TO: Washington State Department of Labor
RE: Form 5500 for the year 2020
PMF Real Estate Services, LLC
Plan # 102215 / EIN # 27-5290121

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in reference to failing to meet the deadline for the 2020 filing date. I am the plan administrator for our company; we are a very small company (9 people) and all wear multiple hats. With COVID, everyone working from home, and the chaos of this past year, I knew the deadline had been extended but I didn't realize I had missed it until I went to file.

I have met the deadline every year since 2016 and I am kindly requesting that this penalty be waived. We have given countless concessions to our tenants on late fees this past year and we all realize things are not "normal" these days so I hope you will be understanding of our late filing. If there is a fee, I will deduct it from my paycheck as I wouldn't want my company to be charged for my error.

This year continues to be a struggle, but I will be certain to not miss the deadline for the 2021 filing. Please let me know if the penalty has been waived.

Kind Regards,

Deborah Oswald
