Report of Independent Auditors

To the Administrator of Validus Reinsurance, Ltd. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Validus Reinsurance, Ltd. 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan (the "Plan"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of February 28, 2021 and December 31, 2020, the related statement of changes in net assets available for benefits for the two-month period ended February 28, 2021, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on our judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, we consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the net assets available for benefits of the Plan as of February 28, 2021 and December 31, 2020 and the changes in net assets available for benefits for the two-month period ended February 28, 2021, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

1. Description of Plan

General

The Validus Reinsurance, Ltd. ("Company") 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan (the "Plan") was a company sponsored retirement plan established effective January 1, 2006. The Plan was available to all employees who were U.S. citizens aged 21 years or older and were employed by Validus Holdings, Ltd. or any affiliate who had adopted the Plan. The Plan was not available to a Spouse of a Bermudian for purposes of receiving any allocation. The Plan was subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"). The Plan trustee was Reliance Trust, the Plan Administrator was FM International Services (NY), Ltd. and the Plan custodian was Fidelity Brokerage Services LLC ("Fidelity").

Effective January 1, 2021, in order to align the overall plan asset management and administration for the AIG group of companies in respect of the 401(k) plans, the Plan Participants ("Participants") became eligible to participate in the AIG Group Incentive Savings Plan ("AIG Plan"), under "Amendment No.7 to the American International Group, Inc. Incentive Savings Plan". Participant contributions into the Plan therefore ceased at this time and were commenced into the AIG Plan effective January 1, 2021. Also, as part of the amendment, the Plan merged with and into the AIG Plan as of the end of the day on February 9, 2021, or as soon as practicable thereafter. The Plan assets, including investment balances and notes receivable from participants, were transferred from Fidelity in the amount of $33,455,706, to Northern Trust Company, as the AIG Plan's trustee and custodian, on February 8, 2021.

Contributions

As noted above, Participant contributions ceased effective January 1, 2021. The Company made Safe Harbor Contributions to the Plan in an amount not less than 3% of Participants' compensation through February 8, 2021, the date of transfer. All other Company contributions, namely discretionary Profit Sharing Contributions on behalf of the Participants, will be made to the AIG Plan.

Distributions and Withdrawals

The Plan's retirement age was 65. Other reasons for distribution from the Plan included death, disability, and termination of employment.

As part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Security Act ("CARES Act"), the Plan had adopted provisions in line with American International Group, Inc. ("AIG"). The Plan offered the special COVID distribution, but did not increase the 401(k) loan limits to $100,000 as proposed in the CARES Act.

In the event that a participant experienced financial hardship, they could withdraw from their account balance, upon approval from the Company. Only one hardship withdrawal was allowed every twelve months and was only approved once a participant had obtained all distributions, other than hardship distributions, and all nontaxable loans under all plans maintained by the Company. Financial needs considered to meet the financial hardship requirements included:

- Expenses incurred or necessary for medical care, described in the Internal Revenue Code section 213(d), for immediate family or dependents;
- The purchase (excluding mortgage payments) of a principal residence for the Participant;
- Payment of tuition and related educational fees for the next 12 months of post-secondary education for immediate family or dependents;
- The need to prevent the eviction from a principal residence (or a foreclosure on the mortgage on a principal residence);
- Payments for burial or funeral expenses for immediate family or dependents; or
- Expenses for the repair of damage to a principal residence that would qualify for the casualty deduction.

Participant Accounts
A separate account was maintained by the Plan for each Plan participant. Participants directed the investment of their contribution and Company contributions into any of the various investment options that were offered by the Plan. Statements of account balances were issued quarterly for contributions, withdrawals, and Plan earnings on each Participants' invested assets. Allocations were based on participant earnings, account balances, or specific participant transactions, as defined. The benefit to which a participant was entitled was the benefit that could be provided from the participant's vested account. Participant accounts were charged for some of the costs and expenses of operating the Plan.

Vesting
When participants terminated employment, they were generally entitled to the vested portion in each of their accounts. They were always 100% vested in the amounts they contributed to the Plan. They were also always 100% vested in the Elective Deferral Account, Rollover Contribution Account, Qualified Non-Elective Contribution Account and Safe Harbor Account. The Profit Sharing Contribution Account was subject to a two year cliff vesting schedule (100% after two years of vesting service). Credited vesting services carried over to the AIG Plan.

Notes Receivable from Participants
Participants were allowed to apply for loans from their own account. Federal law limited the amount of the loan from a minimum of $1,000, up to a maximum equal to the lesser of $50,000 or 50% of their vested account balance for any financial needs considered to meet financial hardship requirements and conditions as noted in the Plan documents. Under the CARES Act, the Plan offered delayed loan payment, which spans over 5 years. If the participant failed to make loan payments, the unpaid balance was subject to 10% penalty on the outstanding balance and was taxable immediately. Notes receivable from the participants were transferred to the AIG Plan with the same terms and conditions.

