This representation letter is provided in connection with your audits of the financial statements of U.S. OCCMED Holdings, LLC 401(k) Plan Audit (the Plan), an employee benefit plan subject to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA), which comprise the statements of net assets available for benefits as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of changes in net assets available for benefits for the years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related notes to the financial statements.

We elected to have the audit of the Plan's financial statements performed in accordance with ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) pursuant to 29 CFR 2520.103-8 of the Department of Labor's (DOL) Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We acknowledge that the audit did not extend to any statements or information related to assets held for investment of the Plan (investment information) by a bank or similar institution or insurance carrier, that is regulated, supervised and subject to periodic examination by a state or federal agency, a qualified institution, that prepared and certified the investment information in accordance with 29 CFR 2520.103-5 of the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We have determined that an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is permissible under the circumstances. We have also determined that the investment information is prepared and certified by a qualified institution as described by 29 CFR 2520.103-8, that the certification meets the requirements in 29 CFR 2520.103-5 and, that the certified investment information is appropriately measured, presented, and disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The purpose of an ERISA Section 103(a)(3)(C) audit is to express an opinion on whether the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, other than those agreed to or derived from the certified investment information, are presented fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and that the assets held by and certified to by a qualified institution agrees to, or is derived from, in all material respects, the certified investment information.

Certain representations in this letter are described as being limited to misstatements that are material. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

We confirm that, to the best of our knowledge and belief, having made such inquiries as we considered necessary for the purpose of appropriately informing ourselves as of September 19, 2022, the following representations made to you during your audit:

Financial Statements

1. We have fulfilled our responsibilities, as set out in the terms of the audit engagement letter dated December 15, 2021, for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements (including disclosures) in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
2. We acknowledge our responsibility for administering the plan and determining that the plan's transactions that are represented and disclosed in the ERISA plan financial statements are in conformity with the plan's provisions, including maintaining sufficient records with respect to each of the participants to determine the benefits due or which may become due to such participants.
3. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

4. We acknowledge our responsibility for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control to prevent and detect fraud.
5. Significant assumptions used by us in making accounting estimates, including those measured at fair value, are reasonable. The methods and significant assumptions used result in a measure of fair value appropriate for financial measurement and disclosure purposes.
6. We are responsible for the estimation methods and assumptions used in measuring assets and liabilities reported or disclosed at fair value, including information obtained from brokers, pricing services, or other third parties. Our valuation methodologies have been consistently applied from period to period. The fair value measurements reported or disclosed represent our best estimate of fair value as of the measurement date in accordance with the requirements of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurement. In addition, our disclosures related to fair value measurements are consistent with the objectives outlined in FASB ASC 820.
7. Related party relationships and transactions have been appropriately accounted for and disclosed in accordance with the requirements of accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
8. Transactions with parties in interest, as defined in Section 3(14) of ERISA and regulations thereunder, including sales, purchases, loans, transfers, leasing arrangements, and guarantees, and amounts receivable from, or payable to, related parties have been appropriately disclosed.
9. All events subsequent to the date of the financial statements and for which accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires adjustment or disclosure have been adjusted or disclosed.
10. The effects of uncorrected misstatements are immaterial, both individually and in the aggregate, to the financial statements as a whole. There are no misstatements that have not been properly adjusted in the financial statements.
11. The effects of all known actual or possible litigation and claims have been accounted for and/or disclosed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
12. We have no intentions to terminate the Plan.
13. Guarantees, whether written or oral, under which the Plan is contingently liable to a bank, or any other lending institution, have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
14. We have properly reported and disclosed amendments to the plan instrument, if any.

ERISA-Required Supplemental Schedules

15. We acknowledge our responsibility for the presentation of the ERISA-required supplemental schedule in accordance with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA. We believe that the ERISA-required supplemental schedule, including their form and content, are presented in conformity with the DOL's Rules and Regulations for Reporting and Disclosure under ERISA.

We believe the ERISA-required supplemental schedules are fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole and the form and content are presented in conformity with the DOL rules and regulations for reporting and disclosure under ERISA.

Information Provided

16. We have provided you with:
 - a. access to all information, of which we are aware that is relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements such as records, documentation, and other matters;
 - b. the most current plan instrument for the audit period, including all plan amendments;
 - c. a draft of the Form 5500 that is substantially complete;
 - d. additional information that you have requested from us for the purpose of the audit;
 - e. unrestricted access to persons within the Plan from whom you determined it necessary to obtain audit evidence;
 - f. all minutes of the meetings related to the Plan, or summaries of actions of recent meetings for which minutes have not yet been prepared.
17. All transactions have been recorded in the accounting records and are reflected in the financial statements.
18. Financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk and financial instruments with concentrations of credit risk have been properly recorded or disclosed in the financial statements.
19. The Plan or Trust has satisfactory title to all owned assets that are recorded at fair value, and all liens, encumbrances, or security interest requiring disclosure in the financial statements have been properly disclosed.
20. We have disclosed to you the results of our assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud.
21. We have no knowledge of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the Plan and involves:
 - a. management,
 - b. employees who have significant roles in internal control, or
 - c. others when the fraud could have a material effect on the financial statements.
22. We have no knowledge of any allegations of fraud, or suspected fraud, affecting the Plan's financial statements communicated by employees, former employees, participants, regulators, beneficiaries, service providers, third-party administrators, or others.
23. We have disclosed to you all known instances of noncompliance or suspected noncompliance with laws and regulations whose effects should be considered when preparing financial statements.
24. We are not aware of any pending or threatened litigation, claims, and assessments whose effects should be considered when preparing the financial statements.
25. There are no other matters (for example, breach of fiduciary responsibilities, nonexempt transactions, loans or loans in default, or events that may jeopardize the tax status) that legal counsel have advised us must be disclosed.

26. We have disclosed to you the identity of the plan's related parties and parties in interest and all the related party and party in interest relationships and transactions of which we are aware.
27. We have apprised you of all communications, whether written or oral, with regulatory agencies concerning the operation of the Plan.
28. There are no debt and other contractual agreements that would have a material effect on the financial statements in the event of noncompliance.
29. All required filings with the appropriate agencies have been made.
30. The Plan (and the Trust established under the Plan) is qualified under the appropriate section of the Internal Revenue Code and intends to continue as a qualified plan (and trust). The plan sponsor(s) has operated the Plan and Trust or insurance contract in a manner that did not jeopardize this tax status.
31. The Plan has complied with the Department of Labor's regulations concerning the timely remittance of participants' contributions to trusts containing assets for the plan.
32. The Plan has complied with the fidelity bonding requirements of ERISA.
33. There are no:
 - a. nonexempt party in interest transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 406-408 and regulations thereunder) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule or financial statements.
 - b. investments in default or considered to be uncollectible that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule.
 - c. reportable transactions (as defined in ERISA Section 103(b)(3)(H) and regulations under that section) that were not disclosed in the supplemental schedule.
