Request for reasonable cause penalty abatement – COVID-19

To Whom It May Concern:

We are writing to respectfully notify you that the audit package that should accompany the 5500 filing will be delayed for 2021.

COVID-19 challenges meet the IRS's reasonable cause standard

According to IRM 20.1.1.3.2, Reasonable cause, the IRS provides relief from a penalty based on reasonable cause when the taxpayer exercised ordinary business care and prudence in determining his or her tax obligations but was nevertheless unable to comply with those obligations.

The COVID-19 pandemic impacted all aspects of life and created many uncertainties and challenges. AIPM was diligent with business care and prudence as we did our very best to remain open and operating during the pandemic, which involved establishing many new practices, procedures, and processes to keep our employees and client's safe while still providing an essential service to the community. We made a good-faith effort to meet our tax deadlines but were unable to do so due to COVID-19 impacts.

Once the facts and circumstances changed regarding the number of employees we have contributing, we reached out to our CPA firm to notify them of the need for an audit. That firm does not handle those types of cases and referred us to another third-party firm to complete the audit. Due to short staffing, our CPA firm was not able to provide that referral in a timely manner, nor could they, or we, access tax records needed for return preparation, etc., while working remotely.

These delays were caused by office shutdowns, staffing issues related to health, wellbeing and family responsibilities, and the additional responsibilities put on the CPA firm, and TPA, to assist clients with new tax legislation from the Families First Coronavirus Response Act and the Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security (CARES) Act. However, as soon as possible, our returns will be filed (no later than November 19, 2021); therefore, satisfying the reasonable cause criteria.

Based on the facts presented above, we respectfully request that the penalty be waived based on reasonable cause.

If you have any questions, please call me at (916) 281-0142.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Deborah Romani
