Gentlemen:

This representation letter is provided in connection with your audits of the financial statements of the Rahi Systems Inc. 401(k) Plan (the "Plan"), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2020 and 2019, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the year ended December 31, 2020, and the related notes to the financial statements, for the purpose of expressing an opinion on whether the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial status and changes in financial status of the Plan in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP).

We understand that, at our instruction, you did not perform any audit procedures with respect to information prepared, and certified by Reliance Trust for the periods from January 1, 2020 through December 31, 2020 and the plan year 2019, the asset custodian during the period, in accordance with the Department of Labor (DOL) rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, other than comparing such information with the financial statements and supplemental schedule. Because of the significance of the information which you did not audit, we understand that you will not express an opinion on the financial statements and supplemental schedule taken as a whole. We understand the form and content of the information included in the financial statements and supplemental schedule, other than that derived from the information certified or provided by the Trustee, was audited by you in accordance with U.S. GAAS, and was subjected to tests of our accounting records and other procedures as you considered necessary to enable you to express an opinion as to whether they are presented in compliance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting under ERISA.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to matters that are material. Items are considered material, regardless of size, if they involve an omission or misstatement of accounting information that, in the light of surrounding circumstances, makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would be changed or influenced by the omission or misstatement.

We confirm that, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves, as of the date of this letter, the following representations made to you during your audit:

Financial Statements

- We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated March 12, 2022, as amended, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with U.S. GAAP, and the notes include all the disclosures required by laws and regulations in which the plan is subject, including the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements, notes, and supplemental schedule that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
- Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
- We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.
- Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of U.S. GAAP.
- Transactions with parties in interest, as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from, or payable to, related parties have been appropriately disclosed.
- All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which U.S. GAAP requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
- The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and disclosed in accordance with U.S. GAAP.
- We have no intentions to terminate the plan.
- Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the plan is contingently liable to a bank or another lending institution have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements, if applicable.
- We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the plan instrument, if any.
- We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the supplementary information in accordance with the applicable criteria and we believe the supplementary information, including its form and content, is fairly presented in accordance with the applicable criteria. The methods of measurement or presentation have not changed from those used in the prior period.
- We take full responsibility for the presented financial statements that were drafted by the auditor at our request.

Information Provided

- We have provided you with:
 - Access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements, such as financial records and related data, plan instruments, trust agreements, insurance contracts, as applicable, or investments contracts, as

- applicable, and amendments to such documents entered into during the year;
 - Additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit;
 - Unrestricted access to persons within the plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence;
 - All minutes of the meetings of the Plan or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared; and
- All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
- Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
- The plan or trust has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
- We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the plan and involves:
 - Management;
 - Employees who have significant roles in internal control; or
 - Others when the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
- We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
- We have disclosed to you all known instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
- We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements and we have not consulted legal counsel concerning litigation, claims, or assessments.
- There are no other matters (e.g., breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or loans in default, events reportable to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel has advised us must be disclosed.
- We have disclosed to you the identity of the plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related party and party in interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
- We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the plan.
- The plan has complied with all aspects of debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance, including the release of unallocated shares held in employee stock ownership plans.
- All required filings with the appropriate agencies have been made.
- The Plan (and the trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and intends to continue as a qualified plan (and trust). The Plan sponsor(s) has operated the plan and trust or insurance contract in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.
- The plan has complied with the DOL's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participants' contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.
- The plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.

- The form and content of Schedule I is fairly presented in accordance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.
- Effective March 27, 2020, the Plan adopted the distribution provision of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security ("CARES") Act that was signed into law on March 27, 2020. A CARES Act distribution allows the Plan's participants to take a COVID-19 related distribution up to $100,000 from the Plan beginning on or after January 1, 2020 and before December 31, 2020. In addition, effective March 27, 2020, the Plan adopted the temporary loan repayment deferral provision of the CARES Act. The deferral provision adopted by the Plan allows qualified Plan participants who have Plan loan repayments to defer such repayments until December 31, 2020.
- Effective March 27, 2020, the Plan adopted the distribution provision under the CARES ACT. The provision permits qualified Plan participants to withdraw up to $100,000 of their vested account. The distribution provision is available only until December 30, 2020.
- There are no:
 - Nonexempt party in interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 3[l] and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule or financial statements.
 - Investments in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule.
 - Reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103[b][3][H] and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule.

Sincerely,

Rahi Systems, Inc. 401(k) Plan:
