Except as discussed in the following paragraph, in planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of the United Grinding North America, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the "Plan"), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2020, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Plan's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances for the purpose of issuing our report on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Plan's internal control.

We were engaged to perform a DOL limited-scope audit of those financial statements, as permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974. Our audit did not include all of the procedures required by U.S. generally accepted auditing standards and did not include a consideration of internal control relating to the information summarized in Note 3 to those financial statements. Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we were unable to, and did not, express an opinion on those financial statements.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the Plan's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first two paragraphs and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies. However, material weaknesses or significant deficiencies may exist that have not been identified.

Although not material weaknesses or significant deficiencies, we identified the following opportunities for improving the internal controls, administration, and operations of the Plan.

OTHER FINDINGS / RECOMMENDATIONS

Contribution Reconciliation

During our review of internal controls, we noted that while contribution remittances are reconciled each payroll period, total contributions per the trust reports are not being reconciled to the payroll records and W-3 amounts. We recommend that Plan management reconcile total contributions per the payroll records to the trust reports or other online information from ADP on a monthly or quarterly basis. In addition, we recommend that contributions for the year per the payroll records be reconciled to the contributions per the annual trust statement provided by ADP. These controls will help to ensure that contributions are being properly classified by ADP and will help to ensure that all contributions are being remitted and received by ADP on a timely basis.

Distribution Review

During our review of internal controls, it was noted that quarterly and annual reports provided by ADP for distributions are not reviewed for reasonableness. Although no significant discrepancies were noted in this area during the audit, this review is still a prudent business practice. We recommend that Plan management review distributions for reasonableness at least quarterly. Any unusual items noted during this review, specifically distributions to unknown individuals or individuals who have not been terminated, should be investigated.

COMMUNICATIONS WITH THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE

We have conducted a DOL limited-scope audit of the financial statements of the United Grinding North America, Inc. 401(k) Plan (the "Plan"), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2020, and have issued our report thereon dated August 23, 2021. As permitted by 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, the Plan Administrator instructed us not to perform, and we did not perform, any auditing procedures with respect to the information summarized in Note 3 to those financial statements. Because of the significance of the information that we did not audit, we are unable to, and have not, expressed an opinion on those financial statements and supplemental schedule taken as a whole. We did, however, audit the form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified by the Trustee, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and found them to be presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Professional standards require that we provide you with information about our responsibilities under generally accepted auditing standards, as well as certain information related to the planned scope and timing of our audit. We have communicated such information in our engagement letter to you dated May 17, 2021. Professional standards also require that we communicate to you the following information related to our audit.

Qualitative Aspects of Accounting Practices

Management is responsible for the selection and use of appropriate accounting policies. The significant accounting policies used by the Plan are described in Note 2 to the financial statements. No new accounting policies were adopted, and the application of existing policies was not changed during 2020. We noted no transactions entered into by the Plan during the year for which there is a lack of authoritative guidance or consensus. All significant transactions have been recognized in the Plan's financial statements in the proper period.

Accounting estimates are an integral part of the Plan's financial statements prepared by management and are based on Plan management's knowledge and experience about past and current events and assumptions about future events. Certain accounting estimates are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the Plan's financial statements, and because of the possibility that future events affecting them may differ significantly from those expected. There are no significant accounting estimates in the Plan's financial statements.

Certain financial statement disclosures are particularly sensitive because of their significance to the Plan's financial statement users. The most sensitive disclosures affecting the Plan's financial statements are the disclosure describing the Plan (Note 1), the disclosure for certified investments (Note 3), the disclosure for fair value measurements (Note 4), the disclosure for related party transactions (Note 6), and the disclosure for the tax status of the Plan (Note 8).

The Plan's financial statement disclosures are neutral, consistent, and clear.

Difficulties Encountered in Performing the Audit

We encountered no significant difficulties in dealing with Plan management in performing and completing our audit.

Corrected and Uncorrected Misstatements

Professional standards require us to accumulate all misstatements identified during the audit, other than those that are clearly trivial, and communicate them to the appropriate level of management. There were no misstatements of the financial statements detected as a result of our audit procedures.

Disagreements with Management

For purposes of this letter, a disagreement with Plan management is a disagreement on a financial accounting, reporting, or auditing matter, whether or not resolved to our satisfaction, that could be significant to the Plan's financial statements or the auditors' report. We are pleased to report that no such disagreements arose during the course of our audit.

Management Representations

We have requested certain representations from Plan management that are included in the management representation letter dated August 23, 2021.

Management Consultations with Other Independent Accountants

In some cases, Plan management may decide to consult with other accountants about auditing and accounting matters, similar to obtaining a "second opinion" on certain situations. If a consultation involves application of an accounting principle to the Plan's financial statements, or a determination of the type of auditors' opinion that may be expressed on those statements, our professional standards require the consulting accountant to check with us to determine that the consultant has all the relevant facts. To our knowledge, there were no such consultations with other accountants.

Other Audit Findings or Issues

We generally discuss a variety of matters, including the application of accounting principles and auditing standards, with Plan management each year prior to retention as the Plan's auditors. However, these discussions occurred in the normal course of our professional relationship and our responses were not a condition to our retention.

Other Matters

With respect to the supplementary information accompanying the Plan's financial statements, we made certain inquiries of Plan management and evaluated the form, content, and methods of preparing the information to determine that the information complies with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, the method of preparing it has not changed from the prior period, and the information is appropriate and complete in relation to our audit of the Plan financial statements. We compared and reconciled the supplementary information to the underlying accounting records used to prepare the Plan financial statements or to the Plan financial statements themselves.

This communication is intended solely for the information and use of Plan management and others within the Plan, and is not intended to be, and should not be, used by anyone other than these specified parties.

It was a pleasure working with you. We would be glad to discuss the above recommendations or answer any questions you have both now and over the course of the Plan year. We truly appreciate your business.

Sincerely,

BRADY, WARE & SCHOENFELD, INC.
