The average value of assets calculated in this manner is further limited to not less than 90% nor more than 110% of fair market value. A characteristic of this method is that the expected distribution of the value of plan assets is skewed toward understatement relative to the corresponding market values for expected long-term rates of return in excess of the third segment rate under IRC section 430(h)(2)(C)(iii).

Eligible employees become participants on the December 1 nearest the date twelve months after employment providing the employee completes 1,000 hours of service within that twelve month period.

The above notwithstanding, no one hired after October 1, 2012 is eligible for this plan.

Service

Service shall equal total years of service with the Employer. A year of service is credited for each Plan Year in which an employee works 1,000 Hours or for each Plan Year during which the participant is receiving Disability Benefits.

A break in service occurs at the start of any Plan Year in which the employee works 500 Hours or less for the Employer in such year. Service will not be interrupted by:

(1) A leave of absence granted by the Employer.

(2) A period of service in the Armed Forces of the United States under which employment rights are granted.

(3) Transfer of employment from one participating Employer to another.

(4) Maternity/paternity leave.

An employee will be given credit for his pre-break service if either of the following occurs:

(2) The employee's period of absence was less than the greater of his pre-break service or 5 years.

Pension Credited Service

A year of Pension Credited Service is credited for each plan year in which an employee is credited with 1,000 or more hours of service

Normal Retirement Date

Normal retirement date is the December 1 nearest the later of the attainment of age 65 and the fifth anniversary of the date of participation.

Normal Retirement Benefit

With respect to that portion of his benefit earned as of March 31, 2005, 37.5% of his Average Annual Compensation reduced for each Year of Participation less than 15; plus
With respect to that portion of his benefit earned after March 31, 2005, 37.5% of his Average Annual Compensation reduced for each Year of Participation less than 25.

Delayed Retirement

A participant may continue in the employment of the Employer after his Normal Retirement Date. In such event he will receive at actual retirement a benefit calculated as of his delayed retirement date based on service to such date, or, in the event it results in a greater benefit, his normal retirement benefit actuarially increased.

Compensation

The total amount paid to an employee, including base wage or salary, overtime, bonuses, incentive compensation, holiday pay, vacation pay, sick pay and salary deferrals excludable from gross income, but not including commissions or amounts in excess of the maximum annual compensation limit of IRC Section 401(a)(17).

Average Compensation

Average compensation over the highest five consecutive plan years during the entire period of employment.

Accrued Benefit

The amount of monthly benefit to be paid for life commencing at the Normal Retirement Date calculated as the Normal Retirement Benefit, multiplied by a fraction, not greater than 1, with the numerator equal to the current number of years of Pension Credited Service and the denominator equal to the number of years of Pension Credited Service projected to the Normal Retirement Date, for both the portion of the benefit earned prior to April 1, 2005 and after April 1, 2005.

Early Retirement Benefit

Upon the attainment of age 55 and the completion of 20 years of service a participant may elect to retire. He may receive a monthly benefit for life beginning at his Normal Retirement Date equal to the benefit accrued at the early retirement date. Alternatively, payments may begin immediately or on the first day of any month thereafter prior to his Normal Retirement Date, with the benefit reduced 0.5% for each month that the Early Retirement Date precedes the Normal Retirement Date.

Disability Retirement Benefit

In the event of an active participant's disability after attaining age 55 and completing 15 years of Pension Credited Service, the participant's monthly disability benefit shall commence on first day of the month coincident or next following the completion of six months in an amount equal to the participant's Accrued Benefit. This benefit shall continue to the earlier of: (1) the participant's Normal Retirement Date (at which time the same monthly benefit shall continue as the retirement benefit) or (2) the date the participant is determined by the Employer to no longer be disabled.

Death Benefit

In the event of an active participant's death after becoming vested, his surviving spouse shall receive a benefit calculated as if the participant had terminated on the day before his death and elected to receive benefits in the form of a joint and 50% survivor annuity beginning on the date that would have been the participant's Normal Retirement Date. However, if the participant had completed 20 or more years of service, the spouse may elect a reduced pension on the first day of any month on or after the date that would have been the participant's earliest Early Retirement Date.

Severance Benefit

Upon the termination of employment after 5 or more Years of Service a participant shall have a vested interest in his Accrued Benefit which will be payable at Normal Retirement Date. The percentage vested shall be:

Years of Service	Vested Percent
Fewer than 5	0%

The Employer reserves the right to amend or terminate the Plan at any time. The Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation reserves the right to terminate the Plan if the Employer fails to meet the minimum funding standards or is unable to pay benefits when due.
If the Plan is terminated, the plan assets will be distributed among the plan participants based upon a priority allocation procedure and the Employer shall be liable for any unfunded vested benefits to the extent required by law. If any assets remain after satisfaction of the plan liabilities they shall revert to the Employer.
