This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of the Timely Industries 401(k) Plan (the "Plan"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2020 and 2019 and the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2020, and the related notes to the financial statements. As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Reliance Trust Company, the trustee, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedule taken as a whole.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount would be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of the date of this letter, the following representations made to you during your audit.

Financial Statements

1) We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated July 27, 2021, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements.
2) The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the plan is subject, including the DOL Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedule referred to above is fairly presented in conformity with the Department of Labor's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.
3) We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
4) We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
5) Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable.
6) Related-party relationships and transactions and relationships and transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder, have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP and ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder.

7) All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.

8) The effects of uncorrected misstatements are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole. A list of the uncorrected misstatements is attached to the representation letter.

9) We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerting litigation, claims, and assessments.

10) Other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or leases in default, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel have advised us that must be disclosed have been properly disclosed.

11) Material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

12) Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.

13) Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the plan is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

14) The supplemental schedule or financial statements disclose the following:

    a) All non-exempt party-in-interest transactions as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations under the section.

    b) Investments or loans in default or considered to be uncollectible.

    c) Reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section).

15) We have obtained the service auditor's report from our service organization, Reliance Trust Company. We have reviewed such report, including the complementary user controls. We have implemented the relevant user controls, and they were in operation for the year ended December 31, 2020.

Information Provided

16) We have provided you with:

    a) Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters.

    b) Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.

    c) Unrestricted access to persons within the plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.

    d) Plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the year, including amendments to comply with applicable laws.

17) All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.

18) We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.

19) We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the plan and involves:

    a) Management,

    b) Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or

    c) Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.

20) We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.

21) We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.

22) We have disclosed to you all known actual or possible litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements.

23) We have disclosed to you the identity of the plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related-party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.

24) The plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets, which are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interests requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.

25) We have no—

    a) Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.

    b) Intentions to terminate the plan.

26) Amendments to the plan instrument, if any, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.

27) The plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.

28) The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments are accurately described in notes to the financial statements and result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.

29) All required amendments to and filings of plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made.

30) The plan is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue it as a qualified plan. The plan sponsor has operated the Plan in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401(k) and 401(m) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the plan, and all excess deferrals and contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.

31) The plan has complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.

32) The plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.

33) We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the plan.

34) We believe the form and content of the supplemental schedule of assets (held at end of year) are fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