Distribution of Benefits
Where entitled for reasons other than death, payments from the Plan were to be made in a lump-sum equal to the Participant's vested balance in the Plan, which was the normal form of payment. In addition to this normal form of payment, distributions from the Plan after termination of employment (for reasons other than death) may be made under a continuous right of withdrawal. Payment of the vested account could start as soon as administratively feasible after the end of the Plan year and after all contributions were allocated to all Participant Accounts relating to the Plan year in which the account balance became distributable. Each account was payable in cash. If a Participant died before distribution of the account began, distribution of the entire account would be completed by December 31 of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of death unless an election was made by the beneficiary to receive distributions in accordance with specific parameters. If a Participant died after distribution of the account had began, the remaining portion of the account continued to be distributed under the method of distribution being used prior to death. At the time of death, the beneficiary received the remaining vested account balance in a lump sum distribution.

Plan Termination
Although the Company intended to maintain the Plan indefinitely, the Company could amend or terminate the Plan at any time in its sole discretion, with notification to participants. However, no such action could permit any part of Plan assets to be used for any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of participants and beneficiaries or cause any reduction in participants' vested account balance as of the date of the amendment or termination. If the Plan was terminated, all amounts credited to participant accounts would become 100% vested.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting
The financial statements were prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The Plan used the accrual basis of accounting for the presentation of financial statements.

Use of Estimates
The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America required management to make estimates and assumptions that could affect amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Investment Valuation and Income Recognition
Investments were reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The Plan's benefits committee determined the Plan's valuation policies utilizing information provided by the investment advisers and the trustee. See Note 3 for discussion of fair value measurements.

Purchases and sales of securities were recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income was recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends were recorded on the ex-dividend date. Net appreciation included the Plan's gains and losses on investments bought and sold as well as held during the year.

Notes Receivable from Participants
Notes receivable from Participants as at December 31, 2020 were valued at the unpaid principal balance plus accrued, but unpaid, interest. No allowance for credit losses was recorded.

Payment of Benefits
Benefits were recorded when paid.

Expenses
Expenses of maintaining the Plan were paid by the Company. Expenses that were paid by the Company were excluded from these financial statements. There were no fees related to the administration of notes receivable from participants for 2021 as the notes receivable from participants were transferred to the AIG Plan and administered there. Investment related expenses were included in net appreciation of fair value of investments.

3. Fair Value Measurements

Authoritative guidance relating to fair value measurements establishes a framework for measuring fair value. That framework provides a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described below:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology were unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Plan had the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology included:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability had a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology were unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy was based on the lowest level of any input that was significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used needed to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value:

Mutual funds: Valued at the daily closing price as reported by the fund. Mutual funds held by the Plan were open-end mutual funds that were registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These funds were required to publish their daily net asset value ("NAV") and to transact at that price. The mutual funds held by the Plan were deemed to be actively traded.

The following tables set forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Plan's assets at fair value as at December 31, 2020. The Plan assets as at February 28, 2021 were $nil due to the transfer of the assets to the AIG Plan.

	December 31, 2020
	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Mutual funds	$ 34,216,502	$ -	$ -	$ 34,216,502
Total assets at fair value	$ 34,216,502	$ -	$ -	$ 34,216,502

For the year ended December 31, 2020, there were no transfers in and out of Level 3.

4. Income Tax Status

The Plan adopted the CCH Incorporated, DBA ftwilliam.com Volume Submitter Profit Sharing Plan with CODA (Volume Submitter Plan) on January 1, 2006. The Volume Submitter Plan obtained an opinion letter on March 31, 2014, in which the IRS stated that the Volume Submitter Plan, as then designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the IRC. The adoption agreement was amended and restated January 1, 2016. The Plan administrator believed the Plan was operating in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Code and, therefore, believed that the Plan was qualified and the related trust is tax exempt.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require Plan management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Plan and recognize a tax liability if the Plan has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by the IRS. The Plan administrator has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Plan, and has concluded that as of February 28, 2021 and December 31, 2020, there were no uncertain positions taken that required recognition of a liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Plan can be subjected to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions; however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. There were no tax related interest or penalties reflected in these financial statements.

5. Related Party and Party-In-Interest Transactions

The Company paid certain trustee and administrative expenses to Reliance Trust and FMI International Services (NY), Ltd. of $34,321 for the period ended February 28, 2021.

Certain plan investments were managed by Fidelity. Fidelity was the custodian for the Plan and, therefore, these transactions qualified as party-in-interest transactions. At February 28, 2021 and December 31, 2020, assets held in Fidelity investments were $0 and $34,216,502, respectively.

6. Risks and Uncertainties

The Plan invested in various investment securities, primarily mutual funds. Investment securities can be exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain investment securities, it was at least reasonably possible that changes in the values of investment securities occurred in the near-term and that such changes could materially affect participants' account balances and the amounts reported in the statements of net assets available for benefits.

7. Subsequent events

The Plan has evaluated subsequent events occurring after March 1, 2021 through the date of December 14, 2021, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued.
