Disagreements with Management

For the purpose of this letter, professional standards define a disagreement with management as a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the financial statements or the auditor's report.

We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all known and likely misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. We did not detect any misstatements as a result of audit procedures.

Significant Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards and plans and strategies that may affect the risks of material misstatement, with management each year prior to our retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship, and our responses were not a condition of our retention.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from management that are included in the management representation letter dated September 7, 2021.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a second opinion on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements or a determination of the type of auditor's opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Information in Documents Containing Audited Financial Statements

Our responsibility for other information in documents containing the Plan's financial statements and report does not extend beyond the financial statements. We do not have an obligation to determine whether or not such other information is properly stated. However, we read the Plan's Form 5500 filing, and nothing came to our attention that caused us to believe that such information, or its manner of presentation, is materially inconsistent with the information or manner of its presentation appearing in the financial statements.

Section III - Other Recommendations and Related Information

During our audit, we noted areas where we believe there are opportunities for the Plan to further strengthen internal control or to increase operating efficiencies. Our observations on those areas are presented below for your consideration:

- There is no formal process currently in place to document when users are added or removed or when they change roles, requiring user access changes to the payroll or third-party administrator system. We recommend management implement a process to document and regularly review the user access to these systems to ensure the proper individuals have appropriate access to each system.
- In June 2020, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) issued new guidance for retirement plans in connection with the CARES Act. In response, the Plan elected to allow the coronavirus-related distributions, loan provisions, and waiver of required minimum distributions (RMDs). Plan sponsors could give participants access to these benefits immediately, as long as they make the required amendments to plan documents before the last day of the first plan year beginning on or after January 1, 2022. We recommend that the Plan work with its service provider and legal counsel to amend the plan document to reflect the changes in IRS regulations related to the CARES Act.
