This representation letter is provided in connection with your audit of the financial statements and supplemental schedule of Gem 401K Plan (the "Plan"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the periods then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion as to whether the financial statements are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP), and whether the supplemental schedules are fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole. As permitted by Regulation 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), we have instructed you not to perform any auditing procedures with respect to information prepared and certified to by Reliance Trust, in accordance with DOL Regulation 2520.103-5, except for comparing the information with the related information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedule as a whole. We understand that the form and content of the information in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified by Reliance Trust has been audited by you in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement. An omission or misstatement that is monetarily small in amount could be considered material as a result of qualitative factors.

We confirm, to the best of our knowledge and belief, as of November 15, 2021, the following representations made to you during your audit.

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in terms of the audit engagement letter dated August 30, 2021, including our responsibility for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements and note disclosures.

- The financial statements referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with U.S. GAAP, the notes include all disclosures required by laws and regulations to which the plan is subject, including the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA, and the supplemental schedules referred to above are fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.

- Significant assumptions we used in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The appropriateness and consistency of the measurement processes used by us in determining accounting estimates are reasonable. The assumptions appropriately reflect our intent and ability to carry out specific courses of action. The disclosures related to accounting estimates are complete and appropriate. No subsequent event has occurred that would require adjustment to the accounting estimates or disclosures included in the financial statements.

- Related party relationships and transactions and relationships and transactions with parties-in-interest, as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations there under, have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP and ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations there under.

- No events have occurred subsequent to the date of the financial statements for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure.

- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with US GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.

- Other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or leases in default, events reportable to the PBGC, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel have advised us that must be disclosed have been properly disclosed.

- Material concentrations have been properly disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

- Financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.

- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the plan is contingently liable, have been properly recorded or disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

- The supplemental schedules or financial statements disclose the following:

  i) All non-exempt party-in-interest transactions [as defined in ERISA Section 3(14) and regulations thereunder].

  ii) Investments or loans in default or considered to be uncollectible.

  iii) Reportable transactions [as defined in ERISA Section 103(b) (3) (H) and regulations thereunder].

Information Provided

- We have provided you with

  a. Access to all information, of which we are aware, that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as records, documentation, and other matters, including:
     i. Completeness and availability of all minutes of all relevant committees or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes were not yet prepared, and
     ii. Communications from regulatory agencies concerning noncompliance with, or deficiencies in, financial reporting practices.

  b. Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit.

  c. Unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence.

  d. Plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, or investment contracts and amendments to such documents entered into during the year, including amendments to comply with applicable laws.

- All material transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.

- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.

- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Plan and involves:

    a. Management,

    b. Employees who have significant roles in internal control, or

    c. Others where the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.

- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud or suspected fraud affecting the Plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.

- We have no knowledge of any instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations (including ERISA, DOL, and IRS regulations) whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.

- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, or assessments or unasserted claims or assessments that are required to be accrued or disclosed in the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and we have not consulted a lawyer concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.

- We have disclosed to you the identity of the Plan's related parties and parties in interest and all related-party and party-in-interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.

- The Plan has satisfactory title to all owned assets, which are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interests requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.

- We have no—

a. Plans or intentions that may materially affect the carrying value or classification of assets and liabilities.

b. Intentions to terminate the plan.

- Amendments to the Plan instrument, if any, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.

- The plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance, including the release of unallocated shares held in ESOP plans.

- The methods and significant assumptions used to estimate fair values of financial instruments, including non-readily marketable securities, are as follows: quoted market prices are used to value investments. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.

- All required amendments to filings of Plan documents with the appropriate agencies have been made. The Plan obtained its latest determination letter on July 8, 2014, in which the Internal Revenue Service stated that the Plan, as then designed, was in compliance with the applicable requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.

- The Plan (and the trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and we intend to continue them as a qualified plan (and trust). The Plan sponsor has operated the Plan (and trust) in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status. Required nondiscrimination testing related to Code Section 401(k) arrangements, as applicable, has been completed for the Plan, and any excess deferrals or contributions have been disposed of in accordance with regulations.

- The Plan has complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participant contributions to trusts containing assets for the Plan.

- The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.

- We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.

- We acknowledge our responsibility for presenting the Schedule H, Line 4i - Schedule of Assets Held at End of Year in accordance with U.S. GAAP and in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA and we believe the Schedule I (Schedule H, Line 4i - Schedule of Assets Held at End of Year) including its form and content, is fairly presented in accordance with U.S. GAAP and in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. The methods of measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedule have not changed from those used in the prior period, and we have disclosed to you any significant assumptions or interpretations underlying the measurement and presentation of the supplemental schedule.

- We believe the form and content of the Schedule H, Line 4i - Schedule of Assets Held at End of Year is fairly presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
